About Agnes Scott College

“A liberal arts education pursued in a community that strives to live honorably is an education that liberates our minds, empowers our voices and connects us to the wider world.”

Elizabeth Kiss, President

Agnes Scott College is committed to educating women who achieve in their professions; contribute to their communities; engage the social, technological and global issues of their times and who live personally and spiritually purposeful lives. Students thrive in an atmosphere of academic and intellectual challenge that includes independent studies and student-designed majors.

The liberal arts curriculum emphasizes academic excellence, interdisciplinary learning initiatives and experiential learning through local internships, collaborative research and study abroad. The campus is located in metropolitan Atlanta in the city of Decatur. Nationally known as a center for research and higher education, Atlanta provides resources and learning opportunities central to the Agnes Scott experience.

As a student immerses herself in the world, its cultures, history and ideas, she obtains the tools needed to explore her world passionately and ethically. She gains the confidence to handle difficult questions and offer responsible, rational and creative answers. As a women’s college, Agnes Scott provides diverse role models who offer rich and multi-layered examples of what leadership can be. Students become leaders in social, athletic, academic and political arenas. The young woman who runs for office, competes for a scholarship or speaks up in class knows her gender is not an issue. As a result, she forms a clear view of her strengths and weaknesses, finds her voice and is encouraged to speak out about the issues of the day.

Agnes Scott alumnae and students include Rhodes, Fulbright, Marshall, Truman, Gates Millennium and Goldwater scholars, the chief justice of the South Carolina Supreme Court, a Tony Award and Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright, internationally acclaimed scientists and women who work in the CIA, CDC, EPA, CNN and Peace Corps. Agnes Scott students have also received prestigious awards including the Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship, Rotary Ambassadorial Scholarship and Thomas R. Pickering Foreign Affairs Fellowship.

Distinguished high school graduates come to Agnes Scott with a strong academic record and a desire to achieve higher goals. They leave with the knowledge and insight to achieve those goals and make a lasting contribution to their community, generation and world.

Agnes Scott College Mission

Agnes Scott College educates women to think deeply, live honorably and engage the intellectual and social challenges of their times.

Agnes Scott College provides a dynamic liberal arts and sciences curriculum of the highest standards so that students and faculty can realize their full creative and intellectual potential.

Agnes Scott College fosters an environment in which women can develop high expectations for themselves as individuals, scholars, professionals and citizens of the world.

Agnes Scott College strives to be a just and inclusive community that expects honorable behavior, encourages spiritual inquiry and promotes respectful dialogue across differences.

Adopted by the Board of Trustees, August 2002

Agnes Scott College honors in its name the integrity and intellectual curiosity of Agnes Irvine Scott, a Scots-Irish immigrant to the United States. Her son, Col. George Washington Scott, was the college’s primary benefactor, and The Rev. Frank Henry Gaines, minister of Decatur Presbyterian Church, was the founding president. While their leadership extended into the South the Presbyterian educational movement that began with Princeton University, Agnes Scott was established with a distinctive mission: to educate women for the betterment of their families and the elevation of their region. Initially named the Decatur Female Seminary in 1889 and renamed the Agnes Scott Institute in 1890, the college was chartered as Agnes Scott College in 1906.

The first institution of higher education in Georgia to receive regional accreditation, Agnes Scott College dedicated itself from the beginning to the highest level of “moral and intellectual training and education.” Its emphasis on academic excellence and a rigorous liberal arts curriculum “fully abreast of the best institutions of this country” has always encouraged independent thinking in an atmosphere for learning. The college’s residential campus, prized for its aesthetic distinction, has given all student generations a sense of place, purpose and responsibility. Student self-government under an honor code has been a hallmark since 1906. A founding member of many national and regional educational associations, Agnes Scott has been a member of Phi Beta Kappa since 1926. This tradition of educational leadership continues in the 21st century as the college models new forms of undergraduate education for women, including innovative science and international programs and linkages to Atlanta’s university, business and cultural communities.

The Reformed tradition in which the college was created helped shape the intellectual, spiritual and ethical values affirmed to this day: individual inquiry, commitment to the common good, the importance of character formation and engagement with the world. These are reflected in its motto from II Peter 1:5, “Now add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge.” The college’s charter commitment to provide “auspices distinctly favorable to the maintenance of the faith and practice of the Christian religion” has broadened into a commitment to ensure that students, faculty and staff of many faiths and secular persuasions are full participants in the life of the college. While Agnes Scott continues to be related to the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), its Board of Trustees is an independent, self-perpetuating governing body.

Widening the vision of its founders while remaining grounded in its original mission, Agnes Scott College continues to provide women with an edge for achievement. Alumnae distinguish themselves in medicine, science, education, ministry, the arts, law, politics, business and community service. Since the early 1920s, the college has ranked in the top 10 percent of American colleges whose graduates complete Ph.D. degrees. The Agnes Scott student body has expanded to include women who represent the diversity that is the United States and the world and women who are returning to college to complete their degrees. The engagement of the Agnes Scott community in the intellectual, cultural and social issues of its times represents both the proud history and the bright future of the college.

Agnes Scott College Values

A Commitment to Women

• To a holistic approach to education for women, acknowledging the primacy of intellectual development, with integrating opportunities for physical, social, cultural and spiritual development.

• To perspectives within the liberal arts tradition that are particularly significant for women.

A Commitment to Teaching and Learning

• To academic excellence, rigor and creativity that engender the joy of learning.

• To personal interaction between students and faculty with an emphasis on independent study and mentoring.

• To the utilization of wide-ranging pedagogical techniques and technologies.

• To an emphasis on collaborative learning.

A Commitment to the Liberal Arts

• To the experience of a broad range of liberal studies disciplines, including the humanities, fine arts, natural and social sciences with significant depth in a disciplinary or interdisciplinary major.

• To the liberal arts as the indispensable foundation for professional life.

A Commitment to an Appreciation of Diverse Cultures

• To curricula reflecting a wide range of original sources and scholarly critiques.

• To a student body and a faculty who bring to Agnes Scott the diverse perspectives of their circumstances, cultures and backgrounds.

• To respectful engagement with divergent ideas, philosophies and perspectives from all members of the college community.

• To applied learning opportunities in local and international communities.

A Commitment to a Community that Values Justice, Courage and Integrity

• To encourage the development of a spiritual commitment and a set of values that can serve as sources of vitality, meaning and guidance in the lives of students.

• To support the development of leadership skills and community service experience needed to become effective contributors to one’s family, profession and to society and world citizenship.

Sustainability

Agnes Scott has made a commitment to sustainability on campus, as well as in the surrounding community and in the metro-Atlanta region. The college is dedicated to changing all of its activities in order to be more sustainable: from curriculum options to waste reduction, from energy conservation to organic gardening, from watershed stewardship to investment strategies and from green purchasing to improved health and well-being. Agnes Scott’s Climate Action Plan outlines strategies and five-year targets designed to achieve “climate neutrality” by 2037.
Sustainability Steering Committee Mission Statement

As part of our mission to live honorably, we accept the challenge of environmental stewardship, commit to education and leadership in sustainability and seek to balance what the college takes from and returns to the world’s natural resources.

Honor System

Ethics and values are central to the purpose, curriculum and social life of Agnes Scott. The Honor System, one of the oldest in the country, is governed by students. Each student is expected to uphold the system’s high standards and take personal responsibility for her integrity and behavior. In choosing Agnes Scott, a student accepts the Honor System as her way of life and formally adopts it with the following pledge:

As a member of the student body of Agnes Scott College, I consider myself bound by honor to develop and uphold high standards of honesty and behavior;

to strive for full intellectual and moral stature;

to realize my social and academic responsibility in the community.

To attain these ideals, I do therefore accept this Honor System as my way of life

“Why is it named that?”

A Guide to Official Names of Buildings and Places on Campus

Agnes Scott Hall (opened in 1891—prior to this time the institution operated in a white house located on the property) is best known as “Main.” Named in memory of Agnes Irvine Scott, the mother of the institution’s founder, Col. George Washington Scott. It contains the McKinney Room, now called McKinney Parlor and location of the Office of Enrollment Services, named for Professor Mary Louise McKinney who taught at ASC for 46 years and lived on campus for 74 years. For 31 of those years, the McKinney Room was Room 42 Main, Professor McKinney’s classroom. She was associated with the institution for longer than any other person. Main also contains the Dieckmann Conference Room (for many years a music classroom) named in honor of Professor C.W. Dieckmann, music teacher from 1905 to 1950. Professor Dieckmann also wrote the music for “God of the Marching Centuries,” the college’s hymn.

Alston Campus Center (2000) is named for the third president of the college, Wallace McPherson Alston (1951-1973). Located here is the Carrie Scandrett Suite, named for the first dean of students, Carrie Scandrett ’24. It houses the Office of Residence Life. The Gué Pardue Hudson Center for Student Engagement is named for the longtime Dean of Students Gué Hudson, who retired in July of 2008 after 34 years at the college. Mollie’s Grill in the Alston Campus Center is named for longtime Associate Dean of Students Mollie Merrick ’57. The Luchsinger Lounge is named in honor of Amelia Davis Luchsinger ’48. The Patricia Collins Butler Center is named for late Patricia Collins Butler ’28, the first woman to serve as judge on the U.S. Justice Department’s Board of Immigration Appeals. The Anne Register Jones Conference Suite on the second floor is named for late Anne Register Jones ’46, a devoted alumna and trustee of the college. The Woodward Conference Room on the ground floor was a gift of the Woodward Fund.

“The Hub” is the multipurpose room in the Alston Campus Center. The name derives from the college’s original library, built in 1910 with a gift from Andrew Carnegie. When the library collection outgrew this building and the McCain Library was built in 1936, the original library became a student center. It was renamed the Murphey Candler Student Activities Building, in honor of a charter trustee. However, students called it the “hub” because it was the center of campus social activity. Much loved by alumnae and students, the “Hub,” was originally located in the corner area of Woodruff Quadrangle.
across from the Alston Center, was demolished in 1986.

Bradley Observatory (1949; renovated 2001) was given by the W.C. and Sarah H. Bradley Foundation of Columbus, Ga. The observatory is home to Delafield Planetarium (2001) named for Dennis and JoAnn Sawyer Delafield ’58, a former trustee of the college. The 70-seat Delafield Planetarium boasts a 10-meter AstroTek dome and a computer-controlled projector built by Zeiss Instruments, maker of the world’s finest planetarium projectors.

Mary Brown Bullock Science Center (2003) was named in honor of President Emerita Mary Brown Bullock ’66, the seventh president of Agnes Scott and its first alumna president, during whose tenure the building was constructed. A three-story representation of Agnes Irvine Scott’s DNA double helix, traced through her great-great-great granddaughter Lisa Harvey Lepovetsky ’73, is on the wall of the Woolford B. Baker Atrium. The atrium’s name reflects a significant gift from Joseph R. Gladden Jr., chair of the Agnes Scott College Board of Trustees from 1992 to 2002, and his wife, Sally, a 1965 graduate. Baker, a biology professor at the college in the 1920s for whom the atrium is named, was Gladden’s grandfather. Teasley Lecture Hall on the ground floor is the gift of the late Linda Teasley ’61 and Harry E. Teasley Jr.

Buttrick Hall (1930) was named in honor of Wallace Buttrick, former president of the General Education Board of New York, an invaluable friend to the institution in the first quarter of the 20th century.

The Byers Tennis Courts (2002), were given by Tricia Fling Byers ’98, in honor of her mother, Kathleen Hope Fling ’33.

John Bulow Campbell Hall (1951) was named for a former trustee who established the John Bulow Campbell Foundation through his will, continuing his legacy of giving to Agnes Scott. The building housed faculty offices, classrooms and laboratories for biology, chemistry and science until 2003. Currently under renovation to be transformed into a 21st-century living and learning community.

Charles A. Dana Fine Arts Building (1965) was named in honor of the nationally known philanthropist of the same name. The building contains The Dalton Gallery (named for Harry L. and Mary Keesler Dalton ’25) and Winter Theatre, named for Professor Roberta Powers Winter ’27. It was designed by renowned Atlanta architect John Portman.

Letitia Pate Evans Hall (1950; expanded and renovated 1999) was named in honor of Letitia Pate Evans, a former trustee of the college. In addition to the main dining room, the building contains the Elizabeth R. Jones President’s Dining Room and the South Dining Room, also on the main level, and the Bullock Conference Room on the Terrace Level.

Lawrence L. Gellerstedt Jr. and Mary Duckworth Gellerstedt Track and Field (1988) known as Gellerstedt Field. It is named in honor of former Chair of the Board of Trustees Larry Gellerstedt Jr., and former trustee and Alumnae Association President Mary D. Gellerstedt ’46, in appreciation for their service to the college including and noting their leadership as co-chairs of the Centennial Campaign.

Hopkins Hall (1954) was named for Dean Emerita Nannette Hopkins, the first teacher employed when Agnes Scott was founded. She remained with the college for 49 years (1889-1938).

Jenie D. Inman Hall (1910; renovated in 1985) was a gift from Samuel M. Inman, chairman of the board, who named the building for his first wife, Jenie D. Inman.

McCain Library (1936; enlarged and renovated in 2001) was named in honor of James Ross Mc-Cain, the college’s second president, who served from 1923 to 1951. In addition to book, media and periodical holdings, the library contains the Robert Frost and Catherine Marshall ’36 collections. It is home to the Betty Pope Scott Noble ’44 College Heritage Center. The library also contains the Kate Durr Elmore Reading Room named for Kate Durr Elmore ’49, and the Elizabeth Henderson Cameron Reading Terrace, named for Betty Henderson Cameron ’43, the first female chair of the Board of Trustees.

Presser Hall (1940) was named for Theodore Presser, who established the Theodore Presser Musical Publishing Co. and founded the Presser Foundation, an agency that contributed $65,000 of the $275,000 cost to construct the building. The formal name of the primary auditorium for the college is Gaines Chapel, in memory of ASC’s first president, Frank H. Gaines, who served from 1896 to 1923. Maclean Auditorium was named for Professor Joseph Maclean, head of the college’s Department of Music from 1893 to 1918.

President’s Home (1951) has been the residence of presidents Alston, Perry, Schmidt, Mahoney, Bullock and Kiss. Through the years, the President’s Home has been a gathering place for members of the campus community and a place where student traditions develop, from the Sunday night make-your-own sandwiches during an early presidential tenure to President Kiss’ karaoke night for graduating seniors. During the years in which poet Robert Frost regularly visited the college, informal discussions were held in the President’s Home. During his almost 30-year relationship with the college, Frost stayed in the President’s Home so often that a room is named in his honor.

Rogers Steam Plant and Laundry (1930) was named long after its construction for the late P.J. Rogers Jr., business manager of Agnes Scott from 1951 to 1970. No longer used for its original purposes, “the steam plant” is on the south side of Dougherty Street, across from Dana Fine Arts Building.

Rebekah Scott Hall (1905) was named in honor of Rebekah Bucher Scott, wife of college founder Col. George W. Scott. The upper floors are student residences while the lower floor and the annex house the offices of admission, development and communications. The Katharine Woltz Reception Room, named in honor of Katharine Woltz Farinholt ’33, has been used as a ballroom and the college’s dining hall and is now used for lectures, meetings and other campus events.

Julia Thompson Smith Chapel (2008) was named for Julia Thompson Smith ’31, wife of Hal L. Smith, a generous donor and longtime chair of the Board of Trustees. Julia Thompson Smith was a Phi Beta Kappa English major and former Alumnae Association board member. In all, five Thompson women attended Agnes Scott including Julia’s sister, Anne Thompson Rose ’38, and three nieces: Lucy A. Rose ’68, Nancy Rose Vocler ’63 and Peggy Rose Day ’65. The Smith’s son, John E. Smith II, also served as a trustee. The naming gift for the chapel garden was given by former trustee Jim Philips and his wife, Donna. The garden is named for his parents, Davison and Kay Philips ’43.

Walters Hall (1956) was named the Frances Winship Walters Hall and “dedicated to the memory of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Walters.” George C. Walters was Frances Winship Walters’ husband who died in 1914. She never remarried. She had attended Agnes Scott for two years and served as a trustee for 17 years, the final seven as the board’s vice chair.

Winship Hall (1964) was named in honor of the Winship family and particularly for George Winship, chair of the Board of Trustees from 1938 to 1956.

The George W. and Irene K. Woodruff Quadrangle was named in 1987 in memory of former trustee and philanthropist George W. Woodruff and his wife, Irene King Woodruff, whose mother was a loyal alumna. This is the largest quadrangle on campus and is considered the center of campus. The Gazebo, a structure of historic and architectural significance, has stood on the campus in several locations and in several forms since it first sheltered the college’s well in front of “Main.” It later stood on the west lawn of “Rebekah,” where it was enclosed to serve as an office, day student room, prayer room and meditation chapel. It was restored to its original style as part of the renovations of the late 1980s and moved to its present location on Woodruff Quadrangle.

Robert W. Woodruff Physical Activities Building (1988) was named in memory of the Atlanta philanthropist and longtime president of The Coca-Cola Company.

Anna Young Alumnae House (1921; renovated in 2009) was named in honor of Anna I. Young, professor of mathematics from 1895 to 1920. It is the second oldest alumnae house in the United States (after Vassar) and the oldest in the Southeast. The renovated house was the first in Decatur to be awarded LEED Silver.

Traditions

Alumnae Pond: Friends throw newly engaged classmates into the Alumnae Garden’s pond, a gift of the class of 1936.

Blackfriars: Chartered in 1915, Agnes Scott’s drama group took its name from an Elizabethan theatre in London where many of Shakespeare’s plays were performed. Blackfriars is the oldest continuously operating production theatre in Atlanta, as well as the oldest campus organization. Men were allowed to take part in Blackfriars’ productions beginning in the 1930s. Prior to that time, female students, often in noncostume black skirts, played the male roles.

Black Cat: One of the oldest Agnes Scott traditions, Black Cat began in 1915 as a prank night between first-year students and sophomores. It now marks the end of orientation and the official recognition of the new class in the campus community. Mary Sweet, college physician from 1908 to 1937, suggested it as a way to eliminate hazing of the first-year students.

Capping: Capping week is evident to everyone on campus. Each year, juniors who wish to participate are paired with a senior. The senior leaves a bag outside the junior’s door every morning filled with crazy clothes and instructions for the day. The week always takes place near the end of the spring semester and is the way seniors “induct” juniors into their senior year.

College Hymn: The Agnes Scott College hymn, “God of the Marching Centuries,” was written for the centennial of the Decatur Presbyterian Church. However, since men with strong connections to the college wrote the music and lyrics, Agnes Scott claimed the hymn as its own. D.P. McGeachy Sr., who wrote the lyrics, was a longtime college trustee. Professor C.W. Dieckmann wrote the music and named it “Gaines” after the first Agnes Scott president. “God of the Marching Centuries” is sung at important college occasions. Many alumnae have also chosen the hymn to commemorate important events in their lives, e.g., weddings or, more somberly, funerals.

The Honor System: The Honor System is the cornerstone of the entire structure of Agnes Scott life. It is founded on the support, mature judgment and personal integrity of every student. The Honor System challenges each student to develop high standards of personal conduct, to strive for full intellec-tual and moral stature and to realize her social and academic responsibility in the community.

The Hub and “Hub Sings”: The Charles Murphey Candler Building was originally a library and stood on the corner of the Woodruff Quadrangle across from Alston Campus Center. When McCain Library was built in 1936, the Carnegie Library was renamed the Charles Murphey Candler Building and converted to a student center. It served this function for more than 40 years and was nicknamed the “Hub” by students.
For decades, its grand piano was the scene of Hub Sings where scores of students sang college and Black Cat songs. Seniors, in line with hands on the shoulders of the classmate in front, marched around the main floor in their black gowns acquired for Senior Investiture, singing, “We are tired old seniors, weary, worn and blue,” to the tune of “Pomp and Circumstance.” Hub Sings live on for both in The Hub of Alston Campus Center during Alumnae Weekend and now include alumnae and students.

Senior Investiture: Originating hundreds of years ago in English universities, Senior Investiture is one of the college’s most cherished traditions. During the investiture ceremony, each senior is capped with an academic mortar board as a symbol of her status at the college.

Movies filmed at Agnes Scott: From A Man Called Peter in 1954 to The Blind Side in 2009 and Big Momma’s House: Like Father, Like Son in 2010, the collegiate architecture and beautiful landscape of the Agnes Scott campus have appealed to moviemakers. Many full-length features, made-for-television movies, TV shows and commercials have been shot on campus.

Ramona Cartwright: Created by the class of 1958, Ramona Cartwright and George P. Burdell were fictitious students at Agnes Scott College and Georgia Institute of Technology. News is received periodically in the Office of Alumnae Relations on continuing episodes in Ramona’s life. The Atlanta Journal and Constitution was red-faced when an announcement of Ramona and George’s engagement appeared in the late 1950s.

Ringing the bell: Agnes Scott seniors ring the bell in Agnes Scott Hall’s tower upon acceptance to graduate school or when they receive a job offer.

Robert Frost: The distinguished American poet first visited the college for a lecture in 1935 at the invitation of Professor Emma Mae Laney. He returned in 1940. Beginning in 1945, he came every year through 1962. Both Agnes Scott students and the Atlanta community turned out to hear the poet at standing room only readings in Presser Hall’s Gaines Chapel.

His last 18 visits were stays of several days during which he met with faculty and students, autographed books and delivered a public reading. He was scheduled to return to Agnes Scott for his 21st visit in January 1963, but he died during the week reserved for his visit. A sculpture of the poet given by Susan Gamble Smathers ’75 and Bruce Smathers stands in the Alumnae Garden to commemorate the relationship Frost and the college enjoyed. Shortly after his first visit, Frost sent Professor Laney some autographed first editions of his poems. In the ensuing years, he added other works as well as the collections of his famous Christmas cards. McCain Library houses what Frost called the best collection of “Frostiana” outside of Amherst College. Also in the library is the 1958 Frost portrait by Professor Ferdinand Warren.

Black Cat Activities and Terms

Black Cat week begins when the college bell rings at midnight on Sunday. Each class is assigned a day to throw its party in Evans Hall and to dress like its mascot. Black Cat week also includes a bonfire Thursday night, junior class production Friday night and a formal dance Saturday night.

Class colors and mascots: Every year, a color is assigned to the incoming class that represents it during its time at Agnes Scott. The colors alternate among red, green, blue and yellow. Keeping their color in mind, each class picks a mascot. Traditionally, first-year students try to keep their mascot’s identity a secret until the bonfire, while sophomores try to uncover the mascot beforehand and reveal it to the school.

Decorations: As the bell rings on Black Cat week at midnight Sunday, each class decorates the campus, both Woodruff Quadrangle and a designated floor of Alston Campus Center, with its color and mascot.

Bonfire: Bonfire is a chance for all classes to dress like their mascots, sing college songs and show off class spirit. Bonfire takes place on the Woodruff Quadrangle on Thursday night during Black Cat week. It is at this event that the first-years reveal their mascot.

Field Day: Field Day gives the classes a final opportunity to compete before Junior Production. Each class competes against the other in various field games. Students who do not wish to participate directly earn points for their class by showing their spirit on the sidelines.

Junior Production and the Black Kitty: The junior class writes, directs and performs Junior Production on Friday of Black Cat week. This play satirizes life at Agnes Scott, as well as campus personalities with good humor and wit. The entire campus is invited and is seated by class. After Junior Production, the Black Kitty, is awarded to the class that performed best during Black Cat week.

Community Hour and Special Convocations

Community hours are 1-1:50 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays and 2-2:50 p.m. on Fridays. These times are set aside on the college calendar as a period when no classes are held so that events of community-wide interest may be scheduled.

Convocations are held during community hour. They are important occasions in the life of the college when the Agnes Scott community gathers together for special programs, to celebrate student achievement and to recognize milestones in college history. The entire campus community is encouraged to attend these official college functions; some of which include academic processions. College offices and services may be closed during convocation. Traditional community convocations are:

Student Life and the Co-Curriculum

The shared purpose of the various departments is reflected in the Student Life mission statement: We are educators fostering a holistic developmental experience for students, empowering them to make meaningful contributions in the world. We educate for life.

An emphasis on student learning and development and a commitment to the holistic development of students drive the work of the division. The programs, services, resources and advocacy efforts are intentionally designed with attention to outcomes that expand students’ spheres of knowledge, engage them in transformative experiences, and promote knowledge of self, others and the world. Collectively, the work of Student Life reinforces and extends the academic experience and fosters experiences and opportunities that result in student learning. Student Life is committed to the following learning outcomes:

- An awareness of self and a healthy self-identity; the capacity to examine, test, and challenge one’s own beliefs, values, attitudes, and behaviors
- Engagement across difference, an understanding and appreciation of diversity, and capacities for intercultural communication and connectedness
- Knowledge, skills and abilities for ethical, compassionate, servant leadership and responsible, active, and engaged citizenship within the Agnes Scott community and beyond
- Personal responsibility for one’s actions and an understanding of their impact on self and others. Social responsibility to transform and sustain the local and global communities in which we live
- Ability to make meaning of one’s life, purpose and journey of engagement
- Holistic growth, a balanced, healthy lifestyle and a life-long commitment to learning

Associate Dean/ Special Assistant to the President on Diversity: Kijua Sanders-McMurtry

Associate Dean: Suzanne Onorato

Director: Joelleen Akin
Location: Alston Campus Center
Phone: 404.471.6133

Students enjoy recreational sports on campus such as running, yoga, Tai Kwan Do, tennis, cheerleading and swimming. They can participate in intercollegiate sports such as basketball, cross country, softball, soccer, tennis, and volleyball through Agnes Scott’s Division III membership in the National Collegiate Athletic Association. The college is a member of the Great South Athletic Conference.
Career Planning

Director: TBA
Location: Alston Campus Center
Phone: 404.471.6391

The Office of Career Planning supports students as they pursue satisfying careers. From the orientation tour of the office for first years to the celebrated days of job offers and graduate school acceptances for seniors, students can receive individual and small group career counseling and take advantage of a wide variety of resources for each phase of career exploration.

A student may choose to take a career assessment to help focus on her interests, values and preferences and their implications for career decision-making. A student may engage in a number of programs to enhance the exploration process. Some of these are career observation days, internships, special dinners and events, workshops, and resume exhibit, and panel discussions. A student may access a variety of resources including test prep materials, information about careers for specific majors, and graduate school information. And a student may engage with recruiters and network with individuals who will help advance her to her career goals.

Students are encouraged to participate in summer and/or semester-long internships to gain experience in a specific career field. Internships may be paid or unpaid, credit-bearing or not-for-credit. In order to offer richness and diversity of opportunities, the office maintains relationships with employers, graduate and professional schools, friends of the college, alumnae and others so that students are assured of rich and vibrant opportunities. Agnes Scott co-sponsors two career fairs each year: the Georgia Small College Consortium Career Opportunities Fair in the fall and the Georgia statewide College-to-Career Fair in the spring. Emory University makes its Career and Graduate School Research Job Fair open to Agnes Scott students.

In making use of the Office of Career Planning, a student can acquire career search skills, engage in experiential learning, and develop competencies that take her to her first job and beyond into her career.

And each student can look forward to that fine day in her senior year when she walks up to the Tower and rings the bell to celebrate her good news of a job offer or acceptance to graduate school!

Gué Pardue Hudson Center For Student Engagement

Director: Tonya McPherson
Location: Alston Campus Center
Phone: 404.471.5879

The Gué Pardue Hudson Center for Student Engagement creates and sustains a vibrant campus experience for students where learning takes place within and outside of the classroom. The center encourages Agnes Scott students to become actively involved in organizations, programs and services that foster intellectual growth and leadership development. It also motivates students to connect to Agnes Scott and the wider global community through the integration of diversity, leadership, service and wellness in its mission.

The Center for Student Engagement staff support students as they explore who they are across the spectrum of diversity. The college recognizes that a multiplicity of identities is represented within our community, and affirms the existence of these varied perspectives through the work of the center. The center serves as a key resource for Agnes Scott’s commitment to create and foster an inclusive campus community. A variety of community building programs, including intergroup dialogues, cultural celebrations and social justice initiatives, educate and support students while also providing leadership opportunities.

The Center for Student Engagement offers specialized leadership programming that supports students from their first year to graduation. An Agnes Scott student can join Emerging Leaders, become a member of Honor Court or a club president, or take advantage of numerous other opportunities to serve and lead.

The staff of the Center for Student Engagement believe that community engagement through service-learning opportunities plays an essential role in the development of students as global citizens of the world. Through a variety of on- and off-campus activities focused on student engagement in service, the center staff encourage participation in initiatives that engender values of lifelong learning and community involvement.

Students will have the chance to meet members of various student organizations during the fall Activities Fair in August. All organizations on campus are invited to represent their groups. In addition, students will have opportunities to participate in Atlanta activities at discounted rates through various student organization and departmental events.

Student Activity Fee

The student activity fee is due at the beginning of the first semester of an academic session in which the student is enrolled for six or more semester hours. The student activity fee for 2012-2013 is $215. The activity fee entitles a student to participate in the activities of the Student Government Association.

Safe Zone

Phone: 404.471.5879

Creating a safe campus environment for members of the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Intersex, Questioning (LGBTQIQ) community is in accordance with the values and mission of the college. The Safe Zone program involves training, which prepares those individuals to serve as resources and allies to the LGBTQIQ campus community. Participants who have completed Safe Zone training may choose to post the Safe Zone symbol/sticker at their offices as a way to designate themselves as safe allies for LGBTQIQ students and colleagues. The Safe Zone symbol sends a message of understanding and non-judgment to students and colleagues. The sticker is intended to symbolize alliance, which includes a willingness and commitment to provide an atmosphere of assistance and acceptance. The absence of a Safe Zone symbol/sticker should not be interpreted in any way. The college’s values, as well as discrimination and harassment policies, clearly articulate the college’s expectations that all community members will be treated fairly. The Safe Zone Committee is a subcommittee of the President’s Committee on Community Diversity and is sponsored by the Liz Chandler Memorial Fund for Diversity Programming and a grant from the Alliance for Full Acceptance. To become a member of the Safe Zone team or to become Safe Zone trained, please contact the assistant director of campus life and intercultural engagement at x6394 or stop by the office in Alston 216.

Student Development Fund

The Student Development Fund (SDF), created in 1986 by the Agnes Scott Student Government Representative Council, allows students to take advantage of unique opportunities to enhance their academic experience. Funding up to $250 is available for attending leadership/academic conferences and presenting papers/research at such venues.

The Student Development Fund is not intended to underwrite activities of academic departments such as field trips. All funding for the SDF comes from the Student Government Association and the Alumnae Association. In order to support as many students as possible, funds are disbursed at the discretion of the SDF Committee, which will take into consideration the number of students applying for funding in the current semester and each student’s level of participation at her appointed conference. Preference is given to students who have not sought funding before and who are presenting a research paper. Applying to the SDF does not guarantee approval of funds. Application forms are available from the Student Senate and should be returned to the Student Senate treasurer when completed.

Students receiving funds must keep detailed receipts, which are required to be turned in the week the student returns from the conference, to account for monies spent.

Orientation

Director: Suzanne Onorato
Location: Agnes Scott “Main” Hall
Phone: 404.471.6391

At Agnes Scott the entire community works together to assist incoming students with their transition to college. The orientation program is designed to support students holistically, intertwining academic and social experiences. Orientation begins in summer when Orientation Council members—upperclass students who plan and coordinate orientation activities and events—connect with new students via Facebook and emails.

