

Agnes Scott Degree Requirements

128 Credits Required to Graduate

General Education Requirements

(25-45 credits)

Global Learning

(5-21 credits)

GBL 102 (4 credits)

GBL 103: Global Immersion Experience (1 credit)

Non-English Language (up to 16 credits, depending on placement)

Leadership Development

(8-12 credits)

Legacy: The Goizueta Foundation Leadership Immersion

LDR 101 (4 credits)

LDR 201: SCALE - Sophomore Class Atlanta Leadership Experience (1 credit)

ENG 110 (4 credits)

Physical Education (1 course)

Applied Career Topics (1 credit)

SUM 400: Portfolio (2 credits)

Intellectual Breadth*

(12 credits)

SUMMIT in the Arts & Humanities (4 credits)

SUMMIT in STEM (4 credits)

SUMMIT in the Social Sciences (4 credits)

*The Intellectual Breadth courses must include one Leadership Skills course and one Global Social Cultural Analysis course.

Major Requirements

(32-52 credits)

Specializations/Electives/Minors/Second Majors

(31-71 credits)

Students may choose to complete their degree (i.e., earn 128 credits) by pursuing specializations, electives, minors, second majors, etc.

Global Learning Specialization

GBL 201 (4 credits)

Global Breadth Course (4 credits)

3rd Year Language Course (4 credits)

Global Experience (variable credits)

Leadership Development Specialization

LDR 200 (4 credits)

2 Leadership Breadth Courses (8 credits)

Leadership Practicum

While this handout provides a useful overview of the Agnes Scott College degree requirements, categories overlap a great deal more than it suggests. All courses contribute to "intellectual breadth," many courses in majors and minors further "global learning and/or "leadership development" and many types of courses listed under "global learning" also contain "leadership development" content and vice versa.