Asian Studies Courses – Spring 2013

Chinese

CHI-102 ELEMENTARY CHINESE II
Chang, MWF 10:30-11:20am
  Continuation of 101.
  Prerequisite: CHI-101 or the equivalent

CHI-202 INTERMEDIATE CHINESE II
Chang, MWF 8:30-9:20
  Designed to advance skills in spoken and written Mandarin Chinese. Grammatical structures, vocabulary and pronunciation will build on Chinese 201. Cultural material will be included in course content.
  Prerequisite: CHI-201

Japanese

JAP-102 ELEMENTARY JAPANESE II
Negrelli, MWF 3:30-4:20pm
  Continuation of Japanese 101
  Prerequisite: JAP-101 or equivalent

JAP-202 INTERMEDIATE JAPANESE II
Suzuki, MWF 1:00-1:50pm
  A continuation of Japanese 201
  Prerequisite: JAP-201 or equivalent

Asian Studies

REL-232 BUDDHISM
Zablocki, TTh 10:00-11:15am
  This course examines the life and teachings of the Buddha, the religious institutions that he founded to carry on his doctrine and the ways that Buddhism later developed in India and spread through Asia and to the West.

REL-233 TIBET THROUGH FILM AND LITERATURE
Zablocki, TTh 6:00-9:00pm + Th 5:10-6:35pm
  This course examines the construction of Tibet as a mythic object of fantasy in the Western imagination. Close attention will be given to the way Tibet has been portrayed in a variety of literary and film genres.

REL-243 RELIGIONS OF SOUTH ASIA
Zablocki, TTh 2:00-3:15pm
  This course examines the religious traditions of the South Asian subcontinent, including Hinduism, Jainism, Buddhism, Sikhism, and Islam.