In addition, new students receive a mailing with informational resources included on a “jump drive” that they can use throughout the year. Once new students arrive on campus, they engage in numerous programs that integrate them into the social and academic fabric of the college and help to develop bonds among the incoming students. During orientation new students meet their First-Year Seminar instructor and classmates as well as their faculty adviser, who will assist with course selection and placement tests. New students will also be introduced to campus organizations and departments and a variety of social programs designed to develop relationships among students and the campus community. Involvement is encouraged through activities such as weekend events in the Atlanta area and on-campus parties. In addition, all new students also become a part of a Scottie Sidekick group. Scottie Sidekicks are upperclass students who are trained peer educators. The Scottie Sidekick group will serve as a support system for the first semester as students become adjusted to their new environment and are educated regarding leadership, campus policy, traditions and services. International students, members of underrepresented populations, student athletes, transfer students and Woodruff Scholars (non-traditional-aged students) are offered additional programs tailored to their needs. For more information about these programs, contact the Office of the Dean of Students.

Wellness Center

Wellness Center
Executive Director: Juanita Gainous-Mottley Location: Hopkins Hall
Phone: 404.471.6346

Counseling and Psychological Services
Director: Tomiko Logan

Director: Marcia Peters

Students are eligible for health and counseling services provided at the Wellness Center. The Student Health Services (SHS) director is a nationally certified nurse practitioner who works with physician consultants in internal medicine, gynecology, dermatology, psychiatry, and sports medicine. Services include evaluation and treatment of health problems, counseling, special health education and screening programs.

The college reserves the right, if parents or guardians cannot be reached, to make decisions concerning emergency health problems for any student who is a minor. Students with specific health problems, serious illnesses or injuries will be referred to the appropriate specialist or medical facility.

Confidential counseling services are offered for all enrolled Agnes Scott students by staff members in Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) who are licensed psychologists or by doctoral-level graduate students under staff supervision. Services include individual, couples and group counseling; consultation and referral services and outreach programming. Students seek counseling for a variety of concerns including managing relationships, handling family problems, coping with stress, handling a crisis, eating and/or body image concerns, improving study skills, improving time management, increasing self-esteem, and dealing with alcohol and/or drug concerns.

Individual counseling involves one-on-one meetings with a counselor for about 45 to 50 minutes. Couples counseling is available for dealing with relationship or roommate concerns. Group counseling is offered on an as needed basis and involves three or more students meeting with one or more counselors to deal with shared concerns.

Consultation is available for staff, faculty, students or family members with a concern about a student or a specific mental health-related issue. Referrals are available for off-campus mental health services (e.g., longer-term psychotherapy, testing for learning disabilities, psychiatric care, intensive treatment programs). In addition, workshops and presentations can be arranged for groups or classes interested in counseling-related topics.

The center’s wellness education programs stress prevention of illness, promotion of self care and encouragement of positive health practices. Reference materials on wellness issues are available.

Student Health Insurance

All undergraduates are enrolled in health insurance through the college. The fee is included in tuition and cannot be waived. This fee provides 12 months of insurance coverage. Returning students will have no lapse in coverage from the previous year. There is an annual deductible per covered person of $250.00 preferred care, $500.00 for non preferred care. The deductible is waived when a referral is provided by the Wellness Center. This program provides coverage world-wide and is underwritten by Aetna. Claims are administered by Aetna Student Health Insurance. Details regarding this coverage is available online at www.collegiaterisk.com, enter school name ASC.

International student insurance is provided through a separate program provided by T.W. Lord Insurance. Information regarding this coverage is available through the Office of International Education.

Religious and Spiritual Life

Julia Thompson Smith Chaplain: Kate Colussy-Estes
Location: Alston Campus Center
Phone: 404.471.6437

The Julia Thompson Smith Chaplain serves as pastor to all members of the Agnes Scott community and coordinates religious activities, offering opportunities for worship, reflection, service and community-building. As a liaison between the college and the broader religious community, the chaplain encourages students to become actively involved with a local church, mosque, synagogue or other faith community. On-campus worship includes ecumenical worship services, special observances and events in celebration of notable campus occasions. The chaplain advises student-led religious and spiritual organizations that operate on campus as well as the Interfaith Council, a committee of leaders from each student-led religious/spiritual group, reflecting an increasing diversity of faith traditions at Agnes Scott.

Opportunities for reflection on the relationship between faith and learning, as well as on personal and societal issues, are provided through speakers, group discussions, support groups and spiritual counseling. The weekly Agnes Scott Believes series, held in the chapel, is a special opportunity for members of the college community to share meaningful reflections on their lives. Through the annual James Ross McCain Faith and Learning Lecture, students have a chance to hear from and interact with internationally recognized scholars and theologians.

Along with the volunteer coordinator, the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life coordinates opportunities for volunteer service in the larger community, focusing on such issues as homelessness and housing, literacy, the environment, health, poverty and domestic violence. Students may choose to participate in volunteer opportunities of varying duration.

Residence Life

Assistant Director: Vaishakhi Desai
Location: Alston Campus Center
Phone: 404.471.6408

Agnes Scott’s residence halls are comfortable and inviting. As Agnes Scott is a residential college, living on campus is an integral part of the community experience. All students, with some exceptions, are required to live on campus in residence halls, theme houses or Avery Glen Apartments for all four years. Students have many residential options designed to support students’ transition to the independence of life after college.

Agnes Scott “Main,” Rebekah Scott and Inman halls have been restored to their Victorian elegance while meeting today’s needs for efficiency and comfort. Their former grace is recaptured with period design and furnishings (some donated by alumnae) and chandeliers in the lobbies and parlors. All three are listed in the National Register of Historic Places. Three other comfortable residence halls are Hopkins, Walters and Winship. All residence-hall rooms have Internet and cable-TV connections. Walters features the GEMS (Generating Excellence in Math and Science) living and learning community. Campbell hall reopens in 2014 as a suite-style residence hall and academic building, the first of its kind at Agnes Scott College, student rooms will have semi-private bathrooms and the halls are filled with modern community spaces.

Residence halls are almost entirely self-governed within the policies of the college and the Office of Residence Life. Graduate hall directors provide on-call support and each of the residence halls are staffed by resident assistants while Avery Glen is staffed by community assistants. The director of residence life supervises the student staff and facilitates the residence life program. Student staff in each hall includes a senior resident assistant and resident assistants, supervised by graduate hall directors and the director and assistant director of residence life.

Apartment living is available at the college’s Avery Glen Apartments located on the east side of campus. An option for juniors and seniors, Avery Glen affords a greater sense of independent living. Upper-class students have another housing option in three restored Queen Anne-style homes on the west side of the campus. These houses create living/learning communities based on learning themes (recent themes: Eco House, Culinary Arts, Empowerment through Social Media).

Students apply to live in these houses according to their interest in and commitment to assigned themes. By choosing to reside in a house, residents commit to using the living arrangement to advance learning. Collaboration between faculty and students is an important focus of this arrangement, and each house has a faculty or staff adviser. Students submit theme proposals each year.

All students, except Woodruff Scholars, are required to live in campus housing. Any exception must be approved by the director of residence life. Students in the Atlanta area who live with their parent(s)/guardian(s) may apply for approval from the director of residence life to commute.

If a student’s conduct indicates she is not in compliance with the ideals and standards of the college’s residence life policies or is not mature enough to reside on campus, the dean of students may terminate her Residence Life Staff

The Office of Residence Life staff is selected for the upcoming academic year through an application and interview process held each spring semester. All residence life student staff are hired, trained, supervised and evaluated by the Office of Residence Life.

The graduate hall directors (GHDs) are professional, live-in staff who work part time in the Office of Residence Life but who have significant evening and weekend responsibilities in the residence halls. The GHD plays a significant role in the life and operations of the residential campus at Agnes Scott by providing staff-level backup and support for the staff of their assigned building(s) and to the director of residence life in the areas of on-call emergency support, student support, programming, training and administration.

The senior resident assistants (SRAs) serve as the live-in student senior staff providing mentor-ship and leadership to the RA staff. Each SRA works with a staff of 2-6 resident assistants, processes and reports work order requests, coordinates programming within the hall and serves on-call rotation throughout the academic year. An SRA must hold a junior or senior class standing and a minimum GPA of 2.5 on the standard 4.0 grading scale.

The community assistant (CA) is a paraprofessional student staff member for the Office of Residence Life. The CA works closely with the graduate hall director (GHD) and director of residence life and Avery Glen leasing office to foster an environment that supports the academic and personal development of students. These community assistants serve in the same capacity as the resident assistants on main campus. Community assistants reside at Avery Glen and are available as a first point of contact to address some emergencies, as well as questions and concerns regarding Avery Glen resident policies, roommate concerns, holiday and break closing procedures, etc.

The resident assistants (RAs) are the upper-class student staff who live on each floor within the residence halls and theme houses. Resident assistants build community in the residence halls and assist with day-to-day interactions among residential students. Each RA is required to make rounds within her building/house/complex when serving as the RA “on-call” for her building and/or area, provide programming opportunities for her floor’s residents and mediate roommate conflicts as needed.

The professional staff in the office of residence life include the director of residence life, assistant director of residence life and administrative assistant.

Room Selection

All returning unmarried single, undergraduate students currently enrolled at Agnes Scott are eligible to participate in the housing application and lottery process. This includes students who are enrolled in ASC study abroad program, students on leave of absence and students who are currently living off campus. Those ineligible include Fall 2014 transfer students and students who have been readmitted to ASC and are returning for Fall 2015.
Agnes Scott does not allow students to reserve rooms outside of the housing selection process. All rooms and apartments are available for students to choose during the housing lottery process. In the housing lottery process, room selection is based, in part, on a seniority point system. For the purpose of choosing rooms in the random selection, students with a prospective graduation date of 2015 are assigned four (4) points; graduation date of 2016 are assigned three (3) points and graduation date of 2017 are assigned two (2) points. Individuals and groups of students choose their living spaces based upon group point totals that are determined by summing the points assigned to each member of the group. The order of selection for groups with the same point total is determined by a random selection.

Students must have paid their re-registration deposit no later than March 10, 2014 and online housing application to participate in the housing lottery process. All students who will be living on campus next year must apply on-line. PENALTIES — Students who pay their re-registration deposit after the deadline (1) shall not have priority status in room selection; and/or (2) shall lose one (1) point for the random selections.

Woodruff Scholars and Year Five students must request a need for housing in writing to be included in the housing selection process.

It is in the best interest of students to be present to select their own rooms. However, the use of proxies is allowed for room selection. The proxy will designate the room to which the absent student will be assigned. The proxy must have the appropriate contract, a signed proxy form and their Agnes Scott identification card. Students in study abroad programs must designate their proxies via the housing Web application process when they apply for housing after paying their re-registration deposit, as well as submitting a proxy form to the Office of Residence Life. Individuals acting as proxies for students participating in study abroad programs must have the copy of the proxy statement issued by the absent student. The absent student will be required to accept the specific room assignment given at the random selection.

All students will receive a detailed guide about the lottery process during spring semester.

Residence Life Regulations

In accordance with Agnes Scott’s desire to encourage and recognize individual maturity and responsibility, it is expected that students will conduct themselves with propriety and exercise good judgment so that their behavior will bring credit both upon themselves and upon the college. Agnes Scott is a residential liberal arts institution. The residential environment is a key component of each student’s college experience. Students enrolled at Agnes Scott are expected to live in campus housing for the duration of their tenure at the college. Any exception to this policy must be approved by the Office of Residence Life. Authorization to live off-campus is granted at the discretion of the director of residence life, in special situations or when space is unavailable on campus.

In addition to the specific standards set forth and beyond the areas they govern, it is assumed that students will follow the dictates of common sense and will exhibit a healthy respect for their safety and the comfort of their fellow students. The college and its agents maintain the right to enter a student’s room for the purpose of maintenance, fire, safety and upholding college regulations and policies. In the event that a student’s conduct indicates that she is not in sympathy with the ideals and standards of the colleges residence life policies or is not mature enough to reside on campus, the Office of Residence Life may terminate the students resident status, at which time the student will be required to move out of the residence hall within 48 hours.

Residential students are advised of residence hall regulations upon enrollment. Agnes Scott is a four-year residential college. Housing is restricted to enrolled students only. Student’s who enroll as part-time students or fall below full-time credit hours cannot live on campus without approval from the dean of students and Office of Residence Life. Woodruff Scholars and Year-Five students must request housing in writing and be approved by the Office of Residence Life to be included in housing assignments. Residence life regulations apply to occupants of Avery Glen Apartments, theme houses and residence halls.

Judicial Board retains primary jurisdiction in the following matters:

A. Smoking Policy
Refer to the smoking policy, which appears in the STUDENT CONDUCT section. Smoking is strictly prohibited in all facilities (e.g. classrooms, computer labs, offices, residence halls and theme houses). Smoking is permitted outside at designated locations that have been equipped with appropriate receptacles. Smoking is not permitted within 20 feet of any residence hall or building entrance. Smoking is prohibited in Avery Glen apartment units. Violations of the college’s smoking policy will be handled as a disciplinary matter and will be reviewed by the appropriate college administrator and/or judicial body.

B. Alcohol Policy and Penalties
The legal drinking age for purchasing and consuming alcoholic beverages in the state of Georgia is 21. Students who are underage may not have guests of legal age, including parents and siblings, with alcoholic beverages in their residence hall room. Residents of Agnes Scott will be held responsible when alcohol is present, consumed and/or made available to underage persons in the residence halls or on campus, whether these persons are also ASC residents or guests on the campus. A resident is responsible for anyone who enters her room locked or unlocked.

C. Visitation/Guests
Agnes Scott students are responsible for the conduct and behavior of their guests. All residence hall guests must abide by Agnes Scott’s policies with regard to alcohol, drugs, fire drills, quiet hours, etc. It is the student’s responsibility to inform her guests of these policies and to ensure their observance. Guests are defined as individuals who are not currently living in Agnes Scott housing. Public safety officers, emergency personnel, student life staff and facilities staff who need access to the residence halls are not considered guests. Outside contractors must have identification and be accompanied by an Agnes Scott staff member. Violation of college policy will result in a Judicial Board or Honor Court case and depending on the violation the possible involvement of the dean of students and Department of Public Safety.

1. Visitation Hours
Visitation in the residence halls is only available when residence halls are officially open for all students; visitors are not allowed during college breaks (Thanksgiving, Winter and Spring breaks). Students returning early or staying on campus during college breaks must wait until housing officially opens to have guests. Students are allowed to have visitors during the final exam period. Students and their guest must abide by the 24 hour quiet rules during that time. Students must also be respectful of their roommate(s) and housemate(s) when having guests during the final exam period.

First-Year Visitation Hours*
Monday–Thursday: noon–midnight
Friday–Sunday: noon Friday through midnight Sunday

Upper-Class Visitation Hours*
24-hour visitation, 7 days a week

*Some halls or portions of halls may be designated as having no male visitation, in which case, the hours and rules apply only to female guests.

2. General Rules
a. Visitation must never interfere with a roommate’s right to free access to her room at all times. Visitation by guests and other students must be in accordance with the roommate agreement established between roommates and reviewed by residence life. A roommate must not be deprived of her desired right to privacy, study time or sleep because of a guest, whether male or female.

b. Students may have no more than three guests at one time and only two of these may remain overnight.

c. No guest may come in to a residence hall unescorted; s/he must call for a student from an outside phone. Phones for guests to call residents are located outside building entrances.
Each student must accompany her guest while in the residence hall. No guest may enter and/or remain in a room without an Agnes Scott student. All guests visiting the residence halls must be signed in on their floor at the door of the student’s RA immediately upon entering the building. If a student has more than one guest and must escort one guest somewhere (e.g. bathroom), then the other guest(s) must go with the student and first guest unless another student agrees to take full responsibility for the remaining guest(s).

d. Students may not sign in guests in another student’s name. Students may, however, sign in the guests of another student under their name, which means they assume any and all responsibility for those guests as their own.

e. All guests should be escorted at all times. Residents should be aware that male guests may be escorted onto the residential floors. Residents should be prepared for guests during visitation hours. Facilities and contracted employees will announce themselves upon entering the floor.

f. Guests may visit in residence hall lobbies or parlors outside of visitation hours but must be escorted at all times by an Agnes Scott student who is willing to take responsibility for the guest’s actions. Lobbies are available for entertaining guests and may not be used as overnight accommodations or a place to sleep; when in the lobby, guests must be awake.

Lobby space for each individual hall is defined as follows:
• Main – 4th floor Parlor
• Rebekah – Lobby and parlors (not conference or reception rooms)
• Inman – Lobby, TV room and kitchen
• Walters – Lobby and TV room
• Winship – Terrace level lobby and kitchen
• Hopkins – Lobby
• Campbell- floor lounges, multipurpose room, laundry room, academic areas • Theme Houses – Communal areas should be determined by the residents of the house. The house as a whole may decide whether or not guests need to be accompanied by a student within the house.

g. Guests may visit the satellite computer centers in the residence halls; this must be noted when a guest is signed in. A guest must be accompanied by his/her ASC hostess when visiting the satellite computer centers. ASC students have priority over guests for use of computers in the satellite centers.

h. Meals for guests in the dining hall or snack bar must be purchased.

i. Students who have prospective students as guests are asked to consult the Office of Admission in advance.

j. Guests under age 16 who are unaccompanied by a parent or guardian must be approved by the director of residence life with a minimum of 24-hours notice before the guest’s arrival.
For the sake of other residents and the college does not permit babysitting in college housing for any reasons (this includes siblings).

3. Overnight Guests (Guests are considered overnight if they are in the residence halls during the hours of 2-6 a.m.)

   a. The above general rules continue to apply to overnight guests.

   b. Any student who wishes to have a guest stay on campus more than three nights in a two-week period or three consecutive nights must receive permission from the director of residence life.

   c. Male guests must use the male or gender-neutral restroom in the lobby, including Agnes Scott Hall (Main) and must be accompanied to the lobby by their ASC host. Male showers are available on the ground floor of the Alston Campus Center and in Woodruff Physical Activities Building and a gender-neutral shower is available on the ground floor of the Alston Campus Center.

D. General Residence Hall Regulations and Information

1. Electrical Appliances

   a. No changes or additions may be made in the wiring or electrical fixtures in any room without approval of the college electrician. Care should be taken not to overload the existing circuits.

   b. No extension cords may be used from the hallway plugs to the rooms.

   c. Electrical appliances, such as hot plates, microwaves, toasters and irons, are to be used only in the places especially equipped and designated for their use in each residence hall (kitchens, lounges, lobby areas, etc.). The above electrical appliances are not to be used in student rooms. Refrigerators of any size are prohibited. In some extreme medical situations students needing a personal-sized refrigerator for medical reasons must submit specific medical documentation to the director of residence life.

2. Fire Protection

   Students may not start a fire in or near the residence halls. The use of candles, incense and other combustible materials are not allowed in any college housing unit. The Department of Public Safety in cooperation with the residence life staff conducts fire drills throughout the year.

   a. Fire Drill Procedures are as follows:
   - Window closed and shades up.
   - Leave light on.
   - Unlock and close residence hall room door.
   - Exit the building immediately, particularly if smoke is visible.
   - Meet with fire buddy for roll call outside once you have evacuated the building.
   - Your worst enemy in a fire is time. You may only have seconds (not minutes) to evacuate.

   b. Ringing the fire alarms in the residence halls except in case of actual fire is a serious offense and will result in a Judicial Board case.

   c. Failure to vacate the building during an audible alarm is a serious offense and will result in a Judicial Board case.

3. Laundry

   Washers and dryers are located in all residence halls and theme houses. Students electing to live in Avery Glen must provide their own washer and dryer and/or contract for services from an outside vendor. The college is not responsible for any cost associated with washer or dryer services in Avery Glen.

4. Mandatory Residence Hall Meetings
Residence hall and floor meetings will be scheduled throughout the semester as deemed necessary by residence life staff. Each residential student is required to attend. If, for some reason, a student must miss a residence hall meeting, she may be excused by her resident assistant, or graduate hall director with 24-hour notification. Students who miss called meetings are still accountable for information covered during these meetings. Blatant disregard and failure to attend mandatory meetings may result in a judicial board case.

6. Pets
In all residence halls, including Avery Glen, students are not allowed to have any pets other than fish. The largest acceptable aquarium/fish tank size is 30 gallons. Students are responsible for the care, cleaning and upkeep of their fish and fish tank. Failure to maintain sanitary conditions can result in a notice to remove the aquarium. This no-pets policy includes pet-sitting for any animal other than fish in all college housing. Students with fish must make the necessary care arrangements prior to the school breaks. Students in non-designated break housing will not be allowed to return during the break to provide care.

Violations of the pet policy are subject to penalties by Judicial Board including removal or ban from Avery Glen, a fine, community service and/or last pick for following-year housing depending on the severity of the incident and appropriateness of the penalties. Students who have a pet at Avery Glen will automatically be charged pet cleaning fees and odor removal fees which cost $200 minimally. Additional charges may occur if the pet causes damage to college property.

7. Quiet Hours
Students are expected to show consideration 24 hours a day to their fellow residents in the residence halls and are expected to be reasonably quiet in the halls. Quiet hours are to be observed by all students Sunday through Thursday from 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. During this time, radios and televisions should not be heard outside of students’ rooms. Weeknights there will be a half-hour break from quiet hours on the halls from 10 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. On weekend nights, quiet hours will be enforced from midnight to 10 a.m. Saturday and Sunday mornings. The policies regarding quiet hours will be consistent and uniform throughout the campus. Each student is responsible for maintaining quiet hours on her hall, but the residence life staff member has ultimate authority on the hall. If a student is disturbing others around her, she will receive a warning from residence life staff. Persistent noise problems will result in a Judicial Board case.

During reading days and final exams at the end of each semester, 24-hour quiet hours are enforced in all on-campus housing including the theme houses and Avery Glen Apartments.

8. Signing In/Out for First-Year Students
Regulations concerning signing in and out are for the safety of students, who are encouraged always to leave information as to their whereabouts. In order to secure the safety of the student and encourage a sense of community responsibility, a mandatory sign-out procedure is in effect for all first-year students until Black Cat of their first semester. First-year students planning to be off campus after 8 p.m. are expected to sign out and sign in according to the following procedure:

a. The student must sign out on the official form at her resident assistant’s door, including her name, destination and expected time of return.

b. Upon her return to campus, the student must sign back in on the same form.
c. Students set their own curfews and are expected to adhere to them responsibly as a matter of courtesy to their fellow residents. All residents are encouraged to return to campus by midnight on weekdays in order to better meet the rigorous academic demands of ASC as well as to ensure their safety.

E. Residential Facilities Policies

1. Room Condition
Each residence hall room is inspected prior to move-in by the residence life staff and a room condition form is a completed. Upon move-in, a room inventory form is signed by the student(s) living in the room. Each resident is responsible for the condition of her assigned residential space. Rooms are not to be altered substantially by such means as painting the walls. Furniture is not to be removed from the room under any circumstance. The room will be inspected upon departure to assure that all furniture is in place and that trash is picked up and placed in the bags provided by the Office of Facilities. The student will be held responsible for any damages beyond normal wear and tear. Students will also be charged for excessive cleaning. Responsibility for all items is shared jointly for rooms/apartments in which more than one student lives.

The Office of Facilities considers the following items when evaluating residence hall/theme house room or an apartment for excessive wear and tear:

- All original furniture present and accounted for in the room; this includes the appropriate number of beds (and bed parts), dressers, desks, chairs, bookshelves, mirrors, wastebaskets, etc.
- Room accessories: door and lock, ceiling light, switches and outlets, window screens, blinds or shades, etc.
- Room itself: walls, floor, windowpanes, ceiling, etc. Students will also be responsible for all items contained within the Residence Hall Contract, which they will sign upon checking into their assigned housing. When and where it has been deemed there has been damage to college facilities and/or property, a fine will be assessed and placed on the appropriate student accounts.

2. Property for Community Use
Students share equally with other hall, house or apartment residents the expense of repair and/or replacement of any college property in common areas (e.g., bathrooms, lobby areas, lounges, stairwells, etc.) of the hall when the college determines that it is unable to fix liability for such expenses upon an individual. When and where it has been deemed there has been damage to college facilities and/or property, a fine will be assessed and placed on the appropriate student accounts.

3. Thermostats in Older Residence Halls
Residence rooms in Inman, Main and Rebekah halls are not equipped with any type of heating/cooling temperature control that may be accessed by the student. Students selecting rooms in these buildings are subject to adhere to the dates chosen by the Office of Residence Life as to when the heating and/or cooling system will be activated.

4. Repairs and Improvements to Facilities
There will be no room charge adjustment or other compensation made for inconvenience or discomfort as a result of the college making repairs and/or improvement to facilities or temporary service outages, provided such occurrences are remedied within a reasonable amount of time and with minimal inconvenience to the student(s) involved.

5. Lofts
Lofts are not permitted.

6. Storage
On-campus storage for students’ personal property is not available. Residence Life has recommended storage options available in their office.

F. Key Policy

1. At the beginning of the year, students are issued keys to their respective residence halls (exterior door and interior room keys). All residence hall exterior doors (with the exception of Main and Rebekah, which are open during college business hours) are locked 24 hours a day. (Main and Rebekah are locked at 5 p.m. on weekdays.) Students in Walters and Winship are given ID access for exterior doors in lieu of a key. Students are asked not to attach their keys to anything that links them to Agnes Scott.

2. Students are not to let ANYONE into the residence halls except other students or their personal guests. Agnes Scott employees will be in uniform or will have Agnes Scott identification when working in residence halls. Other vendors will wear a badge, which they must sign for at public safety. If you see an individual who is not in uniform or without valid ID or wearing a badge, contact the Department of Public Safety immediately at 404.471.6355 or 404.471.6400.

3. Residential students are not to lend their residence hall keys or ID to any off-campus visitor for any reason.

4. It is the responsibility of each student to maintain her room keys until final departure from her residence hall. Keys are not to be duplicated for any reason; this includes keys is- sued to Avery Glen residents. The room and building keys must be returned to the resident assistant, resident director or Office of Residence Life within 24 hours of leaving cam- pus. Failure to do so will result in a fine.

5. If a student’s key is lost or stolen, she should report it IMMEDIATELY to the Office of Residence Life during regular weekday business hours (Monday–Friday, 8:30 a.m.–4:30 p.m.) or to her resident assistant after business hours and on the weekend. Lost keys are then reported to the Office of Facilities for replacement. Lost residence hall exterior door keys will be replaced for a $50 fee. Students will be charged $15 for the replacement of their first lost key.

6. If a student is locked out of her residence hall and/or room, she should contact her room-mate, her RA or the building’s other RAs for assistance. During regular weekday business hours, she should go to the Office of Residence Life (212 Alston). During evening or week-end hours, she should contact her roommate, her RA or the building’s other RAs for assistance. If all attempts fail to gain access by the aforementioned methods, the Department of Public Safety may be contacted for assistance. If available, a public safety officer will then let her into her residence hall and/or room. Please note that an officer may not be readily avail- able at the time of a reported lockout and therefore students should anticipate a possible extended wait.

7. At the end of the fall semester students will return their key to a residence life staff member upon check-out. Exceptions to this will be students who have been approved for Winter Break housing.

8. Following a school break or at the beginning of a semester, students should not seek admittance into their residence halls until the designated admittance date and time. Exterior doors to all residential areas including Avery Glen are rendered inoperable with student keys to limit access during breaks.

G. Roommate and Room Change Policies

1. Room Change Policy
Residents who wish to change rooms are required to comply with established policies and procedures to implement a room change. Room changes will be granted after other options, such as roommate mediation, have been exhausted and based on space availability.

2. Residence Vacancies
When vacancies occur, the college reserves the right to show rooms/apartments and assign new occupants at any time to fill the vacancies. Residents occupying a double room alone or residing in an apartment with an open space should always have their room/apartment in a condition that allows a student to move in immediately and feel comfortable and welcomed. Residents in a double room are to occupy one-half of the room space only. Residents are as- signed one set of complete furniture. The Office of Residence Life reserves the right to remove any additional set of furniture. To ensure living with someone with whom she is familiar, a resident should try to find a friend or acquaintance to fill the vacancy. Refusal of a new roommate will result in additional room charges based on the type of room being occupied. A new room- mate may be assigned any time during the semester or at the end of the semester. Residents with vacancies should leave for winter break anticipating the possibility of a new roommate when they return in January. If possible, the resident occupying the room/apartment during the semester will receive a notice that a roommate will be arriving within 24 hours. The Office of Residence Life reserves the right to assign a student to a room under the 24-hour notification policy. In those instances, the student will receive an email, phone call and/or written notice immediately.

3. Consolidation of Housing Vacancies and Additional Housing Fees
Students residing alone in a double room in the residence halls will be asked to consolidate with another student living in a double room. Students who wish to remain in their current accommodations and not have a roommate will pay an additional charge of $2,750 a year to keep their room as a single.

Students electing to live in Avery Glen must clearly understand that the Office of Residence Life reserves the right to reassign students in the Avery Glen Apartments for the purpose of consolidation. Residents in an apartment with a vacancy will be given an opportunity to fill the apartment within two weeks of receiving notice from the Office of Residence Life. Residents who refuse to consolidate and lack the maximum occupancy in the apartments maybe charged for the vacant space based on the type of apartment. (2-person $4557, 3-person$3,947. 4-person $3,947.). The buy-out charge will be divided equally among apartment occupants and will be charged to their account to be paid immediately.

4. Special Medical Housing Requests
Students seeking suitable furnishings or accommodations due to medical, psychological and/ or health related conditions, or for other reasons, should register with Kelly Deasy in the Office of Disability Services, as well as apply for housing accommodations with the Office of Residence Life. Housing accommodation forms can be picked up in the Office of Residence Life in Alston 212. Students will be asked to complete a request form and to provide sup- porting documentation.

H. Housing During College Breaks
College housing is closed during the scheduled Thanksgiving, winter and spring breaks. Buildings for break housing will be determined at the discretion of the Office of Residence Life. Stu- dents needing break/interim housing must apply and be approved. There will not be charges related to break housing for Thanksgiving and spring breaks, however there will be a charge associated with winter break and May/August interims. Students approved for winter break or May/August interim will be charged based upon their length of stay. Students have the option of paying $195 for the entire break or $25 per day. If a student is not assigned to a designated break housing hall she is responsible for finding a host in a designated hall for the breaks. Hall closing times and days are predetermined and listed in the handbook.
All students (including Avery Glen residents) who wish to stay during break periods, must complete a break housing application. Avery Glen residents must adhere to the same break housing policies established for the residence halls. Only students approved to stay for any of the breaks will be allowed access to their rooms/apartments.

Residents are required to vacate their room/apartment within 24 hours after their last final exam and no later than official closing date and time of the residence halls. Students should make travel plans accordingly. A resident is required to checkout with a residence life staff member. Failure to checkout properly or checkout on time will result in a $50 improper checkout charge. (Note: Students with fish and/or plants must make the necessary care arrangements prior to the breaks. Students that have not been approved to stay in break housing will not be allowed to return during the break for any reason.)

There is no visitation allowed in college housing (Avery Glen, residence halls or theme houses) during Thanksgiving, winter, spring and May/August interim breaks.

I. Party Registration
Residents may have social gatherings in your living spaces within certain guidelines.

Due to building layouts and size of spaces, gatherings with alcohol are permitted only in the West College Avenue Theme Houses or Avery Glen apartments. Parties are described as events with 13 or more people. An event can also be considered a party if looks, smells, sounds, or feels like a party, as determined by residence life staff members or other campus administrators.

To ensure student safety and to ensure that guests comply with Agnes Scott College residence life policies, we require that parties be registered at least five business days in advance of your event with the office of residence life. Parties will only be approved for houses and apartments where the majority of students are of legal drinking age.

A mandatory meeting between all apartment/house residents and the director of residence life will be scheduled as a pre-condition of approval. All apartment/house residents must agree on several meeting times and be prepared to sign-up for a meeting with the administrator at the time you submit your registration form. If the requesting apartment/house has previously submitted a party registration form, attended the mandatory meeting, and hosted a successful event (without ASC public safety or ASC residence life staff intervention), then the designated host of the event will be the only required person(s) to attend the registration meeting per event.

ASC public safety and residence life on-call staff will be notified once a registration form is submitted and once the registered party is approved. The primary contact for the party registration will be contacted when the event has been approved. The party registration form does NOT guarantee approval.

Official College Policy:
Individuals in Theme Houses and Avery Glen Apartments hosting an event are responsible for ensuring compliance with college policies and state and local laws. Individuals who violate these policies are subject to disciplinary actions by the college, by the state of Georgia, and by the city of Decatur.

• Agnes Scott prohibits the unlawful possession, use or distribution of illicit drugs or alcohol by students, student organizations, faculty or staff on its property as part of any college sponsored activities.

• To register a party, a student must be 21 or older and all guests must also be 21 or older.
• Students who are age 21 or older may consume alcohol at registered and approved “BYO” (bring your own) events or special events approved for serving alcohol on campus and during the time approved for the event.
• Intoxication is prohibited.
• Food and nonalcoholic beverages must be available at any BYO event or campus event where alcoholic beverages are served.
• The distribution of alcohol to underage individuals is prohibited.
• The sale of alcoholic beverages at any Avery Glen/Theme House event is prohibited.
• The use of pure grain alcohol and kegs are prohibited.
• Devices designed for the rapid consumption of alcohol are prohibited.
• Participation in drinking games is prohibited.

Avery Glen/Theme House Expectations:
Any student or group of students who host an event are expected to follow the standards below. Failure to abide by standards may result in disciplinary action for some or all residents of the house/apartment as well as guests.

• The function will end no later than 2 a.m. Quiet hours begin at twelve midnight. All party noise must cease by midnight. If there is a complaint of noise at any time during the party, the party will cease and the attendees must disperse. At the discretion of a residential staff member or an Agnes Scott Public Safety Officer the party will cease and attendees must disperse.
• If the party spills out into the area surrounding the apartment/house, the party will cease upon the direction of residential staff or ASC Public Safety. Resident hosts are responsible for the break-up and control of the party.
• Cost of any damage that occurs in or around the party area is the responsibility of the resident host(s). The Resident Host(s) will also be charged for any extra custodial services that are needed because of the party.
• The resident hosts will clean the area (inside and outside of the house/apartment) and dispose of trash immediately after the function.
• Only persons 21 years of age or older may consume or possess alcohol. Resident hosts are responsible for this policy throughout the duration of the party.
• A list of all registered events will be given to ASC Public Safety and residential staff.
• Events may only be registered on Friday and Saturday nights. No parties will be registered during finals, reading days, or other times when classes are not in session.
• The party registration must be completed and submitted at http://www.surveygizmo.com/s3/990951/Party-Registration-Form no later than 5 p.m. on the fifth day prior to the event.

J. Personal Insurance
The college accepts no responsibility for the theft, loss or damage of money, valuables, computers or any personal property of any student, either in college housing or in college storage areas. Students are urged to purchase their own insurance to cover such losses. Since family homeowner’s insurance policies sometimes provide coverage for the personal property of a family member away at school, each student is encouraged to check with her family’s insurance agent regarding policy coverage.

K. Pregnancy Guidelines
The following guidelines concern students who experience a pregnancy while living in campus housing. Agnes Scott recognizes the confidential nature of a pregnancy and seeks to provide students with confidential and supportive services. All students should be aware that confidential counseling is available through counseling and psychological services on-campus (as well as privately off-campus) to provide help in making decisions about a pregnancy.

If a student is carrying a pregnancy to full term on campus, the student should contact the wellness center and residence life as soon as possible. Agnes Scott’s goal is to help the pregnant student have a healthy, comfortable and supportive living environment throughout the pregnancy. The wellness center staff will refer the student to the appropriate on-/off-campus support to assure that the student has a comprehensive prenatal care plan in place and the department has the most up-to-date contact and physician information in case of an emergency.

Pregnant students may continue taking classes and engage in all other community activities. If a student prefers to take a medical leave of absence with the intention of returning to campus after delivery of the baby, such leaves may be requested through the office of academic advising.

If a student would prefer to remain enrolled in classes for the duration of the pregnancy and live in off-campus housing, the student is allowed an automatic exemption from on-campus housing. If a pregnant student chooses to remain in on-campus housing throughout the pregnancy, it is important that the student make necessary arrangements for housing for the infant prior to delivery as children are not allowed to live in campus housing.

At times, it may not be possible during a student’s pregnancy for campus housing to adequately meet the needs of the pregnant student and/or the associated needs of the other members of the residential community. If this should occur, residence life and the dean of students may determine that the pregnant student needs to move to an appropriate off-campus residence, in which case residence life will help the student make the transition. (Please note that residence life resources to help a student locate off-campus housing are significantly limited and may be minimal at certain times of the year.)

I. Residence Hall/Apartment Inspections/Searches

1. Inspections
The college reserves the right to enter a room/apartment at any time to determine compliance with all safety and health regulations and housing policy, as well as to provide maintenance work or to conduct an inventory of college property. A room may also be entered if there is an indication of danger to life, health or property.

2. Health and Safety Inspections
Health and safety inspections will be conducted by the residence life staff a few times per semester at a time posted and announced 48 hours in advance. Every residence hall room and apartment on campus will be entered by residence life staff to check the general health and safety of the living spaces. This will include checking for electrical hazards, fire safety issues, general cleanliness and other policy violations. Students do not have to be present in the rooms while they are being inspected by residence hall staff. It is important that all students keep their keys and student ID’s with them at all times during this week. Residence life staff will always lock the student room door when they leave the room after inspection. Residence life staff will communicate via a health and safety notification form and email with any students who are in violation of any policies. Students will have to respond accordingly to correct any concerns and or violations.

3. Searches
While the college makes every attempt to respect students’ privacy, it reserves the right to enter a residence room/apartment and, if deemed necessary, conduct a search of the residence.

Administrative searches are conducted because there is a reasonable suspicion that a college policy is being or has been violated and that evidence of a violation will likely be found in a particular place. Authorization for room searches is given only by the director of residence life or dean of students. The resident whose room/belongings are being searched shall be present whenever possible, however, administrative searches may take place without a room’s occupant(s) being present.

Administrative searches are not conducted for the purpose of criminal prosecution. If it is believed that a potential criminal violation exists, the Department of Public Safety will be contacted and a criminal search warrant may be obtained. See the SAFETY, EMERGENCIES & PARKING section of this handbook for more information.

M. Removal/Relocation of Students from/in Residences
The dean of students, associate dean of students and/or the director of residence life may immediately remove or relocate a student from a residence hall, theme house or apartment if it is believed that the health or safety of that person or other residents is endangered or damage to the facility is likely. Should a student's behavior be a danger to herself or others for psychological reasons in the opinion of the college, the dean of students and associate dean of students reserve the right to immediately remove the student from campus housing until the student is assessed and a determination is made regarding continuation of residency. In such cases, a mental health assessment by a licensed mental health professional may be required. (See the “Emergency Withdrawal Policy” in the STUDENT CONDUCT section of this handbook.)

N. Notification of Parents or Guardians of Residential Disciplinary Actions
If a student involved in a residence life policy violation is claimed as a dependent, the Office of Residence Life reserves the right to inform the parents/guardians of the student of the pending disciplinary charges as well as subsequent disciplinary decisions concerning the student. A student is considered a dependent unless she establishes proof to the contrary to the dean of students or director of residence life. It is suggested that students inform their parents whenever they are involved in an incident.

O. Avery Glen Apartments
Avery Glen is an on-campus apartment complex. Agnes Scott owns the property and continues to lease a certain number of units to people not affiliated with the college. Students allowed to live in Avery Glen must hold junior or senior status; as upper-class women, these students are expected to represent the college well to their neighbors in the complex.

1. College Policies & Procedures
Avery Glen resident students are bound by and must follow all of the same general policies that pertain to students living in traditional residence halls and which are presented in this residence life section, as well as the rest of the handbook. Note especially the following:

a. Students living in Avery Glen have the privilege of the upper-class visitation policy.

b. The Honor Code is in effect at Avery Glen. Management at Avery Glen assists the Office of Residence Life and the Judicial Board in enforcing policies in the campus apartments; however, it is expected that residents take the initiative to follow the Honor System as it is on campus.

c. The alcohol policy in this handbook also applies to Avery Glen.

2. Apartment Complex Policies & Procedures

a. Check-in for Avery Glen is conducted through the management office at Avery Glen. At the time of check-in, Avery Glen residents will be required to sign several forms (i.e. renter’s agreement, policy forms, security alarm set-up, key receipt, security gate controller replacement waiver).

b. Any Avery Glen student who wishes to stay in her apartment during college breaks must complete a break housing application. Residents will be charged for their stay during Winter break. Avery Glen residents must adhere to the same break housing policies established for the residence halls. Only students approved to stay for any of the breaks will be allowed access to their apartments.
c. Students living in Avery Glen may not have more than two guests per student in their apartment at one time.

d. Students must follow the same policy as it pertains to having a pet on campus.

e. Students must remove their trash and recycling and take it directly to the dumpsters/recycling bins provided. Management will fine residents $50 if trash or recyclables are left outside the apartment door. Excessive violation of this policy may result in a Judicial Board case and/or residence life intervention.

f. Residents must respect other tenants living around them. The tolerance of noise and parties is very low as in a normal community. The police (college or city) may be called (by student or non-student tenants) if the noise exceeds reasonable levels. Students who violate the noise level are subject to a Judicial Board case and/or residence life intervention.

g. Agnes Scott Avery Glen residents are required, for their own safety and security, to have a college parking decal on their vehicle regardless of their need to park on the main campus.

h. Students at Avery Glen are responsible for reporting their own work orders to the management office. The management office number is 404.687.8100. If students have after-hour emergencies, they should contact the Department of Public Safety at 404.471.6355.

i. Students at Avery Glen have alarm systems in their apartments. Students receive a personal code to arm and disable the system. Students should report any audible alarm to the Department of Public Safety at 404.471.6355.

j. Lock out service is not provided at Avery Glen. Neither the Office of Residence Life nor the Department of Public Safety has access to keys to the complex. Students should make every effort to maintain control of their key at all times. Additionally locked out students should contact their roommates. If unable to gain access to their apartment or another friends apartment students should call Public Safety who will notify the Dean of Students on-call staff member and other arrangements will be made.

Visiting and/or Staying on Campus

The Anna I. Young Alumnae House, 133 South Candler Street, offers both overnight accommodations and event space. The newly renovated facility is Agnes Scott’s first LEED-certified building and officially reopened in August 2009. Agnes Scott’s Alumnae House is the second oldest alumnae house in the nation and has provided a temporary home for visiting families, professors, alumnae and friends of the college since 1922. Students, faculty and alumnae may reserve rooms (for a fee) in the Alumnae House for campus visitors. Each of the five guest rooms is equipped with a private bath and can accommodate up to two guests. ASC students may not visit with non-familial male guests upstairs. Children under the age of 10 are not permitted in the house. The house is closed during all school holidays and as needed for college events and yearly maintenance. For more information regarding reservations and rates, phone 404.471.6329 or email alumhouse@agnesscott.edu.

Commuting students may spend the night as guests of resident students, in the residence halls, up to three consecutive nights by signing in at the door of the RA and in the lobby area of the building. Students wishing to spend more than three consecutive nights must receive permission from the director of residence life.

Refer to the RESIDENCE LIFE section of this handbook for a complete explanation of residence hall guest policies.

Tours of the campus should be arranged through the Office of Admission (x6285) or the Office of Communications (x6294) depending on the nature of the visiting group.
Student Government Association

Grant of Power

Each student of Agnes Scott is a member of the Student Government Association. Student Government Association was founded and given a grant of power from the faculty in 1906. As students assumed increasing responsibility, they were given a larger grant of power by the Board of Trustees in 1923. The student body elects the officers of the Student Government Association and officers and representatives of Honor Court, Student Senate, Judicial Board and Programming Board.

The Constitution of the SGA establishes the basis for self-government. The Student Senate, Honor Court and Judicial Board act through power delegated to them by the SGA in accordance with this constitution. The Student Senate incurs legislative and executive powers affecting all students. The Honor Court serves as a judicial body in matters relating to the Honor System. The Judicial Board has executive powers relating to residence hall life. These organizations work in tandem to ensure the application of student government and the Honor System under the leadership of the officers of the Association.

The Privilege of Self-Government

Agnes Scott students have the potential to enjoy a maximum amount of freedom and responsibility in shaping the policies and regulations of the college. Regulations currently governing student life are the legacy of past generations of Agnes Scott students. In addition to the regulations established through the approval of Student Senate proposals by the Judicial Review Committee, students have representation in a number of campus committees involved in policy making. In her commitment to the Honor System, each student agrees to abide by these policies and regulations. As with other college procedures, neither the college nor the student shall have attorneys or legal representation at any judicial proceeding. Students are encouraged to voice their opinions on policy by contacting the appropriate student representatives and participating in forums and open meetings hosted by SGA bodies. The SGA Constitution is published in this handbook as a matter of public record for campus community use. Copies of other campus organizations’ constitutions should be maintained by the organization and kept on reserve in the Center for Student Engagement.

“To learn to live honorably and unselfishly in a community and to share in the responsibility of the government is a part of the broader education for which we came to college.”

Section VIII: Student Green Fee Fund (SGFF)
A. The Student Green Fee Fund (SGFF) allows Agnes Scott College students the opportunity to engage directly in sustainability efforts at Agnes Scott by initiating and leading sustainability projects on campus and by participating in educational opportunities off campus. This fund will be available to all students who apply and it will be managed by a student committee. By so doing, students are able to take active leadership in addressing issues of sustainability at Agnes Scott.

B. Source of Funds
1. Funds for the SGFF will come from the $10 green fee allocation of the Student Activity Fee.

C. Management
1. Committee Structure

a. The SGFF will be managed by a student committee, with one student serving as the committee chair. The committee will have three members. The committee may increase in size if deemed necessary with a maximum of five members.

b. Committee members will vote to approve the most competitive applications for funds. The committee will brief the Office of Sustainability on the projects they have selected, and then work with the sustainability staff to make the final decisions on allocating the funds.

2. SGFF Committee Chair

a. The chair is responsible for calling meetings and overseeing the management of the SGFF.

b. The chair will be appointed by ASCSGA.

c. The chair will serve as a non-voting member of ASCSGA Executive Board.

d. The chair cannot serve on the executive board of Smart Women for the Advancement of Tree hugging (SWAT).

3. Applying for Funds

4. Applying for Committee Membership

a. Application

i. Interested students will complete an application to serve on the committee. Applications will be available in the Spring semester annually.

ii. The SGFF Committee members will be selected by the Director of Sustainability and appointments will be made in April every year.

ELECTIONS

Section I: Elections Board

A. Membership

1. Members of the Elections Board shall be members that are chosen at the discretion of the chair of Elections. The board will be headed by the chair of Elections, but will have alternating members for each election period to ensure that there will be an unbiased campaign for petitions.

a. For Spring Elections (voting for Student Senate, Student Government Executive Board, IOC, COSMO, Honor Court, Judicial Board, Programming Board, class officers and Allocating Committee) ASCSGA Secretary will appoint members of the Elections Board who will assist the chair of Elections in all facets of publicity, preparations for Election events, and clean-up of all Election materials and flyers.

2. The chair of Elections may call meetings at any time. If a member of the Elections Board fails to attend more than one (1) meeting during an election cycle, they will be asked to resign from the committee.

B. Duties of the Elections Board

1. To assist the ASCSGA secretary/Chair of Elections.

2. To be responsible for all publicity concerning elections, excluding individual campaign materials.

3. To distribute petitions for all offices to be filled.

4. To assist in verifying the eligibility of all candidates.

5. To assist in the Elections Kick Off event.

6. Election Board Members will never handle the electronic ballot nor will they personally receive petitions.

C. Procedures

1. Any student wishing to become a candidate for a Student Government Association office or for any office to be elected by the student’s class, must submit a petition to Elections Board at a time to be determined by Elections Board.

2. A student may not run for more than two offices.

3. The Elections Board will send preference cards to those students appearing on the ballot more than once. The student must rank the offices according to the student’s preference and return the card by the date specified to the Elections Board. If the student fails to do so, the student’s name will be removed from the ballot.

4. Will post the names of the candidates of each office randomly on a final ballot.

5. Will post the final ballot and petitions as they are submitted before the student body votes.

6. Speeches will be required of the candidates for president of the Student Government Association Executive Board, the executive board of Student Senate, the executive board of Honor Court, the executive board of Judicial Board, and the executive board of Programming Board.

7. Voting will last for three (3) consecutive school days.

8. The chair of Elections will inform the student body of the election results.

9. Appeals, meeting the requirements as stated in the Constitution, will be reviewed by a committee including the following: the Student Government Association Executive Board President, the Student Senate President, the Honor Court President, the Judicial Board President, the Associate Dean of Students, a representative from the Center for Student Engagement staff and a representative from Academic Affairs.

D. Emergency Elections

1. If any positions are left open after an election period, the chair of Elections will make a call for petitions the following semester within the first three (3) weeks of return.

2. Petitions will be gathered and candidates will be selected in the same manner as Fall elections.

3. ASCSGA Executive Board will elect which candidates will be chosen to fill the available spots.

4. The chair of Elections will notify all candidates of the status of their approval. The chair of Elections will subsequently inform the student body of the results.

Section II: Eligibility

A. All candidates

1. Must have a 2.5 GPA at the time of the election.

2. Must not be found responsible for an Honor Court violation.

3. Must not be found responsible for no more than two Judicial Board violations of any kind and no more than one alcohol violation.

4. If candidates do not meet one or all of the requirements above they must submit an appeal letter to the President of the association at the time the petition is submitted. The Appeals Committee will notify the candidate prior to the campaign period.

B. All elected officers are not eligible to hold more than one office elected by the student body at large without approval from the Executive Board of the Association.

1. If approval is given to the candidate, they will be notified with a hard copy letter from the chair of the Elections Board prior to the campaign period.

2. If a candidate for ASCSGA Executive Board wishes to petition to hold more than one position in ASCSGA or other responsibilities at Agnes Scott College (i.e., Resident Director, editor of a publication, etc.), they should discuss this with the Director of Campus Life and/or the organization’s advisor.
Section III: Elections Timing
A. All elections will be conducted in accordance with the policies and procedures of Elections Board.
   1. Campus-wide elections will be held two times per academic year: once at the beginning of fall semester and once at the end of spring semester.
      a. Elections to elect First-Year representatives to Student Senate, Honor Court, Judicial Board, and First-Year Class Officers will be held at the beginning of the fall semester.
      b. Elections to elect representatives to Honor Court (including president, vice president, treasurer and secretary), Student Senate, (including president, vice president, treasurer and secretary), Judicial Board (including president, vice president, and secretary), Programming Board (including executive board positions), and ASCSGA Executive Board will be held at the end of the spring semester.
      c. Elections to elect Class Officers (including president, vice president, treasurer and secretary) will be held in the spring semester. Class officers are voted on by their respective classes.
   2. Students running for positions with residential stipulations must run according to expected residential status in the fall semester. If, in the fall semester, there is a change in residential status the student must resign from office.

ARTICLE VI
RESIGNATIONS OR VACANCIES

Section I: Resignation of Student Government Executive Board Members
A. Resignations will be filled as soon as possible. All resignations must be verified in writing to the President of the Association.
B. During the period of the vacancy, the president of the Association will fulfill both the president’s position and the vacant position. If the president of the Association resigns or is impeached, the president of Student Senate temporarily fulfills both the position of Student Senate president and the vacant position.

Section II: Vacancies of Office in Organizations of the Association
A. If the president of any organization resigns or is impeached, the vice president assumes the president’s duties. The vacancy must be filled according to regular election procedures as outlined in this constitution.

ARTICLE VII
IMPEACHMENT PROCESS FOR ASCSGA ELECTED OFFICERS

Section I: Grounds for Impeachment
A. Gross violations of the ASCSGA Constitution
B. Embezzlement
C. Gross negligence of duties
D. Abuse of Power

Section II: Impeachment Process
A. A concerned student contacts a member of the Supreme Court.
B. The student meets with the Supreme Court to state the student’s case. The student must give grounds for impeachment.

C. The Supreme Court, excluding member(s) being impeached, would research and review the case in a timely manner and determine if there are sufficient grounds for impeachment.

D. If sufficient grounds for impeachment are determined by a 2/3 vote, there will be a student forum held by the Supreme Court within one week. At the forum, both sides of the issue will be presented.

E. A campus wide vote will be held within 72 hours of the forum, not including weekends, to determine if the officer shall be impeached.

F. The secretary/Chair of Elections Board will oversee the voting. If the Secretary/Chair of Elections Board is being impeached, the president of the Association will oversee the voting.

G. Impeachment requires a 2/3 agreement of the quorum.

H. Decision of vote takes effect immediately after the results of the vote are announced.

I. The open position is filled according to the ASCSGA Constitution of the respective organization.

PROCEDURES FOR AMENDMENTS TO THE ASCSGA CONSTITUTION

Section I: Procedure
A. Proposed Amendment
   Proposed Amendments must be submitted in writing by students to the Constitutional Review Committee which is a Student Senate committee.

B. Amendment Research
   After submission, the Constitutional Review Committee shall research the amendment. By consensus, the committee shall have the right to determine if the proposed amendment is relevant.

C. Vote on Said Amendment
   If relevant, the committee shall take the amendment to the general body of Student Senate. The Student Senate shall vote to approve or reject forwarding the amendment to a student body vote in the next general election.

D. Approval
   1. The ASCSGA shall vote on the proposed amendment at the next ASCSGA Election. A two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of a quorum, in favor of the amendment is required for approval of the proposed amendment.
   2. The ASCSGA Elections Board shall supervise such voting and judge the returns.

E. Denial
   1. If the Constitutional Review Committee does not approve the amendment, the committee shall send a written statement to the person who submitted the proposal. The statement shall explain the committee’s decision.

Section II: Appeal Procedure
A. Right of Appeal
   If the proposed amendment is rejected at either the committee consensus or the Senate vote, the student who proposed the amendment has the right to appeal the decision.

B. Petition
   1. Said student must secure the signatures of thirty (30%) percent of the ASCSGA body.
   2. The petition shall set forth, in exact words, the action sought and shall have the proposed amendment written at the top of each page. The petition must include the name and phone number for each signer of said petition.

3. The petition shall be submitted to the president of Senate. The president reserves the right to verify the signatures on said petition.

C. Action on Appeal

If the signatures are secured and verified, the proposed amendment will then follow the procedures as listed in Article VIII, Section I., D-E.

Section III: Emergency Procedure

A. Right of Declaration of Emergency

The ASCSGA has the right to declare a proposed amendment an emergency if the amendment must have a student body vote before the next ASCSGA Election.

B. Procedure for Emergency Priority

1. A motion for emergency action can be made by any student body member at a Student Senate meeting.
2. A vote to approve the motion must be passed by a super majority (75%) in the affirmative.
3. If approved, the president of Senate shall take the proposal to the president of the Association. The president of the Association shall be required to make arrangements for holding of a general election, in conformance with the rules governing general election, in thirty (30) days after receipt of said proposed amendment.
4. If the motion is rejected by the Student Senate, the ASCSGA student body can initiate emergency action by securing the signatures of thirty percent (30%) of student members of ASCSGA according to guideline set forth in Article VII, Section II.B.
5. If these signatures are secured, said petition shall be taken to the ASCSGA President. The president shall be required to make arrangements for the holding of a general election, in conformance with the rules governing general elections, within thirty (30) days after receipt of said petition.

ARTICLE IX

Student Senate

Oath of Office

“As a member (or as an officer) of the Student Senate of Agnes Scott College, I do solemnly swear, being ever mindful of the responsibility vested in me by the college, that I will strive in all my work to keep free of personal prejudice; that I will always hold before me the ideals of the Student Senate and of Agnes Scott, and will endeavor continually to bring them to full realization.”

Student Senate Bylaws

Section I: Membership

A. Composition of Student Senate

1. There shall be five members of the Executive Board: president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and parliamentarian.

2. There shall be a total of twenty Student Senators defined as follows:

   a. Seventeen of the total 24 shall be residential senators elected at large by the residential students in the general fall elections.

   b. Three of the total 24 shall be non-residential senators elected at large by the non-residential students in the general fall elections.

   c. Four of the total 24 shall be representatives of first-year students elected during first-year elections early in the fall term.

B. Qualifications

1. Senators

   a. A 2.5 cumulative GPA at time of election and to be maintained throughout office.

   b. Be present and enrolled at Agnes Scott during the elected term which runs from the time of the election to the time of the next elections

2. Executive Board

   a. A 2.5 cumulative GPA at time of election and to be maintained throughout office.

   b. All executive board members must be of second semester first year or higher standing.

   c. President and vice-president must each have two semesters of Senate experience at Agnes Scott.

   d. Secretary and treasurer must each have one semester of Senate experience at Agnes Scott.

Section II: Meetings and Attendance Policy

A. Meetings

Senate meets every Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. in an agreed upon meeting room. All meetings are open to the campus community.

B. Attendance

1. Senators are allowed three absences during their term.
a. Missing a Tuesday night meeting is equivalent to one absence

b. Missing a committee meeting or responsibility is equivalent to 1/3 of an absence.

c. Failing to complete a liaison-related issue within two meetings or failing to complete any other task designated by the Executive Board is equivalent to 1/3 of an absence.

d. Arriving more than ten minutes late to a senate meeting or leaving before the meeting is officially adjourned results in one absence.

2. All absences from a Tuesday night meeting are to be turned into the secretary and president.

3. On the third absence, a verbal and written warning will be given.

4. After the third absence, if there is a failure to complete any liaison or committee duties or miss any committee or Senate meetings, the senator is obligated to tender a letter of resignation.

5. For special circumstances (i.e. sickness, death, etc.), Executive Board can make allowances on a case by case basis. Disputed policies can be appealed to the Senate.

Section III: Duties and Responsibilities

A. Committees

1. Each senator will be an active member of at least two committees, one of which must be standing committee.

2. If a senator is on a standing committee that is only active in the spring, she must join another standing committee in the fall.

3. Committee chairpersons are responsible for keeping track of the duties of their committee. They must turn in an attendance sheet for all committee meetings and they must report any unfulfilled duties to the Executive Board vice president.

B. Liaisons

1. Each Senator will be a liaison to a department or office on campus.

2. Each Senator will keep a record of their correspondence with their liaison, which will include any letters and a summary of all liaison activity.

C. Other Responsibilities

All Senators and Executive Board members are also responsible for the duties listed in the ASC- SGA Constitution Article IV: Section 1: C.

Section IV: Committees

   1. Faculty Meetings
   2. Master Plan Meetings

D. Each Senator shall provide the secretary of Student Senate with copies of all correspondence with the office or series of meetings to which she is assigned.

E. Each senator shall, at the end of her term, produce a brief report for the secretary including copies of correspondence and a summary of that office’s activities that involved the liaison for the year.

F. The Executive Board of Student Senate reserves the right to amend the liaison positions throughout the term if the need arises.

Section VI: Voting

A. Definition of Voting Terms
   1. Majority: The majority of a voting body is defined as more than 50 percent of the voters.
   2. Super Majority: The super majority of a voting body is defined as at least 75 percent of the voters.
   3. Quorum: The quorum of a voting body is defined as at least three-fourth of the voting members.

B. Voting Procedure
   1. There must be a quorum of Student Senators present in order to vote on legislation.
   2. Student Senate shall follow the standard voting procedure outlined in Robert’s Rules of Order.
3. Revisions and amendments to the bylaws shall be treated as main motions, with an affirmative majority vote required to amend the bylaws.

C. Voting Privileges

1. The president of Student Senate shall not have voting privileges.

2. All Student Senators shall have voting privileges.

3. The president of Student Senate shall vote in the case of a tie.

Section VI: Ambassadors

A. Appointed senators will be responsible for serving as residential ambassadors.

B. Senators assigned to a specific residential floor will be responsible for maintaining regular contact with the residential floor for the purpose of promoting communication between the residential floor and Student Senate.

1. Specifically, regular contact will take place between the senator, the Residence Life staff working in that floor and the residents of the floor.

2. Regular contact will include:

   a. Attending all hall meetings required of residents, except meetings with the purpose of surveying students.

   b. Efforts to develop relationship between residents of the floor, so that each resident is aware of the resources to them by Student Senate.

   c. Other efforts as needed at the discretion of the senator.

3. Residential floors will be assigned by Executive Board.

C. Each Senator shall keep record of all contact with their residential floor and all points of meetings with relation to Student Senate.

1. These records shall then be used to produce a brief report for the records of Student Senate.

2. Reports will be collected by the secretary of Student Senate.

D. The residential ambassador’s responsibility does not limit Senators to report concerns only of their floor, nor shall it mean that students can only bring concerns to their ambassador.

E. This appointment will be taken into consideration by Executive Board when assigning other responsibilities.

F. The Executive Board of Student Senate reserves the right to amend the liaison positions throughout the term if the need arises.

Standards of Behavior

In accordance with Agnes Scott’s desire to encourage and recognize individual maturity and responsibility, it is expected that students will conduct themselves with propriety and exercise good judgment so that their behavior will bring credit both upon themselves and the college. Except for Woodruff Scholar students, married students or students with children, all full-time students must live in a college residence hall (which includes Avery Glen, the on-campus apartments) or with parents, guardians or other immediate relatives.

In addition to the specific standards set forth, and beyond the areas they govern, it is assumed that students will follow the dictates of common sense and will exhibit a healthy respect for their own safety and the comfort of their fellow students.

The college and its agents maintain the right to enter a student’s room for the purpose of maintenance, fire, safety and upholding college regulations and policies.

In the event that a student’s conduct indicates that she is not in compliance with the ideals and standards of the college’s residence life policies, or is not mature enough to reside on campus, the dean of students may terminate the student’s resident status, at which time the student will be required to move out of the residence hall within 72 hours.

When a student, whether resident or non-resident, behaves in such a manner as to indicate that she is not in compliance with the ideals and standards of the college, the dean of students may choose to handle the matter within her office or she may direct the issue to an appropriate administrative or judicial body on campus.

The Honor System

The cornerstone of the entire structure of Agnes Scott life is the Honor System, which is founded on the support, the mature judgment and the personal integrity of each student. By entering Agnes Scott, a student voluntarily pledges her support to the regulation and spirit of the community. As a member of this community, she accepts a definite responsibility for herself and for her fellow students, which leads to responsible freedom within the structure of the Honor System. The Honor System is an expression of trust in students and in their willingness to uphold the ideals of the community.

Each student is expected to accept her responsibility to protect the Honor System from actions and attitudes that may weaken it. The exercise of this responsibility involves a student reporting her own infringements of the policies and regulations and involves an obligation for her fellow students’ relations to the community. It is impossible to reduce this to an unvarying rule of procedure, but the unchanging obligation is to prevent the occurrence or recurrence of detrimental action or attitudes.

A helpful guideline for application of the Honor Code is the concept of dual responsibility. When a student is witness to an Honor Code violation (or possible violation), her obligation to the campus community is to confront each participant and suggest she consider her behavior with regard to the Honor Code. The witness may opt instead to ask a third party to speak to the student(s) appearing to be in violation of the code.

Under the exercise of personal responsibility to the Honor Code, those who have been asked to reconsider their actions and find their conformity to the intention of the code to be in question should report their own possible infringements to the Honor Court.

Should a student in apparent violation of the code refuse to report her own possible infringement, it is appropriate for another member of the community—who has first hand information suggesting an Honor Code violation—to report the possible infraction to the Honor Court.

Under the Honor System, social and academic regulations are based upon their value to the community and to the individual student. This basis is one that is fundamental, not only at Agnes Scott, but wherever there is a community.

Honor Court

Honor Court Sanctions
Upon written request, Honor Court will disclose to a victim of a crime of violence or sexual harassment the final result of any institutional disciplinary proceeding regarding that crime or offense.

The Honor Court judges offenses and gives sanctions. Possible sanctions for violations are as follows:

1. Warning File
   If a student is found responsible for a violation of the Honor Code she will automatically be placed on active warning file. The student will remain on active warning file until one year after her graduation. If the student violates the Honor System or any other college rules and regulations during this active period, her previous case may be referred to as evidence for the necessity of more serious action. Following the duration of the active period, her record may be reviewed at Honor Court’s discretion. Students will be notified when their names are placed on warning file.

2. Restricted Privileges
   - a. Exam Privilege
     For violation of exam procedure a student may lose the right to take exams when she pleases and instead be required to schedule them with the office of the dean of the college and then adhere to this schedule.
   - b. Visitation
     In some cases, Honor Court can remove a student’s visitation privileges as a penalty. The period of the restriction will be determined by Honor Court.

3. Plagiarism or Integrity Workshop
   In the case of a plagiarism violation, Honor Court reserves the right to require the student to participate in a plagiarism or integrity workshop directed by a professor and/or others.

4. Educational Sanctions
   Penalties imposed by Honor Court for discrimination or harassment may include the following educational sanctions if deemed appropriate to the offense:
   - a. Having the student complete a self-evaluation form that would assist the student in understanding how her discriminatory attitudes were developed and reinforced.
   - b. Having the student complete an evaluation form for Honor Court that would have the student express which aspects of the Honor Court penalty were beneficial and which aspects were not.
   - c. Having the student read or watch and report to Honor Court on literature or a video presentation pertaining to discrimination.
   - d. Having the student attend a particular program sponsored by the president’s Committee on Community Diversity to be followed by a report to Honor Court.

5. Social Probation
   During the period of probation the student is considered not to be in good standing with the college. No mark is placed on her transcript. However, a student receiving the sanction of social probation is prohibited from participating in any school-sponsored activities e.g., internships, study abroad, intercollegiate athletics, or holding any leadership positions, e.g. SGA, campus tour guide.

6. Disciplinary Probation
   During the period of probation the student is considered not to be in good standing with the college. A mark of disciplinary probation is placed on her transcript for the duration of the probation. If the student violates the Honor System or any other college rules and regulations during the active period of her probation, her previous case may be reviewed as evidence for the necessity of more serious action.
a. Disciplinary Probation for Violation of Social Regulations Administered by the Honor Court, this penalty is given for violation of social regulations. Social regulations are defined in of Honor Court procedures in this student handbook. Judicial Review Committee is notified of the imposed sentence for subsequent approval, disapproval or change and enforcement by the committee.

b. Disciplinary Probation for Violation of Academic Regulations
Given for violation of academic regulations, this penalty is recommended to the Judicial Review Committee by the Honor Court for review with subsequent approval, disapproval or change and enforcement by the committee.

7. Suspension and Dismissal
For a substantive violation of academic or social regulations, Honor Court may recommend suspension or dismissal. Suspension is made with a stipulated time of return when the student is automatically reinstated in good standing if she so desires. Dismissal is made without a time length for return and readmission occurs only after the student has applied to the college again.

In cases of suspension or dismissal, the Honor Court must recommend this penalty to the Judicial Review Committee for review with subsequent approval, disapproval or modification and enforcement by the committee.

8. Other Sanctions
In cases where Honor Court feels that none of the above sanctions is appropriate, other disciplinary action may be taken. All such sanctions are subject to review by the Judicial Review Committee, with subsequent approval, disapproval or modification and enforcement by the committee.

Honor Court Appeals

1. In the event the Honor Court determines that a student is “responsible” in the case that has been brought against her, the student must be informed of her right to appeal the decision. If she decides to do so, the student may appeal either the “responsible” verdict and penalty awarded to her or the penalty only.

2. A student may appeal a decision of any judiciary body only once and only to the next higher court. Declaration of intent to appeal must be made in writing to the presiding officer of the court whose decision is being appealed within 48 hours after being informed of that court’s decision. The student shall also file a statement of intent to appeal with the appropriate appeal body within 72 hours after her case has been decided.

3. In appealing a case from the Honor Court, the student has two possible channels of appeal which she may choose to follow:

   a. She may appeal to the student body, which will be called to judge her case.

   b. She may appeal her case to the Judicial Review Committee.

4. Appeal to the student body must be made by notifying the president of the Student Government Association in writing of her intent to appeal. The president will then call the student body (association) into session to consider the appeal. A majority of two-thirds of the students choosing to vote shall be required to censure or revoke a decision of an organization of the association. The student appealing is required to appear before the student body to present her case. See Appeals to the Association below for details.

If a student chooses to appeal her case to the student body, she should realize that there will be an ensuing loss of privacy as Honor Court and the person(s) bringing charges against her also have the right to present their case to the student body at that time.
5. If the student appeals to the Judicial Review Committee, this committee shall follow the steps outlined in Appeals to the Judicial Review Committee shown below.

If the student does not seek an appeal, the Judicial Review Committee will act on recommendations of Honor Court. The president of Honor Court will present the case. The student has the right to appear before the committee to answer questions of its members and present her case. The judgment of the Judicial Review Committee is final. A list of Judicial Review Committee members and a summary of its functions appears in this JUDICIAL BODIES section of this handbook.

Basis upon Which the Appeals Process is Structured

As the ASCSGA Constitution continues to be refined, it is necessary to rely on and refer to the previous SGA Constitution, which was effective through 1995-96, for guidelines, precedents and procedures in certain matters important to the function of student government. The appeals process is one area which requires such deference.

The Right to Appeal

In the matter of appeals, the 1995-96 Constitution By-Laws, Article VIII, “Procedure for Appeals” states, in part:

A student may appeal a decision of any judiciary body once only to the next higher court.

The Student Body as Appellate Court

In the instance of an Honor Court appeal, the “next higher court” is the student’s choice of either the Judicial Review Committee, by that committee’s own definition, or the association in the form of a called meeting of the student body. The role of the student body as an appellate court is founded in Article II, Section 2 of the former constitution:

While the association shall delegate its power to the organizations [of the association], it shall retain the right to review and revoke the decisions of these organizations.

Time Frames

The 1995-96 Constitution By-Laws, Article VIII, “Procedure for Appeals” concludes with:

Declaration of the intention to appeal must be made to the presiding officer of the court whose decision is being appealed within 48 hours after being informed of the court’s decision.

Article II, Section 3.C of the former constitution corresponds almost verbatim with Article I, Section III.C of the current constitution, except that it adds:

In order that a decision of an organization be censured or revoked, a petition must be presented to the president within 72 hours following the decision. The issue must then be posted one week before the vote.

Given the circumstances, “petition” in this instance has been taken to mean a written “request.”

President of the Association – Duties & Powers

The president of the association is empowered to call the association into session once the request is received from the student who is appealing an Honor Court decision by virtue of Article I, Section III.A in the current constitution:

The association may be called into session by the president of the Student Government Association.
In addition, the president is “to preside over meetings of the association” as directed in Article II, Section II,1.c of the current constitution.

Structure of the Meeting

Refer to Case Process for recommended procedures during the called meeting of the student body.

Appeals to the Association

To convene a meeting of the student body, the president of the Student Government Association follows the steps outlined in Article I, Section III, “Action of the Association,” of the SGA Constitution, which are reprinted below.

Basis Upon Which the Appeals Process Is Structured

In addition, it is strongly recommended that the Association follow the procedures listed after the constitutional excerpt to ensure an organized and just appeal process for the student(s) involved.

Section III: Action of the Association

A. The association may be called into session by a petition of 50 student signatures or by the president of the Student Government Association.

B. For the transaction of business, a quorum shall consist of one-fourth of all enrolled students.

C. Business shall be transacted by a simple majority. To censure or revoke a decision of an organization of the association, two-thirds vote by the students choosing to vote shall be required.

Recommended Procedures to Be Followed for a Meeting of the Association

1. The president of the association will set the date and time; it will be posted widely throughout the campus one week before the vote.

2. The president of the association will chair the meeting.

3. The president of the association will determine if a quorum is present. If a quorum is not present 15 minutes after the meeting is scheduled to begin, the president shall declare the meeting adjourned for lack of a quorum.

4. Once the presence of a quorum has been confirmed and the meeting has been officially convened, no one present may leave the meeting place. Students who arrive after the meeting has been called to order by the president of the association will not be allowed inside the meeting room and will not be allowed to vote. It will be the responsibility of the Secretary of the Student Senate and her assigned agents on the Student Senate to make or record a reckoning of which enrolled students are in attendance for the meeting and may vote. This roll will be adhered to in the voting process.

5. The Secretary of Student Senate shall keep the official minutes of the meeting. It is strongly urged that the secretary of the organization whose verdict is being appealed also take minutes for that organization’s formal records.

6. The president of the organization whose decision is being appealed will present her case and the student who is appealing the decision will present her case. Each side will have 15 minutes to present their respective cases. The president of the association may extend only one time per side the presentation of cases by 10 minutes each. Five minutes for rebuttal will be allowed to each side.

7. A period of no more than 30 minutes total will be allowed for members of the student body to ask questions of and receive answers from both sides in the interest of clarification.
a. Members of the Agnes Scott student body (association) are the only people who may speak.

b. The president of SGA has the right to dismiss any person from attendance and the subsequent vote if that person is deemed disruptive; i.e., does not adhere to the rules of decorum and speak in turn as called upon.

8. Legal representation or other outside representatives are not allowed at the meeting.

9. The voting will be by secret ballot. The members of the Executive Board of the association who are not directly involved in the case will count the votes and report them to the president of the association while the student body is still convened. Only one vote is taken. A majority of two-thirds of the students choosing to vote shall be required to censure or revoke a decision of an organization of the association.

10. Upon receiving the results of the balloting, the president of the association will inform the student who requested the appeal of the outcome of the vote. The members of the student body assembled for the meeting will then be notified of the results by open announcement.

11. Following the close of the meeting, the secretary of the Student Senate will make a formal written notice of the student body's decision to the appealing student, the organization whose decision was appealed, dean of students, dean of the college, director of academic advising and president of the college. When the decision of the student body involves a penalty of probation, suspension or dismissal (see “Honor Court Sanctions,” 5b-7) or any alternate penalty which affects grades, the registrar will receive a copy of the minutes of the meeting as well.

12. If the case before the student body was an appeal against an Honor Court decision and the original verdict and penalty would have gone before the Judicial Review Committee for reconsideration (see “Honor Court Sanctions,” 5b-7), then after the decision by the student body the case goes before Judicial Review Committee for final review. The committee may ask any of the participants in the case to appear before them. The procedures in this review are the same as those outlined in the Appeals to Judicial Review Committee steps 2 through 10, except that the president of the Association will present the issues raised at the student body meeting and the subsequent recommendation of the student body. Following this review, Judicial Review Committee has the right to approve, disapprove or modify the verdict and/or penalty and is responsible for enforcing its decision.

13. The judgment of the Judicial Review Committee is final.

Oath of Office

As a member (or as an officer) of the Judicial Board of Agnes Scott College, I do solemnly swear, being ever mindful of the responsibility vested in me by the college, that I will strive in all my work to keep free of personal prejudice; that I will always hold before me the ideals of the Judicial Board and of Agnes Scott and will endeavor continually to bring them to full realization.

Policies Regarding Residence Life

Agnes Scott is a residential liberal arts institution. The residential environment is a key component of each student's college experience. Students enrolled at Agnes Scott are expected to live in campus housing for the duration of their tenure at the college. Any exception to this policy must be approved by the Office of Residence Life. Authorization to live off-campus is granted at the discretion of the director of residence life in special situations or when space is unavailable on campus.

In addition to the specific standards set forth, and beyond the areas they govern, it is assumed that students will follow the dictates of the student code of conduct and will exhibit a healthy respect for their safety and the comfort of their fellow students. The college and its agents maintain the right to enter a student’s room for the purpose of maintenance, fire, safety and upholding college regulations and policies.

In accordance with Agnes Scott’s desire to encourage and recognize individual maturity and responsibility, it is expected that students will conduct themselves with propriety and exercise good judgment so that their behavior will bring credit both upon themselves and upon the college. In the event that a student’s conduct indicates that she is not in understanding with the ideals and standards of the college’s residence life policies or is not mature enough to reside on campus, the dean of students may terminate the student’s resident status.

Judicial Board Roles and Responsibilities

In efforts to be fair and provide safety for Agnes Scott College campus the student code of conduct provides a guideline to keep a community of peace. The Judicial Board is responsible for upholding the student code of conduct and enforcing sanctions on students that are in violation of the student code. The Judicial Board is a student run system.

The dean of students or the designee is the judicial adviser to the Judicial Board so that she may insure that procedures are followed. As adviser, they will have access to all information in Judicial Board investigations and cases. In judicial matters, the minutes of Judicial Board proceedings are to be kept confidential and cannot be used by students or any legal counsel. The minutes may be used by the Judicial Board president when presenting a case to Honor Court or the Judicial Review Committee. As with other college procedures, neither the college nor the student shall have attorneys or legal representation at any Judicial Board or Judicial Review Committee proceeding.

Any member of Judicial Board who has a personal interest or role in a potential or actual Judicial Board case must recues herself from the proceedings related to that particular case.

President: Officiate Judicial Board hearings. Assigns a Judicial Board member to investigate cases.

Vice President: Notify students of the charges against her and hearing dates. As well as notify the students of final decision and the student’s responsibility of any sentence as a result of the hearing.

Secretary: Record meetings and trainings of the Judicial Board and relate those minutes to each of the board members and Judicial Board advisor weekly.

Treasurer: Responsible for budget and monetary exchanges for the Judicial Board

- Year Representative (2)
- Sophomore Representative (2)
- Junior Representative (2)
- Senior Representative (2)

*each board member petitions for their desired position and the student body will vote to appointment members of Judicial Board, majority vote wins.

Judicial Powers: General Residence Life Regulations

The Judicial Board sees all cases that are in violation of Residence Life regulations and non-academic violations of the student code of conduct.

Residential students are advised of residence hall regulations upon enrollment. Judicial Board constitutes the court of primary jurisdiction in matters relating to residence life, including actions that jeopardize the safety and property of others. Areas under Judicial Board’s aegis are listed below. Details of policies and regulations for each item are given in the RESIDENCE LIFE section of this handbook or in the housing contract.

How to Report a Judicial Board Case

1. In most cases RAs are responsible for filing an Incident Report against students that violate Student Code of Conduct regulations within the resident halls.
   a. If a student is witness to another student violation of the Student Code of Conduct she must inform that student that she has 24 hours to report herself.
   b. The student may notify any RA of the violation if she is not comfortable with confronting another student or report an incident directly to Judicial Board President.
   c. If a student witnesses a Residence Life staff member (resident assistant or senior resident assistant) violating the Student Code of Conduct she may report the violation to a Graduate Hall Director or the Director of Residence Life.

Judicial Board Procedures

1. Initiating Residence Hall Judicial Cases
   A. Once a complaint is submitted and a violation of the student code of conduct has been determined an investigation takes place
      1. The president of Judicial Board or the appointed designee investigates each case thoroughly before charging a student and bringing her before the court.
         a. Such an investigation may include meetings of the president with others connected with the case (e.g. the appropriate dean, residence life staff, witnesses, etc.). The investigative process may continue after the student has been officially charged.
      2. Two members of Judicial Board must be present when discussing the case and/or questioning the students involved.
   B. After conducting an investigation, members of the board will present that student with a written copy of the charges being filed against her.
   C. The student being charged or the accused will be told by a Judicial Board representative that she has at least 48 hours to prepare for an appearance before the Judicial Board.
      1. The student may waive the time element and request an early hearing before Judicial Board.
   D. The accused student may submit a prepared written statement to be read at the meeting of the board in her presence or absence.
1. It is highly recommended that the student being charged with a violation of the Student Code of Conduct present her case at the time designated by the Judicial Board president.

E. If a student is unable to attend her scheduled case, she must submit an excuse in writing to the president of Judicial Board within 24 hours of notification of her case.

1. Failure to attend a case without a proper excuse and/or advance notice will result in the case being heard in abstention. The accused student will be notified about the decision of Judicial Board after their case is heard in their absence.

   a. A proper excuse is reasons of illness, class, family emergency, etc.

F. The accused student has the privilege of bringing to the Judicial Board witness/es who may contribute pertinent information to the case. The accused must notify the president of the Judicial Board of the witnesses she wishes to be called.

1. It then becomes the responsibility of the president of Judicial Board to contact and question the witnesses. (Once the witness has begun contact with the president of Judicial Board, discussion of information pertaining to the case must remain confidential.)

Privacy is of the utmost importance in every case. The student does not have the right to know the name of any person involved as a witness in the case. At the same time, the student also has a right to privacy. Her case should not be mentioned by any member of the Judicial Board at any time. No one on campus should be informed that there is to be a case and the case itself should take place in a private location where the proceedings are not likely to be seen. The Judicial Case room is available for cases. The outcome of the case should not be discussed with anyone, other than the student involved.

2. Judicial Process

   A. All cases are heard by the Judicial Board.

   1. Judicial Board has primary jurisdiction in cases involving the alcohol policy, smoking policy, visitation and general residence hall regulations. Judicial Board reserves the right to hear and sanction a case if a student refuses to meet with a Judicial Representative for an investigation or if they refuse to appear before the board. Judicial Board reserves the right to refer a case to Honor Court.

   B. A student may appeal any decision made by Judicial Board or an automatic penalty as listed in the section regarding general residence hall regulations and/or SGA Constitution to Judicial Board.

   1. The student should notify the president of Judicial Board of her intention to appeal within 48 hours after the penalty has been given.

C. The president of Judicial Board will assign two Judicial Board members to investigate the case.

1. The president then presents the case to the Judicial Board.

2. A nonmember of Judicial Board, such as a witness, may present the case; however, she may not remain at the meeting after her presentation.

D. The student being charged with an offense may appear before Judicial Board to answer questions. The case is heard at the next meeting following the investigation, unless less than two days has elapsed to prepare the case or extenuating circumstances necessitates postponement.

1. Then, the case is postponed by the Judicial Board president.

E. Judicial Board must have a quorum of eight members to impose a penalty.
1. A simple majority vote is sufficient to impose all penalties except disciplinary probation.
2. A two-thirds majority vote of the Judicial Board members hearing the case is required to impose disciplinary probation.
3. Each component of the penalty must be voted on individually.

F. The Judicial Board vice president shall present precedent cases for the purpose of suggestion only.
1. A penalty is considered for the individual case and not imposed according to precedent.

G. The Judicial Board president has no vote except in the event of a tie.

H. A student may appeal a decision of the Judicial Board to Honor Court,
1. The student must notify the president of Judicial Board of her intention to appeal fewer than 48 hours after her case has been decided.
2. The student must file a written statement of her intention to appeal to the president of Honor Court fewer than 72 hours after her case has been decided.

I. Violations involving Judicial Board occurring during exam week will be held over to the next term.
1. If the violation occurs during spring semester exam week, written statements will be held by the president of Judicial Board until the fall term.
2. If the violation occurs during fall semester exam week, written statements will be held by the president of Judicial Board until the spring term.

J. Judicial Board’s verdict in the case and any imposed sanction should be written down by the president of Judicial Board and delivered to the student’s mailbox by the Judicial Board representative fewer than 48 hours of completion of the hearing.
1. The student will also be notified electronically through email and will receive a letter in their student mailbox of the decision from a Judicial Board representative.
2. In the case of a verdict resulting as ‘responsible,’ the written decision of Judicial Board will inform the student of her right to appeal any Judicial Board decision to Honor Court.

K. Minutes from all cases should be typed by the secretary of Judicial Board and submitted within 48 hours to the president of Judicial Board and the Judicial Board advisor.
1. The minutes of Judicial Board proceedings are kept confidential and cannot be used by students or any legal council.
2. The minutes may be used by the Judicial Board president when presenting a case to Honor Court.
3. As with other college procedures, neither the college nor the student shall have attorneys or legal representation at any Judicial Board, Honor Court or Judicial Review Committee proceeding.

L. When a case sanction is lead to require disciplinary probation the President of the Judicial Board is to inform the President of Honor Court and further actions will be determined through an Honor Court hearing.

3. Meeting Guidelines
Each and every member of the Judicial Board should maintain a professional and courteous attitude during the proceedings.

A. Once the Judicial Board gathers in the appointed place and the background of the case has been discussed, the student should be called to come to the meeting place.

   1. Refrain from personal conversation or unprofessional actions during the case. At no time should the case be interrupted.

   2. When the student enters, each member of the Judicial Board should be introduced by the president of Judicial Board.

   3. The accused student will have an opportunity to present her case at this time. The Judicial Board will listen objectively to the accused student’s reclamation of events.

B. After she states her case, the student may be questioned by the Judicial Board.

   1. However, questions should only clarify her testimony, not lead the student to change her story.

   2. The student should then be asked where the Judicial Board will be able to contact her so they may let her know the verdict as soon as it has been decided.

   3. After the student has testified, been questioned, told the Board where she can be reached and left the case hearing, any witnesses should be called and the same procedure repeated.

   4. Witnesses should always be called individually and only after the student has stated her story.

   5. At the completion of all testimony from witnesses, the accused student may be recalled to clarify or answer questions.

C. Once all testimony is complete, the board should decide if the accused student/s is responsible or not responsible

   1. If found responsible the Judicial Board will decide on a sanction (if any) based on the nature and seriousness of the offense, the cooperation of the person accused, and the testimony involved.

   2. The sanction should be adequate for the offense and consistent with other decisions that have been rendered.

Judicial Board Penalties

1. Sanctions

   Sanctions are determined by the Judicial Board based upon each case. There are set standard sanctions that the Judicial Board will use and refer to when making decisions regarding the sanction for the case. At the discretion of the president or advisor of Judicial Board, violations, which are clear-cut, may result in automatic sanctions. Autosanctions for breaking the alcohol policy are outlined in section 5 under Penalties for violation of the Alcohol Policy. Autosanctions may also be imposed for other community/residence life regulations, e.g. visitation and smoking, especially for first offenses. Autosanctions will be used when a Judicial Board member or a member of residence life, such as an RA or SRA, sees an obvious violation of school policies regarding alcohol, parietales, smoking, kitchen disruption or other violations.

2. Warning File
With this penalty, a student’s name may be placed on an active warning file. The length of the active warning file period is determined by Judicial Board. If the student violates the Honor System or any other college rules and regulations during this active period, her previous case may be referred to as evidence for the necessity of more serious action. Following the duration of the active period, her record may be reviewed at the Judicial Board’s discretion. Students will be notified when their names are placed on warning file. A student will receive a letter from the president of Judicial Board explaining the violation and that their name will be placed on warning file.

3. Disciplinary Probation for Violation of Social Regulations

Given for major or flagrant violation of social regulations, this penalty is recommended by Judicial Board to Honor Court, which will subsequently follow all Honor Court procedures. Judicial Review Committee is notified of the imposed sentence. With this penalty, notification automatically goes to the student from the president of Honor Court and to the parents from the president of the college or the Judicial Review Committee. If the student violates the Honor System, or any other college rules and regulations during the active period of her probation, her previous case may be reviewed as evidence for the necessity of more serious action. Social regulations are defined as those rules and policies that pertain to daily life at Agnes Scott College outside the academic and/or classroom arena and as defined in this handbook.

4. Penalties for Violation of the Alcohol Policy*

Judicial Board has first jurisdiction over cases that result from violation of the alcohol policy. Each alcohol sanction includes but are not limited to the following sanctions.

a. First violation: $50-$100 fine; 10-15 hours community service depending on the severity of the offense; and a written 250-word essay of the Judicial Board’s choosing. The essay must be turned in within 30 days and carbon copied (cc’ed) to the Judicial Board’s adviser.

b. Second violation: $100-$300 fine; 15-30 hours of community service depending on the severity of the case; a recommendation for referral for alcohol awareness course with Health Services or an outside facility.

c. Third violation: $300-$500 fine; 30+ hours community service; recommendation for a referral for an alcohol assessment. Depending upon the severity of the incident(s), Judicial Board may also present the case to Honor Court with the recommendation of suspension or expulsion for the third or additional violation(s) of the alcohol policy.

At the discretion of the Judicial Board members, additional sanctions may be implemented based on the severity of the case. After three or more violations of the alcohol policy, depending upon the severity of the incidents, Judicial Board may present the case to Honor Court with the recommendation of suspension or expulsion.

5. Penalties for Violation of the Smoking Policy*

a. First Offense: The student must fill a standard size (roughly 16 oz.) water bottle with cigarette butts discarded on the ground around campus. The Judicial Board president will provide a water bottle and gloves for the student to use.

b. Second Offense: Judicial Board members will determine appropriate community service based upon the student’s case.

6. Penalties for Violation of the Visitation Policy*

a. First Offense: The Judicial Board members will determine the length of time a student will lose visitation privileges based upon each case. During this time, the student may have no off- campus guests (male or female) in the residence hall nor can they have another student sign in guests for her. Residence life staff will be alerted about the loss of visitation.

b. Second Offense: The student will lose visitation for up to one semester (16 weeks). Judicial Board members may determine the length of time a student will lose visitation privileges based upon the case.

7. Penalties for Violation of the Kitchen Policy Including Food Theft*

a. First Offense: At the discretion of residence life and Judicial Board, kitchens found to be unclean may be closed for set period of time. The residence life staff will post signs alerting residents to the closure 24 hours before closing. During this time, the refrigerator will be cleaned out and all food will be removed, no kitchen appliances may be used and no one is to enter the kitchen area.

*While these are possible sanction for various violations, the Judicial Board is not limited to the sanctions and makes decisions on a case by case basis.

All Judicial Board penalties described in this section are applicable to all members of the board. Additionally, any board member, excluding the president, found responsible for a Judicial Board violation may be dismissed from office at the discretion of the board. Cases against the president will be turned over to Honor Court by the vice president of Judicial Board.

Judicial Board Penalty Procedures

Cases are directed to Honor Court by Judicial Board only when flagrant disregard of regulations indicates attention by a higher court is warranted. Within certain prescribed boundaries, Judicial Board reserves the right to determine the best judicial path and procedure for each case based on the degree of severity and/or recurrence of the violation in question.

Judicial Review Committee

Judicial Review Committee Members:

Elizabeth Kiss, chair (president of the college)
Kerry Pannell, interim vice president for academic affairs and dean of the college (IVPAA)
Donna A. Lee, vice president for student life and dean of students (VPSL)
Gail Meis, registrar
President of Student Government Association (SGA): Chinenyenwa Okoye
President of Student Senate: Tayla Burnett
President of Honor Court: Connor Day
Four faculty members: Carrie Brown, Jenny Hughes, Dudley Sanders, Jason Solomon

Each committee member may have a designee in the event the member is not available to attend a meeting. These designees will be identified at the start of each academic year and will participate in the committee’s annual orientation and training. In the event the chair is not available for a meeting, the VPAA will chair the meeting.

Ex officio members (as provided in the Student Complaint Policy):
Chair of FEC (Faculty Executive Committee) and director of human resources, when a faculty or staff member is the subject of a formal written student complaint referred to Judicial Review Committee in accordance with the Student Complaint Policy.

Given the responsibility of:

1. Reviewing and acting on recommendations of Student Senate which affect the powers and philosophy of student government or pertain to major regulations concerning student welfare

2. Recommending to the vice president for academic affairs that a student who has not met academic standards of the college be dismissed at the end of the semester. In these cases, student members are not present at the meetings and the quorum is reduced to five out of eight members

3. Acting upon the recommendation of the Honor Court that a student be placed on disciplinary probation for violation of academic regulations

4. Acting upon the recommendation of the Honor Court that a student receive disciplinary suspension or dismissal for violation of social or academic regulations

5. Acting as the court of final appeal for Honor Court decisions and/or penalties; or, when a student appeals an Honor Court decision and/or penalty to the student body, acting as the court of final review of the case, its appeal and the student body’s judgment

6. Requiring the withdrawal of any student whose presence is thought to be injurious to the interest of the college community; or imposing the penalty of administrative probation, suspension or dismissal in situations involving a student’s failure to meet the standards or expectations of the college community

7. Assuming original jurisdiction in a disciplinary action upon the recommendation of the VPSL.

8. Assuming original jurisdiction in a disciplinary action at a time when no quorum of Honor Court nor the president of SGA nor the president of Honor Court is readily available (NOTE: When the college is not in session and/or no quorum of Honor Court or Judicial Review Committee is present, the president of the college will consult with the VPAA and/or the VPSL to form a sub-committee of Judicial Review to assume original jurisdiction for an alleged violation of the Honor Code. The president of the college or VPAA or VPSL will appoint in equal numbers students, faculty and administrators who presently serve on Judicial Review or who have previously served on Judicial Review to the sub-committee.

9. Acting upon a formal written student complaint appealed to the committee by an individual directly involved in the original complaint or referred to the committee by a vice president as provided in the Student Complaint Policy.

10. Acting upon a formal written report from the VPAA to hear cases involving disruptive classroom behavior.

11. To act upon the recommendation of a faculty member that a student not receive Latin honors despite having met the minimum GPA requirement.

The Judicial Review Committee will convene annually, following student leader and faculty elections, to orient new members and review its policies and processes, updating them as appropriate.

Reviews by and Appeals to the Judicial Review Committee

Reviews: The Judicial Review Committee has the responsibility of acting upon the recommendations of the Honor Court with regard to students being:

1. Placed on disciplinary probation for violation of academic regulations.
2. Given disciplinary suspension for violation of social or academic regulations.
3. Given disciplinary dismissal for violation of social or academic regulations.
4. Given alternative disciplinary action outside the “Honor Court Penalties” as described in the JUDICIAL BODIES section of this handbook.

When one of the above penalties is recommended by Honor Court and the student does not seek an appeal, the Judicial Review Committee will review the case with subsequent approval, disapproval or modification of the penalty and enforcement by the committee. In this event, the judgment of the Judicial Review Committee is final.

Appeals: A student may appeal a decision of any judiciary body only once and only to the next higher court. Declaration for, or against, an appeal must be made in writing to the presiding officer of the court whose decision is being appealed within 48 hours after being informed of that court’s decision.

Any student found responsible by Honor Court has the right to appeal the court’s decision to the student body or Judicial Review Committee.

In all cases, the Judicial Review Committee is the court of final jurisdiction.

Appeals to the Student Body: If the student chooses to appeal to the student body (see “Appeals to the Association”), and the original verdict and penalty would have gone before Judicial Review for final review. Subsequently, Judicial Review Committee has the right to approve, disapprove or modify the verdict and/or penalty and is responsible for enforcing its decision. At this point, the judgment of the Judicial Review Committee is final.

Appeals to Judicial Review Committee:

1. The student sends a written statement of appeal to the president of the college within 72 hours of receiving the decision from Honor Court. The letter should include her intention to appeal the verdict and/or the penalty. In exceptional circumstances, faculty appeals of Honor Court findings are heard by the committee.

2. The committee will convene to hear the case as expeditiously as possible; depending on committee members’ availability, the goal is to review all facts and circumstances relative to the case and schedule a meeting within ten business days.

3. The president of the college is the chair of the committee. The registrar takes minutes and maintains records of the meeting.

4. A quorum must be present to conduct any hearing. A quorum is defined as two-thirds of the membership. If a quorum of existing Judicial Review Committee members, to include their designees, is not present and cannot be obtained to hear a case or appeal, the president of the college has the authority to appoint temporary members to the Judicial Review Committee to hear the case or the appeal. Judicial Review meetings may be conducted by the use of teleconferencing. Teleconferencing may also be used to convene a quorum when the college is not in session or a quorum cannot be convened in any other way.

5. The meeting is closed except to members of the committee, those invited by the committee or the student who is appealing the decision. All materials and information, including minutes, case notes, and any other information related to the Judicial Review process are to be kept confidential by all involved and cannot be used by students or any legal counsel. As with other college procedures, neither the college nor the student shall have attorneys or legal representation at the hearing.

6. The president of Honor Court presents an overview of the case. As committee members have reviewed the facts surrounding the case prior to the hearing, the president of Honor Court should use not more than 10 minutes to present the case. The person who has requested the appeal must present his/her case. (In the event of extraordinary circumstances, the president of the college may excuse either person from testifying.) The charged student may bring no more than three supporters or witnesses to the hearing. Each of her supporters may speak for no more than five minutes in her defense. The committee may ask questions after each presentation. The committee reserves the right to call any of the participants back to the hearing for further questions.

7. The committee has the right to affirm or change the verdict. The committee may vote by secret ballot, with a majority required to affirm a finding of responsible. If the student is found by the committee to be responsible, then the penalty vote shall be taken.

8. The committee has the right to affirm or change the penalty. If the penalty is probation, suspension or dismissal, a majority is required to affirm or change the penalty. The committee may vote by secret ballot.

9. After the case has been heard and voted upon, the VPSL will communicate the decision to the student orally and a letter will follow from the president of the college to the student stating the judgment of the committee. If the sanction results in suspension or dismissal, a letter may also be sent to the student’s parents and/or guardians.

10. Any member of the committee involved in the case is required to recuse themselves from the case except for the president of Honor Court. Since she does not vote as a member of Honor Court during its deliberations, she is a voting member of Judicial Review Committee.

11. A careful digest of the salient facts of the hearings and the final disposition of the case shall be preserved in the minutes of the Judicial Review Committee. These minutes are stored in the Office of the Registrar and all other notes are shredded.

12. The judgment of the Judicial Review Committee is final.

Student Complaint Procedures

Agnes Scott strives to address student concerns in a responsive and prompt manner. Students are encouraged to resolve concerns themselves by first talking directly with the college representative involved. The vice president for student life and dean of students is available as a resource for students who have complaints.

Student complaints are defined as grievances or general dissatisfaction with the college and/or its employees.

Agnes Scott distinguishes between student complaints and student appeals of college policies and decisions. A student’s appeal, whether for an exception to a policy, a decision made by a judicial body, or a financial aid award, is not considered a student complaint. There are specific procedures in place for students who wish to make an appeal; these procedures vary according to the type of appeal. Information about appeal procedures can be found in the relevant sections of the Student Handbook and/or the Agnes Scott College Catalog.

Specific procedures for disputing final grades and reporting violations of the college’s sexual harassment and consensual relationship policies are also found in the Student Handbook.

In addition, there are multiple processes in place for students who have a complaint about another student. These include Honor Court, Judicial Board and mediation and conflict resolution processes available through the Office of Residence Life. Students seeking guidance on resolving a complaint against another student should contact the vice president for student life and dean of students.

The following procedures are to be followed for all other types of complaints.

I. Informal Complaint: A student who has a complaint about Agnes Scott and has not been able to resolve it by speaking with the individual(s) involved should discuss the issue with the college official responsible for that area of the college. The student should attempt to resolve the issue informally within 30 days of the occurrence. If the matter still cannot be resolved, then the student may file a formal written complaint.

II. Formal Complaint: A student who has attempted to resolve the issue through the informal complaint process and is still not satisfied may file a formal written complaint with the vice president for academic affairs and dean of the college or the vice president for student life and dean of students. This should be done as soon as possible after the informal process is completed, but within six months of the occurrence. The student must complete the Student Complaint Form, which is available in the Office of the Vice President for Student Life, in the Office of Academic Advising and on the college’s website. If the complaint is about a vice president of the college, the student should file the complaint with the Office of the President. If the complaint is about the president of the college, the student is advised to speak with the vice president for student life or the student may file a formal written complaint by submitting the complaint form to the secretary of the board in a sealed envelope addressed to the Chair of the Board of Trustees.

III. Procedures for resolution of formal written complaints:

a. Depending on the nature of the formal complaint, the Office of the Vice President for Student Life, the Office of Academic Advising or the Office of the President will log the formal complaint and send it to the appropriate officer of the college for resolution.

b. The officer (or her or his designee) will review the written complaint and respond to the student within 10 business days while the college is in session.

c. If the complaint involves a specific staff or faculty member’s action, the officer should consult with the director of human resources for guidance. The officer will also inform any named staff or faculty member upon receipt of a formal complaint, which names that person. Depending on the nature of the complaint, the officer may call together all involved parties, mediate the situation and find a reasonable solution. If no resolution is found or the resolution is unsatisfactory to any party, the student or an individual directly involved in the dispute may petition in writing to the Judicial Review Committee within 72 hours of the attempt to mediate and settle the matter. An officer can also send the complaint directly to the Judicial Review Committee, if she or he chooses in lieu of mediation.

The Judicial Review Committee has 30 days to hear each side of the dispute and render a decision. If a specific staff or faculty member’s action is in question, the director of human resources will be an ex officio member of the Judicial Review Committee. Additionally, if a faculty member’s action is in question, the president of the Faculty Executive Committee will also be an ex officio member. The committee will announce its findings and recommendations in writing to all parties involved. Deliberations of the Judicial Review Committee are confidential. Current procedures of Judicial Review Committee will be followed; no legal representation or recording devices will be permitted at committee meetings. The committee’s decision is final. All parties are expected to respect the confidentiality of the committee’s decision.
The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 affords students certain rights with respect to educational records. Agnes Scott defines a person as a student once the person applies and enrolls and the file is passed from the Office of Enrollment Services to the Office of the Registrar. These rights include:

1. The right to inspect and review the student’s education records within 45 days of the day Agnes Scott receives a request for access.

Students should submit to the registrar, dean, head of the academic department or other appropriate official, written requests that identify the record(s) they wish to inspect. The Agnes Scott official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the Agnes Scott official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.

A student does not have the right to inspect and review these education records:

• Financial records, including any information those records contain, of their parents.

• Confidential letters and confidential statements of recommendation placed in the education records of the student before Jan. 1, 1975, as long as the statements are used only for the purposes they were specifically intended.

• Confidential letters and confidential statements of recommendation placed in the student’s education records after Jan. 1, 1975, if:

  - The student voluntarily signed a waiver of right to inspect and review those letters and statements.

  - Those letters and statements are related to the student’s.

  - Admission to an educational institution.

  - Application for employment.

  - Receipt of an honor or honorary recognition.

2. The right to request amendment of the student’s education records the student believes are inaccurate or misleading.

To amend a record she believes is inaccurate or misleading, the student should write the Agnes Scott official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record she wants changed and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. If Agnes Scott decides not to amend the record as requested, the college will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of her right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

3. The right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student’s education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosures without consent.

One exception permitted without consent is disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by Agnes Scott in an administrative, supervisory, academic, research or support-staff position (including law enforcement personnel and health staff); a person or company with whom Agnes Scott has contracted (such as an attorney, auditor or collection agent); a person serving on the Agnes Scott College Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks.
A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an educational record to fulfill his or her professional responsibility. Upon request, Agnes Scott discloses education records without consent to officials of another school in which a student seeks or intends to enroll.

4. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Agnes Scott to comply with the requirements of FERPA.

The office that administers FERPA is:
Family Policy Compliance Office
Department of Education
600 Independence Ave. S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20202-4605

Certain information is considered public and is released by Agnes Scott at its discretion. In accordance with FERPA, Agnes Scott has designated the following as “directory information” that may be released without the student’s consent:

- Name
- Local address
- Local telephone number
- Cell phone number
- Identification photograph
- Major field of study
- Dates of attendance
- Participation in officially recognized activities and sports
- Most recent previous educational agency or institution attended
- Home address
- Home telephone number
- Campus email address
- Date and place of birth
- Enrollment status
- Degrees and awards received (including honor rolls)

Students may withhold disclosure of directory information. Written notification must be filed with the registrar within 10 days after the first day of classes for each semester. Request for nondisclosure will be honored by the college for only one academic year; therefore, authorization to withhold directory information must be filed annually.

Failure by a student to specifically request withholding of information indicates approval for disclosure.

Student Right to Know Act

In compliance with the Student Right-to-Know Act, graduation rates for Agnes Scott College are available on the Web at http://www.agnesscott.edu/registrar/index.html.

Academic Freedom & Responsibility

Agnes Scott is dedicated to the fostering and preservation of the free search for truth and of its free exposition. Academic freedom is essential to this purpose: freedom in research is necessary to the advancement of truth; freedom in teaching is fundamental to the protection of the rights of the teacher in teaching and of the student in learning. The free search for truth and its free expression carry with them responsibilities correlative with rights.

All components of the Agnes Scott community have the responsibility to exemplify, support and preserve the intellectual freedom of teaching, learning, research, expression and debate in the interest of reasoned inquiry. This responsibility imposes on the students, the faculty, administrative officials and the Board of Trustees the obligation to respect the dignity of others, to acknowledge their right to express differing opinions and to foster and defend intellectual honesty, freedom of inquiry and instruction and free expression by faculty and students both on and off campus.

Every member of the Agnes Scott faculty, whether tenured or on temporary appointment, is entitled to full freedom in research and scholarship and in the publication of the results. Research for pecuniary return, however, should be undertaken only with the consent of the president and the dean of the college. Every member of the Agnes Scott faculty, whether tenured or on temporary appointment, is entitled to full freedom in the classroom to discuss any matter relevant to the subject of the course being taught.

It is the mastery of the subject which entitles the instructor to this freedom of presentation and it is improper and in extreme cases may be a denial of the students’ freedom to learn, for an instructor persistently to introduce material into the course which has no relevance to the subject or to fail to present the subject matter of the course as it has been approved by the faculty in its collective responsibility for the curriculum. It is the responsibility of the instructor in the classroom and in conference to encourage free discussion, inquiry and expression. Evaluation of a student’s work and the award of credit must be based on her academic performance professionally judged and not on matters irrelevant to that performance.

Every member of the Agnes Scott faculty, whether tenured or on temporary appointment, has the rights and obligations of any citizen and there shall be no institutional censorship or discipline of a faculty member who speaks or writes as a citizen. However, as a member of the academic profession and as an officer of Agnes Scott, the faculty members hold a special position of influence in the community and should make every effort at all times to be accurate, to exercise appropriate restraint, to show respect for the opinions of others and make clear that he or she is not a spokesperson for the college.

The students of Agnes Scott are entitled to an atmosphere conducive to learning and to fair and evenhanded treatment in all aspects of teacher-student and administrator-student relationships. A student must be free to take reasoned exception to the data or views offered in any course of study, but she is responsible for learning the content of any course for which she is enrolled and for maintaining standards of academic performance established for that course. The student shall be protected against prejudiced or capricious academic evaluations or disciplinary measures and against any exploitation by faculty and administrative officials for personal advantage. As a citizen, the student has the same rights and obligations of any citizen and there shall be no institutional censorship or discipline of a student who speaks or writes as a citizen. However, it is the responsibility of the student to make clear to the academic community and to the larger community that she is not a spokesperson for the college.

In determining the administrative policies and procedures of the college it is the responsibility of administrative officials and the Board of Trustees to foster and preserve the academic freedom of faculty, students and administrative officers with faculty status. For many years the Board of Trustees has endorsed the policy of granting permanent or continuous tenure to full-time teaching faculty who have satisfactorily completed a probationary period of teaching. Tenure, which gives a degree of economic and professional security to the individual faculty member and stability to the faculty as a whole, is one of the most effective means of fostering and protecting academic freedom. The policy of granting tenure also creates a climate of free inquiry and expression in which students and non-tenured faculty may share academic freedom equally with tenured faculty. The Board of Trustees and the college’s administrative officials and faculty support the continued policy of tenure as a means of protecting academic freedom.

The Board of Trustees and administrative officials have a particular responsibility to foster and preserve the freedom of expression and debate outside the classroom. The right of duly authorized committees and academic departments to invite to the campus guest lecturers, performers or exhibitors of their choice shall be preserved and guest speakers shall be given the opportunity to be heard and their freedom of speech shall be protected. The student press shall be free of censorship and advance approval of copy. Its editors and managers free to develop their own editorial policies and news coverage, so long as student editors and managers fully accept the responsibility to be governed by the canons of responsible journalism, such as the avoidance of libel, undocumented allegations, attacks on personal integrity and the techniques of harassment and innuendo. While the charter of the college states that the program of the college shall be carried out “under auspices distinctly favorable” to the Christian faith, no limitations of academic freedom are thereby intended.

Agnes Scott College can successfully foster and preserve the free search for truth and its free exposition by the affirmation and exercise of academic freedom and responsibilities by all members of the college community.

Adopted by the faculty of Agnes Scott College
March 5, 1976
Amended by the faculty
September 17, 1976
Approved by the Board of Trustees
May 4, 1976

Academic Rights & Responsibilities

All members of the academic community at Agnes Scott have a responsibility to promote an environment conducive to learning based on principles of respect, open communication, freedom of inquiry and nondiscrimination. These principles and practices are affirmed by the students, faculty and administrators of the college in the Statement on Academic Freedom and Responsibilities (SAFR) and Academic Regulations (AR).

Principles

1. All members of the Agnes Scott community have the responsibility to treat each other with respect and to be fair and evenhanded in their treatment of others (SAFR).

2. The students and faculty of Agnes Scott are entitled to an atmosphere conducive to learning (SAFR).

3. Students, faculty and administrators have the right to express divergent opinions, interpretations and beliefs without fear of reprisal. Variety of interpretation includes, but is not limited to, interpretations based on race, gender, class, age, national origin, sexual orientation, religion and disability (SAFR).
4. Students and faculty should strive to create a classroom environment free of discrimination on the basis of race, gender, class, age, national origin, sexual orientation, religion or disability (Statement Against Discrimination and Harassment).

5. Student performance should be evaluated solely on an academic basis, not on opinions or conduct in matters unrelated to academic standards (SAFR).

6. Information about student views, beliefs, practices and associations which administrators and professors acquire in the course of their work should be protected against improper disclosure.

Practices

1. Students and faculty have a responsibility to be present and prepared for all class meetings. Faculty are responsible for managing class time to maximize learning (AR).

2. Faculty are responsible for providing a clear syllabus that sets forth course policies and goals. The syllabus must also include faculty office hours, absence policy and procedures and an explanation of the grading system. Faculty are also responsible for giving timely notice to students of any substantial deviation from the syllabus during the course of the semester (AR).

3. Students are responsible for completing assignments on time and faculty are responsible for returning written work in a timely manner. Professors have the responsibility to read work carefully and to be available to discuss a student’s work and its evaluation (AR).

4. Students may see their final examinations upon request and review them with their professors through the end of the next academic semester.

5. Students shall have an opportunity to evaluate their courses.

6. Students have the responsibility to follow the Honor Code in all academic endeavors, including take-home tests, examinations and collaborative and pledged work. Faculty have the responsibility to refer cases of academic dishonesty, including plagiarism and cheating, to Honor Court (AR).

Academic Work

1. Honor & Pledge

a. The success of the Honor System depends on the student’s responsibility to the Honor Code and on her knowledge of academic regulations. Living in the Agnes Scott community, a student is on her honor not to ask for or give any information before or after she has completed a graded assignment or taken an examination.

   b. On any graded homework, paper, quiz, test or exam, each student must write the word “pledged” and sign her name to signify that she has neither given nor received aid on the assignment.

   c. Students should consult their instructor or a member of the Honor Court when they are not sure if an intended action regarding preparation of work is in accordance with the Honor Code.

   d. Students who witness Honor Code infractions are reminded of dual responsibility. Your first responsibility as a witness is to encourage the violator to step forward of her own accord; if she refuses to do so, then in accordance with the Honor Code it is your responsibility to report the nature of the violation witnessed.

2. Tests, Oral Presentations & Labs

a. Tests are announced at least a week in advance. Attendance at these tests is mandatory. If a student, because of unavoidable circumstances, cannot be present for a test, lab or oral presentation at the appropriate time, permission to make up the test, lab or oral presentation at another time may be granted by the instructor in the course. A student who is permitted to take a makeup test should arrange to take the test at the convenience of the instructor.

b. No student is required to take more than two tests on one day provided she notifies the instructor at the time the third test is announced.

c. Time allotted for test periods should be equal for all students. So that no student will be given an unfair advantage over another, tests should be taken up by the instructor or turned in by the student no later than 10 minutes past the end of the class period in which the test is given.

d. Each student must indicate by the term “pledged” and her signature that she has neither given nor received aid on the test.

3. Take-Home Tests

a. Take-home tests are to be administered and taken with care and consistency. All take-home tests are to be given to students in sealed envelopes that are provided by faculty services and picked up and distributed by the professor. The envelope will be filled out by the professor and will indicate the name of the student, the professor’s name, the course number (i.e., English 110), the time limit and the date and time due (normally not to exceed seven days). Special instructions (including open book or other notations) will be included.

b. Students must return the test directly to the faculty member in class or by special arrangement with the instructor. Tests must be taken in one uninterrupted sitting unless otherwise noted in the special instructions. Tests must be pledged and may not be discussed with other students in the class until the professor notifies the class that discussion is permitted.

4. Discussion of Graded Assignments

To ensure that no student receives an unfair advantage on a makeup test or on a self-scheduled exam, no student should discuss a graded assignment, quiz, test or exam until the professor gives permission to do so. If she or he makes no comment one way or the other, students should assume they cannot discuss it. A student may not say how much time it took to take the test.

5. Submission of Course Work

It is the responsibility of the student to ensure that all papers are received by the faculty member before the appropriate deadline.

a. College policy on late written work

i. The grade on any late written work is automatically reduced by one-third of a letter for each day the paper is late, including Saturday and Sunday, unless an extension is granted by the instructor in the course in which the work was assigned. Individual instructors may choose not to accept late work at all or have a stricter penalty policy. Students should consult with their instructors for specific information.

ii. All written work of the semester must be completed by 9 a.m. of the second reading day of the semester unless an extension is granted by the instructor. Extensions may not extend beyond the final exam period. Therefore, no work will be accepted past 5 p.m. of the last day of final examinations without an authorized incomplete (See Policy on Incomplete Grades).

b. Use of the college fax

i. The college will not accept student coursework that has been transmitted by a facsimile machine. Original copies of work must be submitted to the faculty member by the student.

ii. If a paper must be sent to the college, it should be sent by express mail or courier service. Papers arriving by express mail or courier service after a deadline will not be accepted.

iii. Refer to “Campus Facilities: Building Access” in the INFORMATION RESOURCES section of this handbook for information regarding personal delivery of papers to faculty offices after hours. Students must discuss all such personal deliveries with their instructor in advance.

6. Preparation of Written Assignments

a. Plagiarism

Agnes Scott is an academic community and the identity of an academic community is rooted in intellectual honesty, a principle that fosters the free exchange of ideas and gives full credit to the originators of those ideas. Students become members of this community upon enrollment; their participation in class discussions and their fulfillment of all oral and written assignments teach them how to bear the responsibilities of membership. Writing papers, for example, is a valuable exercise in learning about the subject matter and in acknowledging the writer’s debt to those who have written or spoken on the subject before. In preparing written work properly with complete and accurate attention to documentation and other forms of acknowledgement, the students demonstrate their support of academic honesty and fulfill their responsibility as members of the community of scholars.

According to Webster’s Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary (1983), to plagiarize is “to steal and pass off the ideas and words of another as one’s own, to use a created production without crediting the source, to commit literary theft: [to] present as new or original an idea or product derived from an existing source.” In written work, plagiarism means taking another author’s ideas or ideas from a source that has no listed author (such as some websites) and copying them or rephrasing them in one’s own words without acknowledging the origins of those ideas. Omitting or “forgetting” to include parenthetical references or footnote numbers or failing to use quotation marks to set off borrowed words or phrases all constitute acts of plagiarism.

Copying from print or Internet sources without attribution is the most blatant kind of plagiarism. Some incidents of plagiarism arise from careless research and note-taking methods or from simple failure to learn the correct way to cite a source. While efforts are made in first-year English courses as well as most other courses to explain the relevant forms of documentation and the proper methods of citing sources, the student bears the responsibility for learning and using these methods. There are many ways to gain such knowledge. Instructors and Writing Center tutors are always ready to answer questions about documentation or to help the student find the answer. The college handbook, The St. Martin’s Handbook, offers extensive explanations and examples of a number of documentation styles and the library and the Center for Writing and Speaking have numerous references with detailed explanations and examples. “I forgot” or “I didn’t know” are not acceptable excuses for inaccurate written work that may be seen as plagiarized.

Plagiarism is contrary to the academic purposes of Agnes Scott. In her work, each student is to develop techniques of independent thought; research using another’s work as one’s own defeats the development of these techniques. Incidences of plagiarism fall within the jurisdiction of Honor Court pursuant to Article IV, Section 2.D.1.a of the Constitution of the Student Government Association and follow the procedures of Honor Court. In addition, under federal and state laws, plagiarism is illegal and punishable by either fine or imprisonment or both. Thus, plagiarism is a serious violation of the standard of our academic community and of governmental law.
Students found guilty of plagiarism are subject to suspension or dismissal. All penalties are discussed in the HONOR COURT section of this handbook.

b. Sources & Assistance

i. The principles of the Honor System as applied to the preparation of papers and the writing of computer programs are intended both to allow the student the necessary freedom in preparing her papers and to respect her desire to set forth her own ideas. The principles are interpreted to mean:

aa. That a student may freely discuss ideas with others, since discussion is a valuable stimulation to independent thought, but that a student must organize the material and express her ideas in the paper for herself; and,

bb. That in the use of sources a student should observe the recognized conventions of acknowledging by appropriate documentation the ideas, phrases and sentences borrowed from the sources used; and,

c. General Guidelines for Preparation of Papers

i. Each first-year student will be asked to purchase The St. Martin’s Handbook, which explains the procedures of documentation. Other departments (for example, psychology) may require their students to acquire other texts that explain the documentation procedures for that particular field of study. The faculty advises students not to sell these books at the end of the first year but to keep them for reference during all of their college careers.

Additional guidelines for preparation of papers may be found in the most recent edition of the Modern Language Association Handbook for Writing Research Papers (the MLA handbook). The MLA handbook is available at McCain Library for short-term loan only.
ii. Quotations and Paraphrases

Direct quotations should correspond exactly with the original in wording, spelling and interior punctuation and should be surrounded by quotation marks and followed by clear indication (parenthetical citation or footnote) of the original source. Indirect quotations or paraphrases that follow the meaning and structure of the original using different words do not need quotation marks but do need a parenthetical citation or a footnote indicating the original source. For a complete explanation of the complex rules and guidelines governing the use of sources, see the St. Martin’s Handbook or another reference work recommended by your instructor.

iii. Scientific Notation

In the departments of the natural and social sciences, a special form of scientific notation is used more frequently than the form described above. Students should consult their professors to find out the form of documentation preferred by that department before writing a paper.

iv. Each student should be sure she understands the assignment of her instructor before proceeding with the composition of her paper. Instructors may provide special instructions regarding the form and content of papers and the citation method used. Refer questions to your instructor.

7. Examinations

Agnes Scott students have the privilege of self-scheduled examinations. With few exceptions, students may take any examination they choose at any of the designated times within the week specified for semester examinations. The success of self-scheduled examinations depends on the student’s responsibility to the Honor System and on her knowledge of the exam regulations. Living in the Agnes Scott community, a student is on her honor not to ask for or give any information before or after she has taken an examination. This rule is in effect throughout the entire examination period and applies to all examinations, INCLUDING SCHEDULED EXAMS.

Generally, two or three exam periods are offered for several successive days at the end of each term. Two reading days (weekdays with no classes or activities) are scheduled prior to the first exam day. Students should not plan to leave campus prior to the end of the final exam period.

Students who have work-study duties to perform should meet with their immediate supervisors at least two weeks in advance of the examination period to discuss their work schedules during that time.

• Self-Scheduled Exams

Complete procedures for the administration of self-scheduled exams are sent by email prior to exam week; however, several important regulations apply to the examination period:

a. Restrictions regarding rooms to be used and personal property allowed in and near examination rooms apply.

i. Examinations are only to be taken in appropriately designated rooms. Open book/note rooms will be located on the ground floor of Buttrick and will be clearly marked. Closed note exams MUST be taken on the second floor in designated class-rooms only. If you are taking an open book/note exam or an exam with a calculator, take your books, notes and/or calculator into the exam distribution room when picking up your exam. Students must be thoughtful in leaving and entering the examination room throughout the examination period.

ii. NO BOOKS OR NOTES are allowed in Buttrick from 8 a.m. on the first day of exams in a semester until the completion day and time of all exams for that semester. The only exceptions are books/notes related to an open book/open note exam.

iii. Items prohibited in Buttrick during exams are: purses, backpacks, electronic/digital effects (i.e. cellular phones, pagers, PDAs, Blackberries, tape/CD players, iPods, cameras), food and, as mentioned above, books, notes, folders, etc. unless they are required for your exam. These personal belongings should be left in residence rooms, student lockers or cars. Students are encouraged to carry their keys with them at all times.

iv. Prohibited items found unattended in Buttrick will be collected by Honor Court and college administrators. Students will be notified of a place and time to retrieve their belongings. Students with prohibited items in Buttrick will receive an official warning from Honor Court. Second violations will result in an Honor Court case. If the student is found “responsible” for her actions, the sanction of proctored exams may be given.

b. Prior to the last week of classes, students must purchase exam envelopes with attached tracking cards from the campus bookstore. The Office of Academic Advising will email students the exact deadline for submitting exam envelopes to instructors.

i. A student must complete a separate envelope and attached tracking card for each course in which she has a self-scheduled examination. She must fill out the envelope and attached card without removing the card. She must submit at least one blue book (see section c. i below) inside the envelope. The exam envelope should be given to the course professor on the specified date prior to the examination period. It is the student’s responsibility to give the instructor an exam envelope for each of her finals. EXAM ENVELOPES MAY NOT BE USED TO SUBMIT PAPERS OR PROJECTS. All papers and assignments must be turned in directly to your instructor. Papers, assignments or projects in lieu of finals will not be accepted by staff members in the exam distribution room.

ii. Instructors will advise students when special conditions will apply to the examination (e.g. open-book or calculators permitted) and the bookstore clerk will place the appropriate stamp on the envelope.

c. All examinations must be taken in intact blue books. Blue books are composition books in which the written work for examinations is entered. They are available for purchase in the bookstore along with exam envelopes.

i. Students may include more than one blue book in an exam envelope if the nature of the test suggests more than one will be required. Additional blue books will be available for sale during the administration of exams.

ii. At the completion of an exam, students must be sure to sign the HONOR PLEDGE and place the copy of the exam questions, the blue book and all used scratch paper in the brown envelope. The student must seal the exam envelope before leaving the examination room and return it to the designated room in Buttrick.

d. For self-scheduled examinations, envelopes will be distributed at the beginning of examinations (9 a.m., 2 p.m. and 6 p.m.) from a room in Buttrick Hall, the exact location of which will be announced close to exam time.

i. Envelopes containing examinations will be divided alphabetically by the student’s last name and will be placed on tables and distributed by members of the faculty and staff.

ii. The examination period is considered to have begun at 15 minutes after the opening time.
of exam envelope distribution. However, a student may begin working on her exam as soon as she arrives in an acceptable exam room.

iii. If a student is late in picking up the examination, she will not be allowed extra time.

iv. A student may not study or talk after she has picked up her exam envelope. Where one may take books, blue books or notes while in Buttrick is severely restricted during exam time. Pay close attention to information provided by Honor Court and the academic advising office prior to exams for information regarding the use of these items in Buttrick.

e. Examinations are two and one-half hours long.

i. All examinations should be completed at noon, 5 p.m. or 9 p.m. Students are allowed 15 minutes after the bell at 11:45 a.m., 4:45 p.m. or 8:45 p.m. to return examinations to the designated room in Buttrick. Exams are late if they have not been turned in when the bell rings at noon, 5 p.m. or 9 p.m.

ii. If an exam is turned in at a time later than indicated, the grade on the exam will be lowered by one-third of a letter grade for every five minutes it is late. This penalty begins as soon as the second warning bells stops ringing (i.e., noon, 5 p.m. or 9 p.m.)

iii. If a copy of the examination inadvertently has been taken away from an examination room, the copy should be returned immediately to the director of academic advising, who will notify the Honor Court president.

f. If a student becomes ill while taking an exam, she must follow certain steps if she wishes to retake the exam without penalty.

i. If a boarding student becomes ill while taking an exam, she should notify a faculty member on duty of her illness and leave the partially completed exam with him or her. She must go to Wellness Center immediately.

ii. A commuting student who becomes ill during an exam should notify the faculty member of her illness and leave the partially completed exam with him or her.

g. If a student neglects to take a final examination during the regular period without excuse from the director or assistant director of academic advising, she receives an F (zero) on that examination. Since the instructor has the responsibility for determining the relative value of the final examination to other work of the course, the instructor determines whether to average the F (zero) with other grades in the course or to require the student to take the final examination before giving a final grade.

• Exceptions to Self-Scheduled Examinations

a. Paper/Assignment/Project in Lieu of an Exam: If a paper or other assignment/project is given in lieu of an examination, such papers, assignments or projects are due at the end of the last exam period. No papers, assignments or projects in lieu of a final may be submitted after 5 p.m. of the last exam period. All papers, assignments and/or projects must be turned in directly to the student’s instructor(s). Papers, assignments or projects in lieu of finals will not be accepted by staff members in the exam distribution room.

b. Exams for Large Classes: Examinations in classes where there are more than 40 students must be taken before specified dates which will be announced and posted. Students are responsible for reading the bulletin boards and for taking these examinations at the appropriate times.

c. Scheduled Exams: A few examinations are scheduled specially and must be taken at a particular time and in a particular place. A list of these courses and the dates of examinations will be posted in Buttrick lobby. Do not prepare an envelope for these courses. A student will be excused from a scheduled exam only if she is in the Wellness Center or if she has the permission of the director of academic advising.

• Any questions or problems about procedures arising during an exam period should be referred immediately to the director of academic advising.

If a student should find that she has failed to comply with any of these regulations, she should report this at once to the director of academic advising or to a member of the Honor Court. At all times, the student must consider her obligation to the Honor System and have consideration for her fellow students.

Grades

1. Grading Scale & GPA

Instructors set their own standards regarding the grading of class assignments. Students will be advised as to the point ratio used to determine the grade on particular assignments and the proportion of the final course grade determined by examination, participation and any other factors.

Agnes Scott uses a 4.0 grading scale and the grade point average is included on the student transcript. To calculate a GPA, multiply the value of the grade received (A=4 quality points per semester hour, A- = 3.67, B+= 3.33, B= 3, B- =2.67, C+ =2.33, C= 2, C- = 1.67, D+ = 1.33, D = 1, D- = .67, F = 0 and WF = 0) by the credit hours for the course. Then add up the total points and divide by the total credits (not including any course taken pass/fail). As an example:

<tr>
<th>Course</th>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Credits</th>
<th>Quality Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Course 1: A</td>
<td>4.0</td>
<td>16</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Course 2: B</td>
<td>3.0</td>
<td>9</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Course 3: C+</td>
<td>4.0</td>
<td>9.32</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Course 4: F</td>
<td>4.0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Totals:</td>
<td>15</td>
<td>34.32</td>
<td>2.288</td>
</tr>

Grades of I, P, W and MED (medical withdrawal) are excluded from GPA calculation. Grades in physical education courses are excluded from GPAs. Grades taken on a pass/fail basis are recorded as A, P or F (see explanation in the Pass/Fail Option section). A WF or F in a pass/fail academic course is included in GPA calculation. Only grades for courses taken at Agnes Scott are factored into a student’s GPA. Complete information about the college grading policy is included in the academic catalog.

2. Policy on Incomplete Grades

A student seeking an incomplete (I) must see the assistant dean of the college, who may authorize an incomplete in consultation with the instructor. An incomplete will be given only if the student has received a passing grade for completed course work. Deadlines for approved incompletes are set by the associate or assistant dean of the college according to individual circumstances but will not exceed 10 calendar days after the beginning of the subsequent semester. If work is not completed by the deadline, the incomplete automatically becomes an F. Only the associate or assistant dean of the college may grant incompletes.

3. Notification of Semester Grades

a. Grades are available online via AscAgnes: https://ascagnes.aggesscott.edu.
b. If a student is a dependent of her parents, the parents may request that grades be sent to them by notifying the registrar in writing and including a copy of their most recent federal tax return.

4. Academic Standing

Students may obtain their class rank, grade point average and number of hours completed by filling out transcript request forms available on AscAgness or in the Office of the Registrar. GPA and completed hours are also visible on AscAgnes. Transcript requests are processed within three to five business days after the request is filed. Refer also to “Student Status & Permanent Records” in the COLLEGE POLICIES section of this handbook.

5. Disputed Final Grades

See the COLLEGE POLICIES … ACADEMICS section of this handbook.

Grade Appeal Procedure

When a student has substantial grounds to dispute a final grade and is prepared to present evidence, she must initiate the procedure by voicing her complaint to the instructor no later than 30 days after the beginning of the next semester. If the matter is not resolved, the student may take the dispute to the department chair for mediation.

If the matter is still not resolved, she may refer the dispute to the vice president for academic affairs and dean of the college for further mediation. If the dean is unable to resolve the dispute, the student must refer the matter in writing to the Committee on Academic Standards and Admission. The committee’s decision is final.

Should a committee member be the faculty member involved in the dispute, the faculty member shall not be involved in the committee’s deliberations and shall not vote. The chair of the Faculty Executive Committee shall serve in his/her place.

Disruptive Classroom Behavior Policy

Classroom behavior is informed and governed by the Agnes Scott College Honor Code as well as two specific policies adopted by the faculty and appearing in the Student Handbook: the Statement on Academic Freedom & Responsibility and the Statement of Academic Rights & Responsibilities. While these two policies affirm the fundamental principles of freedom of speech, including controversial positions taken in the classroom, all types of speech and behavior must be balanced with principles of appropriate classroom behavior. It is ultimately the professor who controls the classroom, and if a professor believes the class is being disrupted, she or he has the right to ask a student to leave the class. Resolutions under this policy will be worked out in accordance with the Disruptive Classroom Behavior Procedure provided below.

What is Disruptive Behavior?

Behavior that prevents the professor from conducting the class, or other students from learning is disruptive.

Faculty Rights and Responsibilities

Agnes Scott respects the right of professors to teach and the right of students to learn. Protection of these rights requires classroom conditions that do not impede their exercise. To ensure these rights, faculty members have the responsibility:

• To establish and implement academic standards;
• To address students regarding problematic behavior, and articulate expectations;
• To involve other appropriate offices when a classroom disruption arises;
• To document any incidents and outcomes.

Documentation of Incidents and Outcomes

If an instructor judges that a student’s behavior materially and substantially disrupts the teaching and learning environment in the class, she or he may:

• Issue a warning
• Require the student to leave class
• Have security remove the student
• Readmit the student after the professor and student have met outside of class and reached a resolution

If the instructor elects not to readmit the student, the instructor will immediately notify the chair of her or his department and the associate dean of the college, and submit a written report of the incident and reasons for removal. After receipt of this report, and no later than three business days after the incident occurred, the associate dean of the college will (via e-mail and U.S. mail):

1. Provide the student with notice that (a) request for removal has been submitted to chair and associate dean and (b) student may not return to the classes in question until issue is resolved.
2. Include a written report of disruptive behavior and contact information for Judicial Review Committee.
3. Call a meeting of the JRC to hear the case.
4. Inform the student of JRC process and her right to appear and appeal removal.
5. Make all reasonable efforts to provide access to course materials, content and instruction while the case is being reviewed and heard by the JRC.

In response to this formal notification, the student may meet with the associate dean within five (5) working days from the date of the written notice to discuss options, and submit a written appeal to the JRC.

Upon hearing the case, the JRC will decide on a course of action, which may include the following:

1. To allow the student to return to course or courses, with or without conditions;
2. To allow or require the student to transfer to another course section or sections; or
3. To withdraw the student from the involved course or courses. The decision of the Judicial Review Board is final.

In response to the JRC decision, the associate dean will notify the Student of his/her decision via e-mail and U.S. mail (within 5 working days). If the decision is to withdraw the student, the associate dean will also:

1. Notify the Registrar in writing, and direct Registrar to withdraw student from course.
2. Notify the VPAA and Dean of Students of charges and action taken.

Attendance & Absences

Academic work is the heart of the college experience and academic success at Agnes Scott is directly related to class attendance. Attendance is part of the student’s overall responsibility and performance in a given course. Excessive absenteeism will interfere with the student’s ability to learn and may result in a lower final grade.

Individual faculty set attendance policies. Faculty provide students with a written statement of policies regarding absences at the beginning of the semester. Policies must not penalize students for absences from class prior to their registration for the course.

Policies should make reasonable accommodations for students who miss classes due to serious illness, death of an immediate family member, observance of religious holidays or participation in events or activities sponsored by the college. Faculty should indicate in their syllabi if they require advance notification of anticipated absences.

Instructors must delineate on the syllabus, which is made available at the beginning of the semester, any required course activities or events that take place outside of scheduled class time. Any course activities or events added to the syllabus after classes begin may be optional or recommended, but may not be required.

Extracurricular or extra-classroom activities that conflict with regularly scheduled classes may be optional or recommended, but may not be required.

It is the student’s responsibility to assess obligations for the semester as indicated on her course syllabi and determine her ability to meet course attendance requirements.

If a student becomes seriously ill, injured, hospitalized, or experiences an emergency that will require her to miss academic work, she should notify the Office of Academic Advising (404.471.6200) as soon as possible to inform the college of her situation. Students who are hospitalized should also contact the Office of the Dean of Students and schedule an appointment to meet with one of the associate deans of students returning to class. The student should provide a copy of her discharge summary at the before meeting.

A student on academic probation is permitted only one absence in each academic course that is not due to serious illness, death of an immediate family member, religious observance or any other reason deemed excusable by the instructor.

1. Administration of Regulations (Extensions and Appeals)
   a. Instructors shall provide students at the beginning of the term with a written explanation of class policies regarding absences, grades, late papers and missed tests, labs or oral presentations. Each instructor shall provide a statement of the goals and requirements for each course, the nature of the course content and the methods of evaluation to be employed. In unusual cases where a student feels uncomfortable discussing reasons for absences or requests for extensions with individual faculty members, the student may speak directly to the director or the assistant director of academic advising or to the vice president for student life and dean of students, who will then communicate with the student’s instructors. Decisions regarding extensions and penalties will still remain with the individual instructors.

   b. A student may appeal an instructor’s decision regarding absences, late written work or makeup tests, labs or oral presentations by first requesting mediation with the department chair. This request must be made within one week of the original decision. If the matter is still not resolved, the student may write an appeal to the dean of the college. The final appeals body is the Committee on Academic Standards and Admission. The committee, after consulting with the student and instructor concerned, will uphold or modify the original decision, generally at its next regular meeting.

2. The responsibility for work missed is entirely that of the individual student.
3. Leave of Absence and/or Withdrawal

On occasion, a student may choose to take a leave of absence or withdraw from the college.

Permanent Records and Student Status

All permanent records at Agnes Scott and all transcripts issued by the college shall carry a statement of the student’s graduation or a statement of the status of the student at the time of last attendance.

The definitions of student standing noted below are in accord with guidelines prepared by the National Center for Educational Statistics and the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers for the U.S. Department of Education.

a. Good standing signifies that the student is eligible to continue or to return; it signifies that the student is on neither academic nor disciplinary probation.

b. Probation is a middle status between good standing and suspension or dismissal. Probation covers a stated trial period during which it is determined whether the student is returned to good standing or is dismissed or suspended at the end of or during the probation period for failure to meet the requirements. Probation shall be noted as either academic or disciplinary.

Academic probation at Agnes Scott is imposed by the vice president of academic affairs on a student whose work is below minimum standards. A student on academic probation is placed on activity restriction and may not hold any elective or appointive office and may not participate with any non-credit performing group in any organized college activities except those activities that are associated with her academic program. In addition, a student on academic probation is permitted only one unexcused absence in each academic course even if she is in a course without an attendance requirement. Further absences may result in academic dismissal during the semester. The student may not participate in intercollegiate athletics and she is not eligible to participate in cross-registration. Any transcript issued during the period of probation will carry the notation of academic probation.

Disciplinary probation may be imposed by Judicial Board and by Honor Court for serious violations of social regulations. Disciplinary probations are also given for serious violations of academic regulations, in which case the probation is imposed by the Judicial Review Committee upon the recommendation of Honor Court. Any transcript issued during the period of probation will carry the notation of disciplinary probation.

c. Suspension is an involuntary separation of the student from the college; it implies and states a time limit when return will be possible. Suspension shall be noted as either academic or disciplinary. Suspensions at Agnes Scott are imposed by the Judicial Review Committee.

In the case of disciplinary suspension, the action is usually taken after a recommendation from the Honor Court. The terms of a suspension include a definite time limit and a definite date after which return to college will be possible. Any transcript issued during disciplinary suspension will carry the notation of disciplinary suspension.

d. Dismissal is an involuntary separation of the student from the college; it may or may not be permanent but does not project a definite time of eligibility to return. Dismissal shall be noted as either academic or disciplinary.

Dismissal is imposed by the Judicial Review Committee. In the case of disciplinary dismissal, this action is normally taken after a recommendation from Honor Court. Any transcript issued after dismissal will carry the notation of academic dismissal or disciplinary dismissal.
Leave of Absence

The purpose of a leave of absence is to allow a student a break in her studies without having to withdraw from the college and apply for readmission. A leave of absence form should be submitted to the Office of Academic Advising for approval before the start of the semester or semesters requested. Except under the most unusual circumstances, no requests for a leave of absence during a semester will be considered after classes have begun. A leave of absence may be for one or two semesters, with a maximum of two semesters during a student’s college career.

A student may request the assistant dean of the college extend her leave of absence from one semester to two semesters. A student whose leave of absence is approved must pay a nonrefundable $150 continuation fee. When she returns to the college, the fee will be applied toward her charges.

Students participating in approved study-abroad programs are considered to be making progress toward their Agnes Scott degree and are not considered on leave.

A student granted a leave of absence does not need to apply for readmission. By the deadline stated on the leave of absence request form, she should notify academic advising of her intent to return. A student who does not return within the time specified for her leave will be considered withdrawn and must apply for readmission.

A leave of absence may not be used to attend classes full time at another institution. If, for good reason, a student on leave wishes to take courses at another college or university, she should first consult with the assistant dean of the college, who will serve as her academic adviser during the leave. Except under special circumstances, strict limitations apply to the amount of academic credit that may be earned during a leave of absence: eight hours during a one-semester leave and 12 hours during a two-semester leave. If academic credit is attempted, a student must submit an official transcript to the college prior to returning. If a student is not in good standing at another institution, she must apply for readmission to Agnes Scott.

A student who wishes to withdraw must obtain a withdrawal form from the assistant dean of the college. Withdrawal is not official until the form has been signed by the assistant dean.

Withdrawal forms will not be signed while academic or disciplinary actions involving the student are in process. Withdrawals from the college with an effective date after the deadline to drop a course with a “W” grade will result in grades of “WF.” Grades of “WF” factor into the GPA the same as grades of “F.” In cases in which a student withdraws from the college after the deadline to withdraw with “W” grades and the student has documentation of a serious hardship or medical problem, she may appeal to a committee composed of staff from the academic affairs division. Appeals would need to be submitted before the last day of classes for that semester. If approved by this committee for an exception, the student would receive grades of “W” instead of “WF.” If requested, and documentation supports a medical cause for withdrawal, the committee may approve grades of “MED” for all courses instead of “W” or “WF.”

Refunds (General)

A refund refers to college charges that are refunded to the student and/or to the financial aid sources that covered those charges. Refunds are made within 30 days of the student’s withdrawal. Students who withdraw from Agnes Scott on or before the first class day of a semester will receive a full refund of any payment made toward tuition, room and board. No refund will be made of the $350 enrollment/$150 Re-registration deposit.
Agnes Scott’s institutional refund policy for tuition is:

- 90 percent tuition refund when withdrawal is within the first week of the semester;
- 50 percent tuition refund when withdrawal is before the end of the third week of the semester; and
- 25 percent tuition refund when withdrawal is before the end of the sixth week of the 35 Agnes Scott College Catalog 2012-2013 semester.

- No refunds after the end of the sixth week of the semester.

Agnes Scott’s institutional refund policy for room and board and mandatory fees is:

- No refund for room charges after the start of the semester;
- No refund on mandatory fees;
- Pro-rated refund on meal plans (board) on a weekly basis.

The date of withdrawal is the last date of class attendance. This is defined as the date when the student initiates the withdrawal process by requesting a withdrawal form from the Office of Academic Advising. The student must then complete the form, including all required signatures, within three business days after receiving the form. Withdrawal is complete when the completed form is submitted to the Office of Academic Advising.

The semester begins with the first day of class. The first week of the semester is the seven-day period beginning on the first day of class. The point of withdrawal is measured in weeks, and the student is considered to have withdrawn within a given week, as defined above, if the withdrawal date is prior to the end of that week.

For additional information, please refer to the college catalog “Tuition and Fees” section.

Advising

A key resource for students is an academic adviser. The Office of Academic Advising assigns each incoming student a faculty adviser to introduce her to the academic program and general degree requirements.

First-year adviser assignments remain until a student is ready to select a major during her sophomore year. At this time, a student must request a major adviser through the Office of Academic Advising.

The adviser assists students in making informed academic choices regarding courses, majors and career or graduate school options. The academic adviser provides consultation and approval of all decisions related to a student’s academic progression, including registration and schedule changes. The adviser provides ongoing guidance on campus resources to assist the student’s academic and personal growth.

- Office of Academic Advising

The Office of Academic Advising, located in 104B Buttrick Hall, supports the process of advising by assigning all students to faculty advisers, creating individualized advising files, facilitating adviser-training workshops and serving as a resource for advisers and students regarding academic standards, policies and procedures. In addition, the office provides support in the following areas:

- Student disability services
- Academic probation advising and support
- Approval of transient study
• Approval of special and independent studies
• Dual-degree programs with Emory University and the Georgia Institute of Technology and
• Year-Five Program

The office is also responsible for the administration of self-scheduled final examinations, the evaluation of all international transfer credit, academic exceptions including incompletes and the processing of leave of absence requests and withdrawals.

• Study Skills and Test-taking Strategies

Throughout the year, academic advising offers free workshops to enhance students’ overall academic success at Agnes Scott. Topics include effective note-taking strategies, time-management skills, and test-taking strategies. These workshops are often held during community hour when no classes are scheduled. Staff members in the Office of Academic Advising also meet in individual appointments to discuss study skills.

Cross-Registration

Agnes Scott is a member of the Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education (ARCHE), a consortium of the 19 institutions of higher education in the greater Atlanta area. Through the consortium, Agnes Scott students in good academic standing may enroll on a space-available basis in courses at any other member institution during fall or spring terms if that same course is not offered at Agnes Scott.

In addition, students from other member institutions may enroll in courses at Agnes Scott. Students may cross-register for a maximum of two courses per term and must be taking at least 1 class at Agnes Scott during that term to be eligible for cross-registration. Students may take a maximum of 18 semester hours through cross-registration while students at Agnes Scott. ARCHE policy prohibits a second-semester senior from participating in cross-registration (unless taking for elective credit only when all other graduation requirements will have been met by the end of the semester).

Grades for courses taken through cross-registration are not factored into a student’s GPA, but grades of A, B, C or D are accepted for credit hours. Only one specific or distributional or social and cultural analysis standard may be fulfilled by courses taken through cross-registration. (See the Transfer Credit section) Courses taken to satisfy the depth standard must be approved by the student’s adviser. Cross-registration courses may satisfy requirements for a minor if approved by the chair of the minor program.

Students enrolled in cross-registration courses are subject to the regulations of the institution where the course is taken, including deadlines for application, registration and withdrawing from a course. Students should apply to the Office of the Registrar for approval before the end of course selection for the semester in which they plan to enroll in cross-registration (around April 1 to apply to take fall courses and around November 1 to apply to take spring courses).

Graduation

Degrees are conferred three times a year in August, December and May. There is one commencement ceremony in May. A student must fulfill all graduation requirements to participate in commencement.

In unusual circumstances, a second-semester senior who is within eight credits of completing her degree requirements and who has a plan for successful completion by August or December may petition to participate in the commencement ceremony in May by submitting a written appeal to the Committee on Academic Standards and Admission. Such appeals will be considered only if the student has met all other degree requirements and has registered for those Agnes Scott summer school or fall courses that will allow her to complete her degree requirements by August or December, respectively. If the appeal is granted, the student will participate in commencement ceremonies, including walking in with her class and walking across the stage. On stage she will receive a diploma case containing a letter indicating that her degree will be conferred on her in August or December, following the completion of her remaining degree requirements.

Woodruff Scholars

Woodruff Scholars are usually older than the traditional age of college students and, with some exceptions, do not live on campus. These women come from all walks of life and many bring with them the assets of past college credit, work experience and/or parenting skills. Since women beyond the traditional age of most students first arrived in Agnes Scott’s classrooms in the mid-1970s, they have had a presence on campus. Woodruff Scholars meet the same high admission standards as traditional-age students at the college, but they are able to also contribute to the classroom the perspective gained from greater life experience.

Post-Baccalaureate Pre-Medical Program

The Post-Baccalaureate Pre-Medical Program is a coeducational 12 month program designed for students who have completed their baccalaureate degree in a non-science field and now wish to pursue a career in medicine. The curriculum includes 32 credit hours of undergraduate laboratory science courses needed for admission to medical school.

Applicants should demonstrate a high degree of motivation and commitment to the study of medicine. It is desirable for applicants to have some exposure in a medical setting, either as a volunteer or a professional. Specific academic policies and admission procedures for this program are available on the Agnes Scott website.

Students in the Post-Baccalaureate Pre-medical program are an important part of the college community and share with undergraduate students the privileges and responsibilities accorded to all students, with the exceptions of residence hall housing and participation in intercollegiate athletics. Post-baccalaureate students represent Agnes Scott in Atlanta and the vicinity and they are expected at all times to uphold the ideals and standards of the college.

Students interested in the Post Baccalaureate Pre Medical program should contact Andrea Clark, assistant
Post-Baccalaureate Year Five Program

Year-Five Post-Baccalaureate Program provides an opportunity for students to complement their undergraduate program by broadening studies in their major, exploring new academic areas or completing prerequisites related to graduate studies and career preparations. The 2012-2013 program is available on a tuition-free basis only to Agnes Scott students who received their Bachelor of Arts in May 2012.

Selection

The assistant director of academic advising serves as the academic adviser for all Year-Five students. Students wishing to participate in Year-Five must submit a detailed academic plan and rationale with their application by the stated deadline in the spring semester. Students must demonstrate how proposed courses are linked to their career and professional objectives. The Year-Five Committee reviews all applications. Selection decisions include an evaluation of the academic rationale and connection with the proposed courses as well as evidence that the Year-Five applicant would contribute in a positive way to the campus community. Not all applicants may be approved and committee decisions are final.

Eligibility

The tuition-free Year-Five Program is subject to college enrollments and available resources, and participation may be limited. The college will determine by Jan. 1 of each year the availability of the program for the next academic year. Students are not eligible to enroll in the Post-Baccalaureate Pre-Medical program on a tuition-free basis through the Year Five Program. Year Five is for the upcoming academic year (fall and spring semesters) only. Year-Five students who withdraw from the program during the fall semester will not be eligible to participate in the spring semester. The program is open at full tuition to non-ASC students, both men and women, and to those alumnae who do not meet the above criteria for the tuition-free Year Five.

Year-Five students are eligible to take courses, with exceptions noted below, on a space-available basis. Tuition-paying students have preference in courses in which enrollments are limited. Space availability will not be determined until fall registration is completed.

Registration

Accepted students must confirm their participation and course choices with the assistant director academic advising in order to register online.

International Students

International students interested in Year Five need to consult with the Office of International Education. Information will be made available regarding immigration regulations as they relate to eligibility and visa requirements.

Regulations Specific to Year-Five Students

Courses taken by Year-Five students must be for credit and will appear on their permanent record. These post-baccalaureate courses will appear after those taken to complete the baccalaureate degree. Although the overall grade point average will change, the GPA at graduation will be evident on the transcript. In addition:

- Year-Five students must maintain a 2.0 GPA in the fall semester in order to be eligible to continue in the following spring semester.

- Year-Five students will receive a letter grade in all courses. No courses may be taken on a pass/fail basis or on an audit basis.
• Year-Five students may take a minimum course load of one course or a maximum course load of nine full-credit courses or the equivalent over the academic year. Year-Five students living in campus housing must maintain a full-time course load.

• The following courses are not open on a tuition-free basis to Year-Five students: applied music, internships (credit), independent study, special study or any departmental directed study courses. These courses may be taken only if Year-Five students pay regular tuition for them. In the case of applied music, Year-Five students pay both the tuition and the regular applied music fees.

• Year-Five students may not appeal for an overload and they may not appeal for permission to re-peat a course with a D grade. However, students may appeal all other academic matters through channels open to undergraduates.

• Year-Five students are not eligible for cross-registration.

• Year-Five students may participate in The Coca-Cola Global Awareness or Global Connections programs on a space-available basis provided they meet the prerequisites. However, they must pay the full cost of the program—including the part of the trip normally subsidized by the college. Year-Five students should contact the Office of Financial Aid regarding loan eligibility.

• The Honor System applies to Year-Five students.

Fees and Financial Aid

Year-Five students attending on a tuition-free basis must pay the student activity fee. This fee entitles them to participate in Student Government Association activities. In addition, the college requires that all students be covered by the student health insurance program. These fees must be paid by the first day of classes in the fall semester. Fees are not refundable and will not be prorated for one semester participation. Students who enroll in a natural science with lab section will be billed $25.00 for lab fees. Year-Five students may purchase the meal plan that is currently available for commuting students.

Questions about deferment of student loans during participation in the Year Five program should be directed to the Office of the Registrar. Questions about the availability of loans during the Year Five program should be directed to the financial aid office.

Campus Housing

Campus housing may be available to Year-Five students for the 2012-2013 academic year based on the residential needs of undergraduate, degree-seeking students. Costs for campus housing are not included in the Year Five program and Year Five students will be responsible for the full, regular housing/meal plan costs if they reside on campus. Year-Five students must request housing in writing and submit the request to the director of residence life. Campus housing will be granted to Year-Five students on a space-available basis.

An information sheet with additional information on the Year-Five program is available from the Office of Academic Advising.

4. Log off the computer when finished.

5. Think before you print and only print what you need.

6. All public computer systems use a program called DeepFreeze to maintain system configurations. When you save your work, either save to your personal media or make sure you are saving to the T: drive. If you save anything on the hard drive, please remember that these computers are cleaned up weekly.

IT- Electronic Mail Guidelines

Email Accounts

All members of the Agnes Scott College community have their own email account in order to facilitate the timely exchange of information. These accounts are provided as a service to members of the college community. As such, users are expected to follow college guidelines on the appropriate use of email and related technologies.
These guidelines apply to:

1. All email services provided, owned or funded in part or in whole by Agnes Scott College.
2. All users and holders of college email accounts or systems, regardless of the intended use; and
3. All college email Official Records and/or Public Records in the possession of or generated by college employees and other users of email services provided by the college, regardless of whether the records were generated on college or non-college computers.

Account Administration

Account Creation

1. New student accounts are created throughout the summer and one week before the start of the spring semester. The Office of Admission provides new student account information.

2. Account names are based on first initial, last name as it appears in the student record. When duplicate account names occur, the middle initial will be inserted.

3. Vanity names are not permitted.

Account Retention/Deletion

1. All graduating students have the option of activating an “alumnae email for life” account with the college. Information regarding how to activate the alumnae email account is available on the alumnae intranet site. Graduates retain their agnesscott.edu accounts through the last day of October following their graduation month to provide sufficient time to migrate email to their alumnae account or to a personal email service.

2. Graduating students who return for Year Five following their graduation retain their regular ASC accounts through their Year Five attendance. If there is a semester break between graduation and Year Five attendance, the account is subject to deletion until enrollment notification from the registrar is received.

3. Accounts for students withdrawing from the college for any reason other than an approved leave of absence are deleted 24 hours after IT receives the withdrawing notice from the Registrar’s Office.

Account Management

1. Student mailboxes are not backed up, therefore they cannot be restored. Students are responsible for saving messages they want to keep.

2. Gmail quotas are 30Gb.

3. Server level spam detection is through Google.

Appropriate Use of Email

Email communication is considered a formal written record that carries the same legal weight as a formal memorandum. Users of email communications should remember that the communication becomes the possession of the receiver and can easily be duplicated and redistributed by the receiver. Although passwords stored on the email servers are securely encrypted and cannot be deciphered, users should note that they are responsible for the security of their own passwords. Users should be careful about sharing their login/password information. Doing so will provide others with access to their email and network accounts.

Examples of misuse of email communications include, but are not limited to:
• Messages that violate any local, state and/or federal law or that promote any illegal activity
• Messages that may be perceived as harassing or threatening
• Messages of a political nature (i.e. personal opinion, public debate and/or campaigning)
• Messages that solicit support or funding not related to college business
• Messages that promote continuation of a chain message or pyramid scheme
• Messages that could be reasonably expected to cause, directly or indirectly, unnecessary strain on computing facilities or serve to interfere with others’ use of email or the email system (i.e. “spam,” chain messages or “letter-bombs”)
• Messages that appear to represent, provide opinions or otherwise make statements on behalf of the college or any unit of the college unless expressly authorized to do so.

For additional information on violations, please see the college’s policy on Acceptable Use of Electronic Communications.

Violations will be handled through the normal college disciplinary procedures. Harassing messages and other illegal activity conducted via email may also be reported to the appropriate local, state and/or federal authorities. In spite of college policy, malicious persons who know the owner’s computing ID and password can abuse email. Users are responsible for protecting their own passwords and login information and sharing your username and password with someone else to use is a violation of the Acceptable Use Policy.

Confidentiality

Users should be aware that email is NOT recommended for use in confidential communications. Since the security of email cannot be guaranteed, any information of a confidential matter that needs to be conveyed should be done through one-on-one or written communication in conjunction with appropriate college personnel. Email should is not guaranteed to be private.

The Office of the Registrar may elect to publish student email addresses as directory information, consistent with the requirements of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). Individual students may, consistent with college policy regarding the protection of student information (see Agnes Scott College Policy on Confidentiality of Student Records) request that the college not treat their address as directory information. Requests should be directed to the Office of the Registrar.

Indemnification of the College

Users agree by virtue of access to the college’s computing and email systems to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the college for any suits, claims, losses, expenses or damages, including but not limited to litigation costs and attorney’s fees arising from or related to the user’s access to or use of college email and computing systems, services and facilities.

IT- Campus Computer Network (ASCNT)

Agnes Scott’s local area computer network, ASCNT, provides the college with access to a variety of network resources that include but are not limited to: email, the Internet, intranet, online library catalogs, campus accessible online phone directory, course management system, network printing and AscAgnes. AscAgnes (pronounced “Ask Agnes”) provides students with self-service access to the course catalog, class schedule, grades, a view of progress toward degrees, required forms and financial aid term award details. Students use their network / email login information to gain access to AscAgnes resources.
• All college-owned computer systems are connected to the network.

• Each student is assigned an email address by Information Technology Services as described above.

• If a student brings her own computer and it meets networking specifications, her computer may be connected directly to the network.

• Students are expected to use proper “netiquette” and adhere to the Acceptable Use of Electronic Resources (http://www.agnesscott.edu/its/policies-procedures/acceptable-use-policy.html) and Digital Millennium Copyright Act (http://www.agnesscott.edu/its/policies-procedures/digital-copyright-act.html) policies.

• Students can connect their personal computers to the campus network in their residence hall rooms. Each new student will receive a copy of the connectivity instructions in their orientation packet. Returning students can attach their personal computer to the campus network, open a web browser and re-authenticate to the campus network. If a student needs help getting connected, she should ask her Residential Computing Consultant for help or contact the IT Help Desk 404. 471.5487.

• All student personal computers connected to the campus network must have either the college provided anti-virus software installed or one of the approved anti-virus products listed on the IT web site.

• Come to the IT Help Desk if a patch cable is needed, they’re FREE and they’re purple.

• Contact Residential Computing Consultants if students have computer questions or need help. Don’t know who the RCC is?

• A student print management system is currently active to control the print use of each student.

Refer to http://www.agnesscott.edu/its/policies-procedures/paw-print.html for details.

Identification Card (ASC Card)

The ASC Card is your official Agnes Scott identification card. The ASC Card provides access to services and photographic proof of your standing as a campus member. The Office of Telecommunications, a unit of Information Technology Services, issues the card.

Getting the Card

The ASC Card is available to all registered students as part of their enrollment at Agnes Scott College. You may obtain your ASC Card from the Office of Telecommunications. All you need is a photo ID.

Caring for the Card

Avoid bending or scratching your ASC Card. Do not punch holes in the card. Keep your ASC Card out of washers and dryers, away from magnetic fields (cell phones, stereo equipment, computers and disks, other magnetic stripe cards, etc.) and extreme heat (such as the inside of a parked car). It is best to keep your card in a protective holder.

Contact Information

Walters Hall, Room G15
404.471.5500

Cards Issued

Monday through Friday 9 a.m.–4 p.m.

Temporary cards also are issued during normal business hours in the Office of Telecommunications and after hours from public safety.

Uses

Dining Services

The ASC Card gives the cardholder access to dining services meal plans. However, dining services maintains and services the meal plan account.

Library

The ASC Card gives the cardholder access to McCain Library services; the library maintains and services the library account.

Door Access

The ASC Card gives the cardholder access to the following administrative buildings after hours:

- Alston Campus Center
- McCain Library
- Dana Fine Arts Building
- Dance Studio
The ASC Card also allows access to students that reside in the following residence halls:

- Campbell Hall
- Theme Houses
- Winship Hall
- Walters Hall

The ASC Card is a “proximity” access card. Just hold it within five inches of the card access reader to open the door.

Policies

Use of the ASC Card

The cardholder agrees that the ASC Card is the property of Agnes Scott and can be confiscated from bearer as a result of inappropriate conduct or abuse. Use of the ASC Card is subject to all terms, conditions, rules and regulations as put forth by Agnes Scott.

Students must present their ASC Card at the time of use in order to obtain services and the card should be carried at all times. It is not valid without a current validation sticker. ASC cards and related accounts are nontransferable; any misuse or illegal transactions can result in privilege suspension. Students are responsible for the usage of their card.

Disclosure of Information to Third Parties

The Office of Telecommunications will disclose card access information and/or photos to third parties only:

- In order to comply with court orders or other applicable laws.
- If the cardholder gives the Office of Telecommunications written permission.

Lost/Stolen Cards

Report immediately any lost or stolen card, or unauthorized card usage, in person during operating hours at the Office of Telecommunications or by phone at 404.471.5500. If it is after hours or on the weekend, please contact public safety at 404.471.6355. The cardholder is responsible for all usage of the card prior to proper notification to the Office of Telecommunications or public safety.

Replacement Cards

The cardholder must report to the Office of Telecommunications during the appropriate office hours to purchase a replacement ASC Card. There is a $15 fee to replace lost, stolen or damaged cards.

Temporary Cards

In the event an ASC Card is lost, stolen or damaged, a 24-hour temporary card can be issued by the Office of Telecommunications during weekday hours or by the Department of Public Safety after hours and on the weekend. The card will provide access to any existing privileges from the cardholder’s original card. If the ASC Card is found, the student must return the temporary card to the office in which they received it. If the ASC card is not found, the student must bring the temporary card back to the Office of Telecommunications during business hours and purchase a replacement ASC Card for $15.

Documentation
Activity statements of card access can be generated by the Office of Telecommunications during office hours upon written request of the cardholder. Allow 48 hours for processing.

Institutional Review Board

Guidelines for the Protection of Human Research Participants:

All faculty, students and staff at Agnes Scott or external researchers who are conducting research on living human subjects will need approval from the Institutional Review Board before beginning their research project. Please note that research includes, but is not limited to, independent research projects conducted or directed by faculty or staff, independent student research and student research performed within a classroom context. Also note that the IRB’s definition of “original research” may be construed broadly. Life histories, interviews, focus groups, surveys and other forms of data collection may require IRB approval.

The guidelines for the protection of human research participants must be used for all research projects conducted under the auspices of Agnes Scott College that to any degree involve using human research participants. Applications and all inquiries should be sent to IRB@agnesscott.edu. Consult the IRB website for more information at http://irb.agnesscott.edu/index.html.

International Education

Associate Dean: Jennifer Lund
Location: Buttrick Hall

Study Abroad & International Student Services

The Office of International Education (OIE) serves two broadly defined groups: students, staff and faculty who study, intern, volunteer, research or travel abroad and those who come to Agnes Scott College from outside the United States. The office also provides cross-cultural communication presentations and workshops, welcomes international visitors, and organizes or contributes to events with an international focus. The OIE staff members are located on the first floor of Buttrick Hall. For general office inquiries or to make appointments with OIE staff members, stop by the main OIE office at Buttrick Hall 102B, email oie@agnesscott.edu, or call 404-471-5380.

The OIE supports international students throughout their academic career at Agnes Scott College. They provide advising and programming on immigration matters and cultural adjustment; coordinate International Student Orientation; offer guidance during international student crises; and serve in the role of academic advising for exchange students. They also advise the International Student Association (ISA), which includes students from around the world, many first-generation Americans, and any student interested in intercultural interaction.

More than 50% of the Class of 2014 studied abroad for academic credit at least once while at Agnes Scott College. Agnes Scott’s many study abroad options vary in length, content, format, eligibility and cost. Some have a language prerequisite while others use English as the language of instruction. There are short-term faculty-led programs, including the Global Awareness program, ASC in Germany and ASC in Spain. There are also summer, semester and yearlong study abroad programs. The majority of students who study abroad for a semester or year do so during their junior year through the International Student Exchange Program (www.isep.org). To study abroad, students must meet the requirements of the specific study abroad program.

For more information about the Office of International Education and to see a staff directory, please visit our website at http://www.agnesscott.edu/internationaleducation/
Internships

Director: David Williams
Location: Buttrick Hall
Phone: 404.471.6872

Students are encouraged to participate in one or more internships during the four years they are enrolled at Agnes Scott. Many local businesses and nonprofit organizations consider Agnes Scott students for internships. In addition, internships can be completed out of the area during summer breaks.

With few exceptions, only juniors and seniors are eligible to complete internships for academic credit under the sponsorship and supervision of a faculty member. Although some departments offer a seminar or practicum course in conjunction with an internship, most students complete individual independent internships (450s) with a faculty member.

Students requesting academic credit for a 450 internship must submit a completed application to the coordinator of internships. For an application to be considered for approval, a student must have secured both an internship and faculty sponsorship of the internship.

For more information about credit and noncredit internships, contact David M. Williams, director of internships and experiential learning, at dmwilliams@agnesscott.edu or 404.471.6872.

McCain Library

Director: Elizabeth Bagley
Location: McCain Library
Phone: 404.471.6094

McCain Library provides resources, services and facilities designed to meet the needs of the Agnes Scott community. In addition to academic books and periodicals, the library collection includes a broad array of documentary DVDs, popular fiction and films, non-fiction and media equipment - even bicycles - to borrow. The library’s website http://agnesscott.edu/library provides access to SOPHIA, the library catalog; to GALILEO, Georgia’s consortial collection of research databases including many with full-text journal articles and primary sources; and to 47 more electronic databases that ASC also licenses for campus researchers. Those e-resources may be searched individually or in combination using the Discover search tool (like Google). The librarians and staff of McCain Library are dedicated to providing excellent customer service. Please do not hesitate to ask them questions.

Library Hours

During fall and spring semesters, the library is open 104 hours each week:

- Monday–Thursday 8 a.m.–2 a.m.*
- Friday 8 a.m.–6 p.m.
- Saturday 9 a.m.–6 p.m.
- Sunday 1 p.m.–2 a.m.*

(*Research guidance until 9 p.m.; Check Out/Reserves until 10:30 p.m.)

Hours vary for summer, holidays or inclement weather and are posted at the library’s entrances and on the library website. When the library is closed, your ASC ID will allow access to a separate section of the building – the Educational Technology Center (ETC) - on the ground floor’s east side. Use the exterior doors facing Alston Campus Center; hold up the ID to the scanner on the brick wall to unlock the outside door.

Responsible Library Use

Students should always bring their ASC ID with them to the library to check out any items. Materials charged to your account are your responsibility. Therefore, it is risky to lend a student ID or library materials to other students. Instead, have them ask circulation staff to place a hold on an item, triggering an emailed alert to that student when the item is returned.

The Building

McCain has seven floors. Don’t miss the study nooks and art scattered throughout, the lobby’s ceiling inscriptions, the Elizabeth Henderson Cameron Reading Terrace (a great place for cell phone use), the Elmore Reading Room’s curved, comfy couch, and the Noble Heritage Center collection of Agnes Scott history (hours announced each semester). Please show consideration for others by setting cell phones to vibrate and by keeping voices low throughout the building. Floor Three has been designated a Quiet Study Area; no voices, music, laptop or cell phone use should be audible on that floor. Six group study rooms are available, first come, first served, for collaborative work between two or more students. Food and drink trash should be carried back outside to help maintain library collections, computers and furnishings. Beverages should have closed lids, and all edibles should be kept away from computers. Please promptly report any accidental spills to a library staff member.

Carrels

There are 12 carrels on the first floor along the terrace that are available to anyone. Individual study carrels (41 throughout McCain Library) may be reserved at the start of each semester by students enrolled in an independent study (490s) or a senior seminar. Speak with the Access Services Librarian, stop by the main circulation desk or phone 404.471.6094 for details. All library materials on reserved carrels must be checked out (so that their status is clear in the SOPHIA catalog). Other students may sit at reserved carrels when they are unoccupied, but they should be left as they were found. A student borrowing the carrel must move to another part of the library amicably if the student with the reservation arrives to use her carrel.

Circulation and Renewals

Circulating materials may be checked out at the circulation desk (Floor 1) by presenting a valid Agnes Scott ID. Most materials may be borrowed; however, reference books, periodicals, microfilm and most course reserves are for use in the library only. The usual loan period for books is three weeks; other items’ loan periods follow (unless other arrangements are made in advance):

- Purple Bikes 1 day (due before sundown)
- DVDs 3 days
- Library laptops 4 hours (in-library use only)
- AV equipment 1 day
Reserves According to professors’ wishes to maximize access for the whole class – generally 4 hours in-library use.

Most materials can be renewed online through SOPHIA before their due date, as long as another patron has not requested them (limit: three renewals). Watch for courtesy ASC email reminders before due dates. Fines for laptops, media equipment and course reserves are higher than for books, so remind yourself to return those on time, thus avoiding fines. Check your account 24/7 or renew items online at: http://sophia.agnesscott.edu/patroninfo.html. When the library building is closed, return items to the book drop outside the front entrance (to the left of the doors).

Computers

Students should use their ASC network login and password on public computers in McCain Library. The campus wireless network is available to ASC students who wish to use personal laptops in the library or on its terrace. McCain’s Floor 1 has 2 clusters of computers and 2 scanners available for library research, Moodle and Microsoft Office applications, plus there are 10 laptops available to borrow for 4 hours of in-library use. The Ground Floor also has 8 computers and 2 Macs (opposite the elevator and around the spiral stairs). The Ground Floor has a color printer that will accept print requests from any College computer in the building. Group Viewing Room 1 (Ground Floor) offers a large monitor, wireless keyboard and mouse for collaborative small group work (Power Point, etc.); that room is first come, first served and seats about 5 students. If all the computers on the lower floors are busy, ask a staff member about unlocking McCain 211, the library’s classroom. Unless a workshop/meeting is scheduled, it acts as an overflow computer lab with 12 more PCs and a printer. More color printers, Macs and scanners are available in ITS’ Technology Production Studio (TPS) on the Ground Floor outside the main library space.

Save yourself the worry of lost documents; always and often save your files to a USB drive or to a free cloud-based document storage service such as Dropbox or Google Drive. Items saved to the Desktop, C:\ drive, or My Documents will be deleted when you log off the computer. Also remember to log off public computers to protect your files and privacy. Printing to the networked printers is managed by ITS (500 free pages, $30.00 annually). Once you have used up your free allocation, printing costs a small fee (purchase a print card at the library’s circulation desk, the ITS Help Desk or in Alston). It’s smart to be “green” and to save files electronically whenever possible.

Creating and Managing Bibliographies

Students have access to RefWorks and Zotero, online tools for easily managing bibliographies and citations. The LibGuides webpage offers a RefWorks online tutorial and a quick start guide to Zotero.

Lost Items

Students are responsible for library materials they have checked out. A book believed to be lost should be reported to the main circulation desk immediately to avoid a billing fee. The minimum charge for a lost book is $60, plus any accumulated fines. Library materials and interlibrary loans that are mutilated, defaced or damaged are subject to the same fees as lost books. Please handle library materials carefully so that others may use them in the future. Circulation also maintains a “lost and found” area, so if USB drives and other personal belongings are misplaced in McCain Library, check at the main circulation desk (or at the Department of Public Safety).

Media Viewing and Listening

The DVD collection (documentaries and popular films) is shelved on the left side of the Main Reading Room on Floor 1. Videotapes, CDs and other media are housed on the Ground Floor, along with equipment for viewing/playing them.

Passwords and Off-Campus Access

For off-campus or personal computer access to McCain Library research databases online, you will be prompted to type in the GALILEO password and/or your name (first and last, e.g. Sarah Sutton) and ASC ID number. The GALILEO password changes four times per year and is posted on Moodle under LIB 101. Other tips about off-campus access are included on the library website under Passwords (top left).

Periodicals, Journals and Newspapers

McCain Library licenses and provides access to 81,697 journals and newspapers online. FindIt@ASC (the journal locator) on the Library’s website will direct students to the appropriate database(s) for online access or to McCain print/microfilm holdings. For items not available here, consider interlibrary loan (see below). Current print periodicals and newspapers are housed in the Main Reading Room on Floor 1. Older bound journal volumes and microfilm (both arranged alphabetically by title) are located on the Ground Floor; photocopiers and a microfilm reader-printer are available near the bottom of the spiral stairs.

Research and Instructional Services

Librarians are available most of the hours the library is open to help students locate, analyze and select information from various resources. Save time - just ask us! Librarians are glad to provide individual or group orientation or to consult about a particular research topic. We work with several research-intensive classes each semester to ensure students are able to find the information they need and to build strong research skills.

The Scottie Research & Rescue Desk, located on the first floor (the second service desk after you enter McCain), is a great place to receive personalized research assistance. Ask questions in person, send an IM (instant message) using the chat box on the library’s website, email questions/suggestions to library@agnesscott.edu, or call 404.471.6096. In addition, the library website includes a variety of guides (http://libguides.agnesscott.edu/) to assist students 24/7, plus a YouTube Channel (http://www.youtube.com/user/McCainLibrary) with helpful videos to provide tips on finding books and articles in the library. These are a handy starting point - available any time without a password.

Reserve Readings for Courses

Books, films and journal articles are placed on reserve by faculty members to ease group access to course-related assignments. These materials are located at the Circulation Desk (Floor 1) and can be used inside the library for short periods of time. Most can be checked out overnight, starting two hours before closing (unless a professor prefers that their personal copy remain in the library). Present a valid Agnes Scott ID to borrow reserves and request the item needed by its title.

Note: overdue reserve materials incur a charge of $1 per hour. To ensure fair access to all the students in a class, reserves should be returned on time.

Access to Other Libraries’ Collections

If you cannot locate a resource in McCain’s collections, you may suggest a purchase using a linked web form on the right side of the SOPHIA library catalog. Requests are considered if an item falls within McCain’s collection development policy, or you may borrow from another library as outlined below.

Interlibrary Loan (ILL)
McCain Library absorbs the cost of interlibrary loans, but in order to keep that service free, we ask that students prioritize and only request items that will be fully used for research. To request a book or article not available here, fill out an electronic ILL request form on the library website under Services; the form is also linked on the right side in the SOPHIA library catalog. Include as much information as possible. A reference librarian will be glad to help verify that the citation is accurate. Allow 5-10 days for a request to be filled; depending on the time of year and the material needed, some requests may take more or less time to arrive from the lending library. The student will receive an email when the item is available. To maintain ASC’s cooperative agreements with other libraries, due dates for interlibrary loan materials must be strictly observed. One renewal request may be made before a due date (404.471. 5342 / email deadams@agnesscott.edu).

Interlibrary Use (ILU) Cards

An alternative to interlibrary loan is available through ARCHE (Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education), a consortium of 20 colleges and universities in the Atlanta-Athens area. By agreement among most of these institutions, students may be granted permission to check out books from another library for a limited time to supplement the resources of their home library. If you have transportation to a nearby library, first obtain an Interlibrary Use card from McCain’s Scottie Research & Rescue Desk. Cards are issued to any student in good standing (fines below $10) who has a valid information need. Research should be done first at McCain Library, and then if it is necessary to go further, librarians here can verify which local library holds the material needed. Also, resident Agnes Scott students are eligible for library privileges at all DeKalb County public libraries. The main branch is located in downtown Decatur on Sycamore Street. To obtain a DCPL card, students must present a valid ASC student ID and proof of DeKalb County residence (e.g., U.S. mail such as a bill addressed to your campus mailbox).

We are here to facilitate your success, so make use of our information skills, resources and study spaces!

Lost & Found

Public Safety x6355

The “lost and found” is located at the Department of Public Safety. Students who lose items should report the loss immediately to the Department of Public Safety and students who find items should deliver them to the same location.

Media Facilities

Director: Emily Gwynn
Location: McCain Library
Phone: 404.471.5468

Students may view DVDs/videos or listen to CDs using the three group viewing rooms or the individual carrels located on the ground floor of McCain Library. Group Viewing Room 1 also offers a computer with large monitor, wireless keyboard and mouse for small group project collaboration. McCain Library lends equipment such as flip video cameras, still digital cameras, flash drives, audio recorders, etc. If interested, ask at the main circulation desk.

The TPS (the Technology Production Studio, a unit reporting to ITS), on McCain’s ground floor next to the Speaking Center, offers video editing software, scanners, Mac computers, a color printer and a broadcasting booth. Media Services, also a unit of ITS, provides media equipment loans for campus events. Contact Tami Stanko at tstanko@agnesscott.edu or 404.471.5468.
Post Office

Campus Mail

Mailboxes are provided to all students and serve as a means of communication between students and various campus organizations and administrative offices as well as the primary means of distributing incoming mail. Students are urged to check their mailboxes regularly and are responsible for reviewing official notices and information about campus activities sent by campus mail. Failure to observe deadlines and notices sent through the mail may result in penalties. Mailboxes are accessible 24 hours a day.

Services

The ASC Post Office is a substation of the Decatur Post Office and provides a full range of services including registered, certified, insured, priority and express mail at established postal rates. Money orders, stamps and stamped envelopes are also sold at the service window, but unstamped envelopes, boxes and other packing/shipping materials are not provided. Additional private shipping services provided by FedEx and UPS are available and the Post Office does have packing/shipping materials for these services such as express envelopes, FedEx and UPS shipping boxes and packaging. The ASC Post Office also sales MARTA UPass cards.

Post Office Service Window Hours

Monday–Friday 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Public Safety

Director of Public Safety: Henry Hope Location: College Parking Deck
Emergencies – x6400
General Information & Assistance – x6355

The college administration, department of Public Safety and local authorities consider your personal safety to be of paramount importance. However, students are expected to exercise advance planning and good judgment when traveling to campus facilities or off-campus destinations after business hours. The college and surrounding communities are part of a major metropolitan area and must be considered as such by all members of the campus community. Please make yourself familiar with campus personnel and operations, as well as normal activities in communities nearby, before venturing out alone.

Agnes Scott is dedicated to assisting members of our community in providing for their own safety and security. A copy of Agnes Scott’s annual security report, known as Playing It Safe, is sent to students, faculty, and staff prior to October 1st. This report includes statistics for the previous three years concerning reported crimes that occurred on campus; in certain off-campus buildings or property owned or controlled by ASC; and on public property within, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from, the campus. The report also includes institutional policies concerning campus security, such as policies concerning alcohol and drug use, crime prevention, the reporting of crimes, sexual assault and other matters. You can obtain a copy of this report by contacting:

Department of Public Safety

Emergencies

Students should contact the department of Public Safety for all police, fire or medical emergencies. a.

General Student Emergencies

i. In the event of student emergency on campus, dial public safety at 404.471.6400. This number should be used only for emergency situations. Dispatchers are on duty in the public safety office 24 hours a day.

ii. All other questions concerning the department of public safety should be directed to 404.471.6355.

b. Metro-Atlanta Emergency

i. If you are off-campus and an emergency occurs, dial 911. Be prepared to provide your location and/or nearest access street. When requested, give your address as Agnes Scott College, Decatur, and provide the police with the public safety emergency number 404.471.6400. Notify public safety after 911 has been dialed.

Emergency Alert Phones

Emergency alert telephones are equipped with a button for direct emergency line assistance and direct-dial buttons to contact public safety for a “safety escort.” Distinguishable by the blue light atop the tower, these phones are located strategically throughout the campus. Sites include:

- The west end of the South Candler Road parking lot
- Outside the front door of the Woodruff Physical Activities building
- Sidewalk outside the primary entrance to the Bradley Observatory
- South end of the South Parking Lot (near the tennis courts)
- Sidewalk on E. Dougherty St. between Woodruff and Dance Studios
- Front of the south entrance of the Science Center
- Sidewalk at the east end of Bullock Hall
- Just outside the iron gate at the primary entrance to Dana
- Rebekah parking lot at Buttrick Drive
- Main Loop between Main and Rebekah
- North side of E. College Avenue in front of the college at the underground viaduct to railroad crossing
- Sidewalk of the Main Loop between Inman and the Hopkins parking lot
- Sidewalk between Hopkins and Candler Road
- Candler Street near Winship and the iron gate
- Avery Glen, on the corner near the manager’s office
- All four levels of the parking facility

In addition, the phones outside the primary student entrances to residence halls are equipped with a panic button which direct-dials public safety for assistance.

Emergency Transport

In an emergency medical situation, please call Public Safety at x6400. The ill or injured student will be transported to DeKalb Medical Center by an ambulance. If the student does not need emergency transportation, she should be taken to the hospital by a friend or if a student’s condition is very minor public safety can transport to an Urgent Care facility or the Dekalb Medical emergency room. A residence life or administrative staff member should be notified of all emergencies.

Investigation of Complaints

a. When a complaint of any criminal activity is made to the department of public safety, it will be handled using standard police procedures. Any criminal activity involving an ASC student, or a student’s guest/visitor, will be reported to the dean of students and standard police procedures as outlined in sections 9.b-e below shall be followed.

b. If investigation of the complaint requires a search, the search will be conducted by public safety officers.

c. Evidence of criminal activity can be seized as evidence during the search. This includes not only evidence related to the original complaint but also evidence of any other criminal activity which might be in “plain view” of the officers conducting the search.

d. At the time of the search, or at any later time during the investigation of the complaint, students or other individuals found to be involved in criminal activity may be arrested and released on a copy of charges or arrested and taken to jail.

e. Refusal to cooperate with public safety officers in the course of an investigation can result in an arrest for obstruction of an officer (O.C.G.A. 16-10-24).

f. The dean of students office will be informed of the results of any criminal investigation conducted by the department of public safety and will then determine if additional investigation and/or action is necessary.

Public Safety-Motorist Assistance

If a student, faculty or staff member’s car becomes inoperative on college property, a public safety officer will jump-start the car. If a student, faculty or staff member locks her/his keys in her/his car on college property, a public safety officer will try to get the owner’s keys out of the car. Public safety officers cannot assist with student automotive emergencies off campus (see Taxi Fund page 142).

Parking Regulations

a. All students wishing to keep a car on campus must register the car with public safety. The Avery Glen apartments are part of the campus community and student residents are held to the same standards in the parking regulations.

i. Students parking cars on campus may secure a parking decal good for one academic year for $100, or $60 for one semester, through the department of public safety. Students purchasing decals are provided with a brochure regarding campus parking regulations and are responsible for knowing those regulations.

ii. Temporary parking permits are available for students needing parking privileges for only a short time (up to two weeks).
iii. Parking permits must be displayed on each vehicle parked in lots designated for use by students, faculty and staff. Drivers must park only in lots designated for use by their constituency (i.e. student, faculty or staff).

b. Visitors and guests must park in areas designated for their use. Students that reside at the Avery Glen Apartments are not considered visitors and must abide by the parking regulations for other resident students.

c. Specific regulations enforced by public safety include those listed below. Failure to comply will result in either a warning, ticket, wheel immobilization, towing or any combination of the aforementioned penalties.

i. Parking is not authorized adjacent to yellow curbs or spaces designated for specific individuals, visitors, loading zones, limited time parking zones, fire lanes, handicapped parking or tow-away zones. Loading zones and service areas are for service and vendor delivery vehicles.

   aa. Any vehicle violating parking regulations or blocking a street, throughway or parked on a sidewalk will be towed. If a student parks in a reserved space on campus, she will receive either a parking citation or an orange warning sticker. Her car may be wheel-locked or towed if the space is needed.

   bb. A student’s car may also be towed or wheel-locked if she receives more than three tickets in an academic year. Cars will be towed to one of the following addresses:

   S & W Wrecker Service or Hunt’s Wrecker Service
   2158 Tucker Industrial Rd 154 Olive Street
   Tucker, Georgia 30084 Avondale Estates, GA 30002
   Phone: 770 493-9083 Phone: 404.292.6697

   cc. The student must pay the towing fee for the amount as designated by the towing company plus extra fees for every extra day the car remains in the towing facility. These fees are determined by the towing company and are subject to change without notice. The wheel lock removal fee is $50. Payment will only be accepted IN CASH. The student must come by the department of public safety office to get a copy of the impound slip before the car will be released.

   i. The repeated abuse of these regulations, with no evidence of cooperation from the vehicle owner, will likely result in wheel-lock or towing of the automobile.

   ii. The right to close any parking area for college purposes is reserved by the college. Do not attempt to park in these areas by removing traffic cones and/or barricades. To do so is a violation of Georgia state law.

   iii. Tickets will be placed on cars that are in violation of specifically stated regulations.

     aa. The registered permit holder is responsible for all violations attached to the vehicle.

     bb. The first failure to observe parking regulations will carry a $10 fine; second tickets carry a $25 fine; and three or more tickets carry a $50 fine. However, certain violations carry stiffer fines based on severity. These include: handicapped parking $100–$500; fire lane or hydrant $50; blocking or obstructing traffic flow $50.

     cc. Consistent or flagrant disregard of parking regulations will result in the loss of the privilege of keeping a car on campus.
d. Local law applies on campus with regard to guest parking. Visitors parking unlawfully (e.g. fire lanes, towing zones) are subject to enforcement of those laws.

e. Parking Fines and Appeals

i. Failure to pay fines within 30 days may result in the individual’s car being restricted from the campus. This latter step may incur towing and accompanying charges. The repeated abuse of these regulations, with no evidence of cooperation from the vehicle owner, will likely result in wheel-lock or towing of the automobile.

ii. Fines are collected in the accounting office during normal business hours. The ticket should be presented to the accounting office with payment. It will be stamped and returned to the vehicle owner as proof of payment.

iii. Tickets may be appealed within five days of receipt of the citation. The written appeal should be sent to the department of public safety. The department will be responsible for notifying the vehicle’s registrant of their decision in writing.

Personal Safety

a. On or Around Campus, including MARTA
Exercise common sense and caution when walking around campus at night or when riding MARTA.

b. Off Campus
In the event a student finds herself stranded or in need of police assistance while on an interstate or state highway in Georgia (including metro Atlanta), she should dial *DOT (*368) from her cell phone, if she has one. The Georgia department of transportation will then dispatch a state patrol officer or HERO unit as necessary to lend assistance.

c. Safety Tips
Public safety provides several publications and seminars during the year about personal safety and awareness of your surroundings as a means of decreasing the opportunities of becoming a victim of a crime. In addition, the department has posted safety tips on the college’s website at www.agnesscott.edu.

Suspicious Persons

Loiterers, canvassers and salespersons are not allowed on the campus. Students are to report any suspicious person immediately to the department of public safety and to the office of the dean of students.

All Agnes Scott facility employees will be in uniform when working in residence halls and in other student-use buildings. Other vendors and repairpersons must sign for a badge in the public safety office. Students must accompany male guests when in student-use areas. Students from other colleges using ASC library resources are required to check in at the circulation desk.

A student may represent a product or firm with permission of the dean of students. Students, with prior authorization, may post notices to advertise, but no telephone or door-to-door solicitation will be permitted.

Taxi Fund

If a student becomes stranded off campus or has an emergency situation but does not have enough money to take a taxi back to campus, she may take a cab to the department of public safety and borrow enough money to pay her cab fare from the taxi fund. This money must be repaid to the department of public safety within two weeks of utilizing the fund. The fund is also available to students who are unable to drive back to campus due to consumption of alcohol (their own or their driver’s).
A. Campus Employment

1. Students who have been awarded work-study as a part of their financial aid package will be notified individually of the procedures for job placement. Students who have never participated in the student employment program are required to attend the New Student Orientation Meeting held during orientation.

For more information on student employment, contact Christa Watson in the Office of Financial Aid office or Brandi Wilkes in the Office of Human Resources.

2. Policies regarding Student Employment

In order to comply with employment law and receive a paycheck in a timely manner, the student is responsible for completing appropriate paperwork through the Office of Human Resources. This includes providing appropriate documentation for the I-9 Employment Eligibility Form and applicable federal and state income tax forms (W-4, G-4) before beginning to work. Per the Georgia Illegal Immigration Reform and Enforcement Act of 2011 (IIREA), Agnes Scott College participates in the E-Verify program; an electronic Internet based system that verifies employment eligibility through a partnership between the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and the Social Security Administration.

Agnes Scott students are employed by the college in various ways across the campus. Most often their positions are approved through the office of financial aid for the college work-study program. Occasionally, students will occupy a position funded through a specific department or division budget.

You may contact the Office of Human Resources to discuss student positions between semesters or during academic breaks. All such student positions are contingent upon available funds within departmental budgets.

A student’s employment, though important, is secondary to her pursuit of an education at Agnes Scott. For that reason, full-time Agnes Scott students may not be hired for full-time positions within the college. Students are not authorized to work more than nine hours per week. Part-time students meeting the qualifications for the job may, in certain situations, be considered. However, they must make an appointment with the dean of students prior to applying for a position. Questions about the hiring of students should be directed to the Office of Human Resources or the Office of Financial Aid. Questions regarding eligibility for college work study or financial aid should be directed to the Office of Financial Aid. When possible, staff members are encouraged to mentor students and help acquaint them with professional on-the-job behavior. The student employee should be given duties and responsibilities specific to the position for which she has been hired. This is done in the form of a job description.

Performance standards should be assigned and feedback relative to the student’s ability to meet those standards should be given. The office of financial aid encourages a performance review for each student placed through the college work-study program.

If a student must be absent due to illness or pressing academic matters, the supervisor may request that the student make up the hours at another time. If a student performs unsatisfactorily, the supervisor must make the student aware of her shortcomings and follow corrective action procedures. In certain situations, the student may be reassigned to another department. Students are expected to adhere to the following guidelines with regard to their employment:

- Punctuality—Be at work when scheduled. If unable to do so, notify your supervisor as soon as possible, but no later than the scheduled start time.
• Professionalism—Behave in a manner consistent with the position assigned.

• Phone calls—Limit personal calls. Remember that the office assigned must conduct business.

• Internet access—Accessing personal email and “surfing” the Web are not permitted without supervisor authorization.

• Homework—Ask for supervisor’s permission before doing homework.

• Attire—Dress appropriately for the position assigned. Consult supervisor with questions.

• Confidentiality—In her capacity as an employee, the student may have access to personal or confidential information regarding other students or employees. Be responsible with this information.

• Teamwork—Approach the job with a willing spirit. Realize that every experience encountered at Agnes Scott is a potential learning opportunity. Approach work assignments as such.

Students are also responsible for completing bi-weekly paper or electronic timesheets, getting supervisor’s approval of the timesheet and submitting it to the Office of Human Resources. All supervisors should ensure that students assigned to their department complete appropriate paperwork and turn in timesheets in a timely manner. All timesheets are due by noon on the due date, unless otherwise notified. Students who do not complete appropriate paperwork, or turn in timesheets in time for payroll to process, will not be paid. Late timesheets will be held until the next upcoming payroll.

Interactions between staff and students can be extremely rewarding for both. Learning occurs both inside and outside the classroom. This employment relationship is another way in which Agnes Scott prepares women for future achievement.

B. Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988

Agnes Scott has been and continues to be committed to the health and well being of the members of our community. In the spirit of this commitment, and in compliance with the provisions of the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988, the college has issued the following policy statement regarding controlled substances on campus. This policy applies to all employees, including faculty, staff and work-study students.

The unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession or use of a controlled substance is strictly prohibited on campus. Any employee who violates this prohibition will be subject to corrective disciplinary action and penalties up to and including immediate discharge from employment at Agnes Scott.

As a condition of employment at Agnes Scott, all employees will abide by the terms of this statement. They will also notify their supervisor of any criminal drug statute conviction for a violation occurring in the work place no later than five days after such conviction. More information regarding this legislation is available in the human resources office. Periodically during the year, seminars and information regarding substance abuse will be made available to the community. The human resources office and student health services have reference material about sources of treatment for substance abuse. All inquiries will be kept strictly confidential.

C. Off-Campus Employment
Opportunities for off-campus employment (short and long term, full and part time) are posted in the career planning office.

College Policies and Procedures

College Communication

Students are required to regularly check their mail boxes in the post office in Alston Campus Center and their Agnes Scott e-mail accounts. Any communication from the president, vice president for academic affairs and dean of the college, vice president for student life and dean of students, academic advising, registrar or student judicial bodies is considered “Official College Communication” and will be marked accordingly. Students are held accountable for reading and responding to these letters and e-mails within a reasonable time or by the specified date in the e-mail or communication.

Discrimination and Harassment Statement

Agnes Scott values diversity and seeks to foster an environment that welcomes and supports contributions from all members of the Agnes Scott community. Discrimination or harassment is unacceptable on this campus. Such behavior is contrary to our intellectual environment and the spirit of fellowship fundamental to our community.

Discrimination or harassment may take many forms, including, but not limited to, verbal insults, inappropriate humor, defacement or destruction of property and physical intimidation. It may be directed at any one of our distinctive human differences. All members of our community are diminished by these acts.

Harassment or discrimination of any person or group of persons on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, age or handicap is a violation of Agnes Scott College policy. Persons determined to have engaged in unacceptable behavior, such as activity which substantially threatens or interferes with another person’s academic efforts, property, employment or participation in the life of the college or creates a hostile or demeaning atmosphere, will be subject to prompt disciplinary action.

—Approved by the Board of Trustees

Disruptive Behavior

Disruptive behavior includes any behavior that infringes on the rights, privileges, or property of others, or which impedes the safety of community members or disrupts the educational process or essential operations of the college. Disruptive behavior offenses could involve disturbance of the public peace, lewd and indecent behaviors and/or belligerent behavior toward students, faculty, and/or staff in the performance of their duties. Depending on the nature of the disruption, cases involving disruptive behavior may be adjudicated by Honor Court or the Dean of Students. For disruptive classroom behavior, please refer to the DISRUPTIVE CLASSROOM BEHAVIOR POLICY section within this handbook.

Statement on Gender Expression and Gender Identity

Agnes Scott is a diverse and inclusive community that strives to provide a safe learning environment for all students, including those who challenge gender norms within our society. We are proud of our many trailblazing alumnae whose lives challenged the gender conventions of their day, including the first woman to be ordained in the Presbyterian Church in the United States and one of the first women to argue a case before the Supreme Court. We believe in the distinctive value and advantages of women’s colleges and celebrate our rich legacy as an institution focused on providing a liberal arts education for women that is “fully abreast of the best institutions of this country.” We are also proud of the ways women’s colleges have provided students the opportunity to explore freely and pursue ideas, aspirations and identities, including those considered radical or unconventional in their time. Our statement of support on gender expression and gender identity is consistent with the multitude of ways that we seek to live our mission.

Agnes Scott Ideal, Frank H. Gaines, 1889

- At Agnes Scott College, we “educate women to think deeply, live honorably and engage the intellectual and social challenges of their times.”

- In our strategic plan for 2014, agnesscott.edu/about/strategicplan, we have committed to becoming “a living laboratory of campus-wide commitment to justice, courage, integrity, respect and responsibility.” Our goal is to “develop a more inclusive campus community that provides all members with avenues for participation and voice” and to “cultivate knowledge of and respect for diversity as key ingredients for educational excellence.”

- In light of these commitments, we support students, including students who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, intersex or questioning (LGBTQIQ). This support takes the form of a variety of campus services designed to create a safe learning and living environment for all. To maintain our Title IX status as a women’s college, we admit undergraduate students who identify as female. Our goal is to embrace both our identity as a woman’s college and our identity as an inclusive community.

- We will continue to support efforts to cultivate understanding and acceptance of gender diversity so that all persons regardless of their gender identity and gender expression are fully recognized as citizens and feel safe leading authentic lives.

- We encourage all members of our community to educate themselves about how they can support individuals whose gender identity or gender expression may challenge gender norms. The Gué Pardue Hudson Center for Student Engagement serves as a resource in providing education and support and in addressing questions or concerns for all students, faculty and staff. The center sponsors workshops, dialogues and trainings, which include agnesscott.edu/studentlife/interculturalaffairs/safe-zone.aspx, a program specifically designed to promote knowledge and sensitivity toward members of the LGBTQIQ community. These programs strengthen our ongoing efforts to be a welcoming and inclusive community.

Students with Disabilities

Agnes Scott is committed to providing equal educational opportunities to all students and complies with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended and the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008. Agnes Scott accepts students with documented disabilities who can successfully pursue a demanding and rigorous college program.

The Office of Academic Advising is the designated office on campus for students with disabilities. Kelly Deasy, 404.471.6174, kdeasy@agnesscott.edu serves as the student disability services coordinator. The student disability services coordinator is a resource and advocate for students registered with the office. The office also provides support to faculty members who implement accommodations in the classroom.

Students with documented disabilities who need accommodations must obtain appropriate documentation, such as a psychological assessment, evaluative testing results or a statement from a physician. In the case of attention deficit disorder or a learning disability, the evaluation must have been completed within the past three years or after the student’s 18th birthday. The student should also meet with the student disability services coordinator, to determine appropriate accommodations. The accommodations are determined on a case-by-case basis after review of the documentation and discussion with the student. Once accommodations are approved the student disability services coordinator emails the faculty member and student a copy of the accommodation checklist.

The checklist does not include the reason a student is registered with the office, only the approved accommodations. The student receiving accommodations should meet with each instructor before or at the beginning of the semester to discuss the accommodation checklist. Both the student and instructor will sign the checklist and the students should return it to the student disability services coordinator.

Academic accommodations may include but are not limited to the use of accessible textbooks or readings, a note taker, extended time for examinations/quizzes, a reduced distraction environment for examinations/quizzes, use of word processing for examinations or housing accommodations. The request for accommodations and documentation of the disability are maintained in the student’s confidential file in the Office of Academic Advising. To start the process visit: http://legacy.agnesscott.edu/academics/academicadvising/disabilityservices.aspx.

4 Mission of Agnes Scott College, 2002

Consensual Sexual Relationships

1. Among employees:

   Sexual, intimate and/or romantic relationships (even consensual ones) between college employees and those they supervise are potentially exploitative because of the imbalance of power inherent in them. Employees must avoid relationships that pose threats to the fulfillment of their professional duties or call into question the consensual nature of their relations.

   The college prohibits employees from supervising, evaluating, or determining the terms or conditions of employment of anyone with whom they have a sexual relationship. When a sexual relationship exists between any employees in a supervisory relationship, immediate steps must be taken to terminate the supervisory arrangement, and alternative means of supervision must be implemented.

   If employees in a supervisory relationship have had a sexual relationship in the past or have a continuing or past intimate relationship, either party may request that alternative means of supervision be implemented.

   Any employee who violates this policy will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

2. Among undergraduate students and faculty:

   Sexual relationships between faculty members and undergraduate students are inconsistent with the mission of the college and inappropriate because they carry a risk of damaging the student’s educational experience and the faculty member’s career. The college thus prohibits sexual relationships, even of a consensual nature, between faculty members and currently enrolled students.

   Faculty members are strongly advised to exercise their best professional judgment concerning student-faculty relationships and to consider that intimate relations with students, even of a nonsexual nature, can be fraught with difficulties and the appearance of impropriety.

3. Among graduate students and faculty:

The college discourages sexual relationships between graduate students and faculty members not in the same program. The college prohibits sexual relationships between faculty members and graduate students in the same program or students whom they supervise, evaluate, or teach.

4. Among students and non-faculty employees:

For the same reasons that faculty are prohibited from having sexual relations with students, Agnes Scott College prohibits non-faculty employees from having sexual relationships with students whom they employ, supervise, evaluate, counsel, advise, or potentially discipline.

5. Prior relationships:

The foregoing policies do not apply to persons whose consensual sexual relationships antedate their enrolling or being employed at Agnes Scott College. If a teaching or supervisory relationship exists between persons with such a prior relationship, this relationship must be disclosed and, alternative means of supervision must be implemented.

All faculty and staff at Agnes Scott College should understand that romantic or sexual relations with students or employees in violation of this policy may lead to disciplinary action by the college, up to and including dismissal and/or may lead to legal action by complainants.

Approved by Executive Council, July 2006

Process for Investigating Violations of the Consensual Sexual Relations Policy

A. Initiation of a report or complaint

1. Timeliness: Reports and complaints of a violation of the consensual relationships policy should be initiated as soon as possible after the violation(s) occurs in order to aid effective investigation. All reports and complaints will be promptly investigated and appropriate action will be taken to remedy the problem as expeditiously as possible. (See below for specific timelines if a complaint is filed.)

2. Non-retaliation: Anyone who submits a report ("reporter") or complaint ("complainant") will be protected from retaliation in any form. Anyone who knowingly makes false accusations will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action consistent with college policies and procedures.

3. Confidentiality: The college will respect the privacy of reporters and complainants, of persons against whom a complaint is made ("respondents"), and of witnesses in a manner consistent with the college’s duty to investigate and take appropriate action.

4. Due process: The college will make every reasonable effort to protect the rights of both complainants and respondents.

5. Initial report: All students and employees should report a violation of the consensual relationships policy about which they have credible evidence to a college officer or to the Director of Human Resources. No one should assume that an official of the college already is aware of any given instance of alleged violation of the consensual relationships policy. Any member of the college community who knows of or receives a complaint of a violation of this policy should report the information or complaint to a college officer ("officer") or the Director of Human Resources ("director").
6. Informational meeting: Anyone having credible evidence of a violation of the consensual relationships policy should meet with a college officer or the Director of Human Resources. At this meeting, the reporter should explain the basis for the report. The officer or director should explain the college’s policies and procedures regarding consensual sexual relationships. The officer or director should clarify for the reporter the types of information that will automatically initiate further procedures.

7. Informal resolution: After discussing the report of a violation of the consensual relations- ships policy with the reporter, if the officer or director believes that the situation might be best resolved informally, or that the conduct does not violate the college’s policy on consensual relationships, or that the complaint rests on misperceptions or miscommunication, the officer or director may attempt an informal resolution of the report or complaint. This attempt at informal resolution may include further fact-finding, consultation with involved par- ties or other reasonable means to resolve the situation or remedy the conduct informally. If informal resolution is attempted, however, the identity of the reporter will be kept confidential, unless the reporter gives permission to divulge her or his identity, and no resolution will be imposed that is not agreed to by all parties involved. Informal investigations and resolution attempts may be terminated at any time by the filing of a written complaint. In any event, the informal resolution process must be concluded one month of the informational meeting, unless extended by consent of the reporter and the respondent(s).

Information and accusations contained in reports or gathered in the process of informal investigations shall be kept in a confidential file in the Office of Human Resources. Information about an individual in this file may be accessed for the purpose of investigating future reports of a violation of the consensual relationships policy, but may not be used as a basis for making personnel decisions. Records of informal resolutions shall be kept in a confidential file in the Office of Human Resources and may be used as a basis for future personnel decisions only with the consent of the respondent to the informal resolution.

8. Written complaint: At any point during the process of informal resolution any person having knowledge of a violation of the consensual relationships policy may initiate a formal process of investigation and resolution by filing a written statement explaining the basis of the complaint. Any college officer or the Director of Human Resources may initiate formal procedures to investigate and resolve conduct suspected of constituting a violation of the consensual relationships policy on the basis of substantial credible evidence. Past reports of a violation of the consensual relationships policy alone do not constitute substantial credible evidence; the officer or director must have evidence about current conduct to file a complaint. If the officer or director initiates the process of investigation and resolution, the officer or director must also put in writing the complaint and explanation of the substantial credible evidence that warrants the initiation of the investigation and resolution process.

B. Investigation of the written complaint

1. Investigation board: On the basis of a written complaint, an investigation board shall conduct a prompt and thorough investigation of the conduct that forms the basis of the complaint. The board shall be composed of the officer(s) who supervises the person(s) named as in violation of the policy (“respondent”), the Director of Human Resources, the chair of the Faculty Executive Committee, and one additional member chosen from the respondent’s constituency (if a faculty respondent, a second faculty member to be named by the Faculty Executive Committee; if a staff respondent, a second staff member to be named by Staff Council). An officer shall serve as chair of the investigation board.

2. Conflict of interest: If any member of the investigation board is a party to the complaint or has any other conflict of interest that would prevent her or him from adjudicating the complaint in a fair and impartial manner, the president of the college will decide the existence of such a conflict and designate a substitute of similar status to serve on the investigation board. If for any reason it is not appropriate or possible for the president to do so, the chair of the Board of Trustees will designate a substitute.

3. Informing the parties: The director shall inform the respondent(s) of the existence of the complaint, provide a copy of the written complaint, and provide a copy and information about the college’s policies and procedures regarding consensual relationships. The director shall also inform the respondent(s) of the identity of the complainant. The director will also furnish, in writing, to both complainant and respondent(s), a statement explaining the rights and responsibilities of all parties, including rights to confidentiality in so far as possible consistent with the need to investigate and resolve the complaint, the guarantee of non-retaliation, and the process for imposing sanctions and appealing resolutions.

4. Investigation: The board shall conduct a thorough, fair, and expeditious investigation based on written evidence and interviewing of all witnesses who, in the opinion of the board, can shed light on the merits of the complaint and the conduct of the respondent(s). The complainant and respondent(s) shall have the right to present any witnesses and information that in their opinion can provide valid and relevant evidence. The parties may also suggest questions to any witnesses, but questioning shall be done by the chair of the investigation board, whose judgment about the appropriateness and wording of questions, after consultation with other board members on any questions she/he deems necessary, shall be final. All parties have the right to be assisted by up to three advocates of their choosing, although practicing attorneys shall not be present at hearings of the investigation board.

C. Resolution

1. Finding of fact: Within two months of the filing of the complaint, unless the time period is extended by the consent of the complainant and the respondent(s), the investigation board shall make appropriate and well-grounded findings regarding the factual basis of the complaint. The board may also make recommendations to the appropriate college officer regarding a just and reasonable remedy, including the possible imposition of penalties.

2. Resolutions: The appropriate college officer, based on the findings and recommendations of the investigation board, will take appropriate remedial actions and will follow up as necessary to ensure that the remedial actions are effective. The officer’s decision about the proper course of action to resolve the complaint shall be communicated to the complainant and respondent(s) within one month of the submission of the investigation board’s findings and recommendations. A copy will be filed in the appropriate college records (for employees, their personnel files).

3. Imposition of penalties: The appropriate college officer may impose penalties ranging from an oral or written warning up to and including suspension or dismissal from the college, unless the respondent is a full-time faculty member.

4. Suspension or dismissal of faculty: the Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean of the College’s decision to suspend or terminate a full-time faculty member holding a continuous appointment or a probationary or term contract before its expiration is a recommendation only and triggers the procedures for dismissal for cause under Dismissal of Teaching Faculty Policies and Procedures (Faculty Handbook).

D. Appeals: Either party may appeal the decision, in writing, within 5 days of receipt of the written decision by the investigative board, through standing procedures, which include the faculty grievance process and union staff grievance process. Administrative staff may appeal directly to the president or her designee. Any decision rendered through the appeal process shall be final.
E. Documentation: The Director of Human Resources is responsible for keeping a record of the entire formal complaint process, including all complaints, answers, written evidence, notes from hearings, other documentary evidence from the investigation and appeals processes, and documentation of remedial actions taken and any evidence concerning their effectiveness. This record shall be maintained in a confidential file in the Office of Human Resources, and shall be available to managers and RPT committees for use as appropriate in making personnel decisions.

Sexual Harassment Policy and Process

I. Policy

A. Policy: Agnes Scott College is committed to maintaining an environment in which all members of the community, staff, students, faculty, and visitors, are treated with respect and dignity. It is the policy of the college not to discriminate on the basis of sex in any of its programs, activities, or employment practices. Agnes Scott College prohibits sexual harassment in any form by any member of the Agnes Scott College community and by visitors to the campus, including guests, patrons, independent contractors, or clients of the college, and by those participating in off campus college programs, such as study abroad programs, internships, student teaching, and experiential learning.

Sexual harassment is prohibited by Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972. Conduct that might not be held to violate these statutes may nonetheless be considered sexual harassment under college policies and the college condemns and prohibits conduct that is sexually harassing even if such conduct would not be adjudged illegal.

B. Definition: Unwelcome verbal or physical conduct (whether of a sexual nature or not) that is directed at individuals on the basis of their gender, or that demeans persons because of their gender, constitutes sexual harassment when submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s employment or academic treatment or status in a course or other college activity. This includes when:

1. Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as a basis for decisions affecting that individual’s employment, academic status, or participation in any college activity; or

2. Such conduct significantly interferes with an individual’s work performance or academic performance or with an individual’s ability to participate in or benefit from any college activity.

C. Academic freedom respected: The college is committed to academic freedom as stated in Section II of the Faculty Handbook, Statement on Academic Freedom and Responsibility, and complaints will be evaluated consistently with this policy. The academic setting is distinct from the workplace in that wide latitude is required for professional judgment in determining the appropriate content and presentation of germane academic material. Material germane to a course may sometimes offend or disturb; however, intimidation and harassment are inconsistent with the maintenance of academic freedom on campus and violate the ethical and professional responsibilities of faculty members to avoid any exploitation of students for private advantage.

II. Procedures

A. Direct resolution: Anyone experiencing or observing sexual harassment is encouraged to explain clearly to the alleged offender that the behavior is objectionable and request that it cease. If such an objection does not seem safe or efficacious, or if after the objection is raised the conduct does not cease, the person experiencing or observing the offending conduct should promptly report the complaint to an officer of the college or to the Director of Human Resources.

B. Initiation of a report or complaint

1. Timeliness: Reports and complaints of sexual harassment should be initiated as soon as possible after the incident(s) occurs in order to aid effective investigation. All reports and complaints will be promptly investigated and appropriate action will be taken to remedy the problem as expeditiously as possible. (See below for specific time-lines if a complaint is filed.)

2. Non-retaliation: Anyone who submits a report (“reporter”) or complaint (“complainant”) will be protected from retaliation in any form. Anyone who knowingly makes false accusations will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action consistent with college policies and procedures.

3. Confidentiality: The college will respect the privacy of reporters and complainants, of persons against whom the complaint is made (“respondents”), and of witnesses in a manner consistent with the college’s duty to investigate, to take appropriate remedial actions, and to comply with any discovery or disclosure obligations required by law.

4. Due process: The college will make every reasonable effort to protect the rights of both complainants and respondents.

5. Initial report: All students and employees should report any sexual harassment that they experience or about which they have credible evidence to a college officer or to the Director of Human Resources. No one should assume that an official of the college already is aware of any given instance of alleged sexual harassment. Any member of the college community who knows of or receives a complaint of harassment should report the information or complaint to a college officer (“officer”) or the Director of Human Resources (“Director”).

6. Informational meeting: Anyone experiencing sexual harassment or having credible evidence of the occurrence of sexual harassment should meet with a college officer or the Director of Human Resources. At this meeting, the reporter should explain the basis for the report. The officer or Director should explain the college’s policies and procedures against sexual harassment. The officer or Director should clarify for the reporter the types of information that will automatically initiate further procedures.

Informal investigations and resolution attempts may be terminated at any time by the filing of a written complaint. In any event, the informal resolution process must be concluded within one month of the informational meeting, unless extended by consent of the reporter and the respondent. Information and accusations contained in reports or gathered in the process of informal investigations shall be kept in a confidential file in the Office of Human Resources. Information about an individual in this file may be accessed for the purpose of investigating future reports of sexual harassment, but may not be used as a basis

7. Informal resolution: After discussing the report of sexual harassment with the reporter, if the officer or Director believes that the situation might be best resolved informally, or that the conduct does not rise to the requisite level of severity or pervasiveness or for any reason does not violate the college’s policy against sexual harassment, or that the complaint rests on misperceptions or miscommunication, the officer or Director may attempt an informal resolution of the complaint. This attempt at informal resolution may include further fact-finding, consultation with involved parties, including the respondent, mediation attempts, or other reasonable means to resolve the situation or remedy the conduct informally. If informal resolution is attempted, however, the identity of the reporter will be kept confidential, unless the reporter gives permission to divulge her or his identity, and no resolution will be imposed that is not agreed to by all parties involved.

Informal investigations and resolution attempts may be terminated at any time by the filing of a written complaint. In any event, the informal resolution process must be concluded within one month of the informational meeting, unless extended by con- sent of the reporter and the respondent. Information and accusations contained in re- ports or gathered in the process of informal investigations shall be kept in a confidential file in the Office of Human Resources.
Information about an individual in this file may be accessed for the purpose of investigating future reports of sexual harassment, but may not be used as a basis for making personnel decisions. Records of informal resolutions shall be kept in a confidential file in the Office of Human Resources and may be used as a basis for future personnel decisions only with the consent of the respondent to the informal resolution.

Information about respondents who are students shall be kept in a confidential file in the Office of Human Resources for the purpose of investigating future reports of sexual harassment and may only be accessed by the investigating officer and director of human resources.

8. Written complaint: At any point during the process of informal resolution any person believing him or herself to have experienced sexual harassment may initiate a formal process of investigation and resolution by filing a written statement explaining the basis of the complaint. Any college officer or the Director of Human Resources may initiate formal procedures to investigate and resolve conduct suspected of constituting sexual harassment on the basis of substantial credible evidence. Past reports of sexual harassment alone do not constitute substantial credible evidence; the officer or DHR must have evidence about current conduct to file a complaint. If the officer or Director initiates the process of investigation and resolution, the officer or Director must also put in writing the complaint and explanation of the substantial credible evidence that warrants the initiation of the investigation and resolution process.

C. Investigation of the complaint

1. Investigation board: On the basis of a written complaint, an investigation board shall conduct a prompt and thorough investigation of the conduct that forms the basis of the complaint. The board shall be comprised of the officer who supervises the person named as the harasser in the complaint (“respondent”), the Director of Human Resources, the chair of the Faculty Executive Committee, the President of Honor Court, and one additional member chosen from the respondent’s constituency (if a faculty respondent, a second faculty member to be named by the Faculty Executive Committee; if a student respondent, a second student to be named by Honor Court; if a staff respondent, a second staff member to be named by the staff members’ organization). The officer shall serve as chair of the investigation board.

2. Conflict of interest: If any member of the investigation board is a part to the com- plaint or has any other conflict of interest that would prevent her or him from adjudicating the complaint in a fair and impartial manner, the president of the college will decide the existence of such a conflict and designate a substitute of similar status to serve on the investigation board. If for any reason it is not appropriate or possible for the president to do so, the chair of the board of trustees will designate a substitute.

3. Informing the parties: The Director shall inform the respondent of the existence of the complaint, provide a copy of the written complaint, and provide a copy and information about the college’s policies and procedures against sexual harassment. The Director shall also inform the respondent of the identity of the complainant. The Director will also furnish, in writing, to both complainant and respondent, a statement explaining the rights and responsibilities of all parties, including rights to confidentiality in so far as possible consistent with the need to investigate and resolve the complaint, the guarantee of non-retaliation, and the process for imposing sanctions and appealing resolutions.

4. Investigation: The board shall conduct a thorough, fair, and expeditious investigation based on written evidence and interviewing of all witnesses who, in the opinion of the board, can shed light on the merits of the complaint and the conduct of the respondent. The complainant and respondent shall have the right to present any witnesses and information that in their opinion can provide valid and relevant evidence. The parties may also suggest questions to any witnesses, but questioning shall be done by the chair of the investigation board, whose judgment about the appropriateness and wording of questions, after consultation with other board members on any questions she/he deems necessary, shall be final. All parties have the right to be assisted by up to three advocates of their choosing, although practicing attorneys shall not be present at hearings of the investigation board.

5. Remedial measures during the course of investigation: At any point after the filing of a written complaint, the president of the college may place the respondent on administrative leave with pay or suspend the respondent without pay. Summary suspension shall be imposed only when, in the judgment of the President, the respondent’s presence on campus would constitute a threat to the safety and well-being of members of the campus community. Before implementing the suspension, the accused individual shall be given written notice of the intention to impose the suspension and shall be given an opportunity to present oral and written arguments against the imposition of the suspension. If the respondent is suspended, the formal process should be completed within the shortest reasonable time possible, not to exceed ten working days. During the suspension, the respondent may not enter campus without obtaining prior permission from an officer of the college.

D. Resolution

1. Finding of fact: Within two months of the filing of the complaint, unless the respondent has been suspended (see preceding paragraph) or the time period is extended by the consent of the complainant and the respondent, the investigation board shall make appropriate and well-grounded findings regarding the factual basis of the complaint. The board may also make recommendations to the appropriate college officer regarding a just and reasonable remedy, including the possible imposition of penalties.

2. Resolutions: The appropriate college officer, based on the findings and recommendations of the investigation board, will take appropriate remedial actions and will follow up as necessary to ensure that the remedial actions are effective. The officer’s decision about the proper course of action to resolve the complaint shall be communicated to the complainant and respondent within one month of the submission of the investigation board’s findings and recommendations. A copy will be filed in the appropriate college records (in the case of employees, their personnel files; in the case of students, in their student records files).

3. Imposition of penalties: The appropriate college officer may impose penalties ranging from an oral or written warning up to and including suspension or dismissal from the college, unless the respondent is a full-time faculty member.

4. Suspension or dismissal of faculty: the VPAA’s decision to suspend or terminate a full-time faculty member holding a continuous appointment or a probationary or term contract before its expiration is a recommendation only and triggers the procedures for dismissal for cause under Dismissal of Teaching Faculty Policies and Procedures (Faculty
E. Appeals: Either party may appeal the decision, in writing, within 5 days of receipt of the written decision by the investigative board, through standing procedures which include the faculty grievance process, student Judicial Board and union staff grievance process. Administrative staff may appeal directly to the president or her designee. Any decision rendered through the appeal process shall be final.

F. Documentation: The Director of Human Resources is responsible for keeping a record of the entire formal complaint process, including all complaints, answers, written evidence, notes from hearings, other documentary evidence from the investigation and appeals processes, and documentation of remedial actions taken and any evidence concerning their effectiveness. This record shall be maintained in a confidential file in the Office of Human Resources, and shall be available to managers and RPT committees for use as appropriate in making personnel decisions. Information about respondents who are students shall be kept in a confidential file in the Office of Human Resources for the purpose of investigating future reports of sexual harassment and may only be accessed by the investigating officer and director of human resources.

Alcohol & Drug Policy

Statement of Purpose

The abuse of alcohol and the use of illegal drugs by members of the Agnes Scott College (ASC) Community (faculty, staff and students) are incompatible with the goals of the college. In order to further the College’s commitment to providing a healthy and productive educational environment, and in compliance with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989, and the Drug Free Workplace Act of 1988, the college has established the following policy on alcohol and other drugs.

Health Risks

The scope and impact of health risks from alcohol and drug abuse are both alarming and well documented ranging from mood altering to life threatening. Abuse of alcohol and drugs alters behavior, distorts perception, impairs thinking, impedes judgment and sabotages opportunity. Substance abuse may result in deterioration of physical health by causing or contributing to various diseases, illnesses or birth defects which may result in permanent impairment or death.

Definitions Relating to Alcohol and Other Drug Violations

Possession of alcohol or drugs refers, but is not limited, to holding, no matter the duration, alcohol or illegal drugs/controlled substances in hand or, having them in one’s clothing, purse/book bag (or similar case), automobile, or residence.

Consumption of alcohol refers to the act of drinking or ingesting any amount of an alcoholic beverage.

Use of drugs refers to the act of ingesting, inhaling, drinking, eating, and/or any other method of introducing an illegal drug or controlled substance into one’s body.

Distribution of drugs refers to the sharing of illegal drugs/controlled substances with or giving them to others.

Sale of drugs refers to the exchange of illegal drugs/controlled substances for money or other forms of compensation (sale).
Facilitating the possession/use of alcohol or drugs refers to the act of allowing others to possess, consume, or use alcohol or illegal drugs/controlled substances in one’s residence or automobile.

Student Conduct

Agnes Scott College student conduct regulations prohibit the unlawful possession, use, or distribution of alcohol and other drugs by students and student organizations. The regulations also prohibit other alcohol-related misconduct. All students under the age of 21 are prohibited from possession and consumption of alcohol. All students are prohibited from the use and possession of illegal drugs. In addition, student organizations sponsoring events where alcohol is present are subject to the requirements and guidelines of the College’s Social Events policy and registration form. Sanctions for violations of these student conduct regulations may include alcohol and/or other drug education, mandated evaluation and treatment, community service, suspension, and/or expulsion. Student organizations which knowingly permit illegal drug activity will be excluded from campus for a minimum of one year, and leases or agreements for use of College property will automatically terminate pursuant to Agnes Scott Alcohol and Drug Policy and Georgia law.

Employee Conduct

It is the college’s desire to provide a drug-free, healthful, and safe workplace. To promote this goal, employees are required to report to work in appropriate mental and physical condition to perform their jobs in a satisfactory manner.

While on ASC premises and while conducting business-related activities off ASC premises, no employee may use, possess, distribute, sell, or be under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs. An exception to the prohibition of use, possession, or distribution of alcohol will be made for college-sponsored social events or other college-affiliated activities on or off campus (e.g. fundraising, faculty recruitment, alumnae engagement, partnership cultivation). When possible, college events will include a professional server, and the event organizer should be prepared to provide taxi service to an employee who appears to be intoxicated. Professional behavior is expected at all times and alcohol-related misconduct will not be tolerated. Any employee who is intoxicated or otherwise impaired will be subject to disciplinary action.

The legal use of prescribed drugs is permitted on the job only if it does not impair an employee’s ability to perform the essential functions of the job effectively and in a safe manner that does not endanger other individuals in the workplace.

Violations of this policy may lead to disciplinary action, up to and including immediate termination of employment, and/or required participation in a substance abuse rehabilitation or treatment program. Such violations may also have legal consequences.

To inform employees about important provisions of this policy, ASC has established a drug-free awareness program. The program provides information on the dangers and effects of substance abuse in the workplace, resources available to employees, and consequences for violations of this policy.

Employees with questions or concerns about substance dependency or abuse are encouraged to use the resources of the Employee Assistance Program. They may also wish to discuss these matters with their supervisor or the Human Resources Manager to receive assistance or referrals to appropriate resources in the community.

Employees with drug or alcohol problems that have not resulted in, and are not the immediate subject of, disciplinary action may request approval to take unpaid time off to participate in a rehabilitation or treatment program. Leave may be granted if the employee agrees to abstain from use of the problem substance; abides by all ASC policies, rules, and prohibitions relating to conduct in the workplace; and if granting the leave will not cause ASC any undue hardship.

Under the Drug-Free Workplace Act, an employee who performs work for a government contract or grant must notify ASC of a criminal conviction for drug-related activity occurring in the workplace. The report must be made within five days of the conviction.

Employees with questions on this policy or issues related to drug or alcohol use in the workplace should raise their concerns with their supervisor or the director of human resources without fear of reprisal. Any employee who serves or provides alcoholic beverages in his or her official capacity is subject to the Office of Special Events Alcohol Use Guidelines, http://intranet/Advancement/communications/Special_Events/Calendar/calendar_download/admin-external%20alcohol%20use%20request.doc, which include prohibiting the furnishing of alcohol to persons under age. These guidelines should be reviewed by all employees hosting and/or working at any event where alcohol will be served.

Criminal Sanctions

Under Georgia and federal law, it is a crime to possess, manufacture, sell, or distribute illegal drugs. As required by federal regulations, you may view information detailing federal penalties for drug trafficking and the Georgia state law regards the sale, distribution, and possession of dangerous drugs.

Federal sanctions for the illegal possession of drugs include imprisonment up to 1 year and/or a minimum fine of $1,000 for a first conviction; imprisonment for 15 days-2 years and a minimum fine of $2,500 for a second drug conviction; and imprisonment for 90 days-3 years and a minimum fine of $5,000 for a third or subsequent drug conviction. For possession of a mixture or substance which contains a cocaine base, federal sanctions include 5-20 years in prison and a minimum fine of $1,000, for a first conviction if the mixture or substance exceeds 5 grams, for a second conviction if the mixture or substance exceeds 3 grams, and for a third or subsequent conviction if the mixture or substance exceeds 1 gram. Additional possible penalties for the illegal possession of drugs are forfeiture of real or personal property used to possess or to facilitate possession of a controlled substance if the offense is punishable by more than 1 year imprisonment; forfeiture of vehicles, boats, aircraft, or any other conveyance used, or intended for use, to transport or conceal drugs; civil fine up to $10,000 per violation; denial of federal benefits, such as student loans, grants, contracts, and professional and commercial licenses for up to 1 year for a first and up to 5 years for a second or subsequent offense; successful completion of a drug treatment program; community service; and ineligibility to receive or purchase a firearm.

Georgia law prohibits the purchase or possession of alcohol by a person under the age of 21, or the furnishing of alcohol to such a person. Driving under the influence of alcohol or other drugs also is illegal. It is against Georgia law, under certain circumstances, to walk or be upon a roadway while under the influence of alcohol or other drugs. The punishment for these offenses may include imprisonment, payment of a fine, mandatory treatment and education programs, community service, and mandatory loss of one’s driver’s license.

City of Decatur- It is unlawful to drink alcohol in a vehicle parked or moving on the streets, highways, or alleys in the city. It is unlawful to carry any type of open liquor container in public.

The Office of Human Resources will notify the U.S. Department of Education, as required, if it learns of an employee’s conviction under any criminal drug statute.

Education and Counseling

In order to promote an environment free of substance abuse, the college supports an active program of community awareness and education. This program extends to the misuse or abuse of controlled substances including prescription drugs, alcohol and other harmful substances. The college also offers assistance with confidential counseling. Students, faculty and staff are encouraged to refer individuals who appear to be troubled by drug or alcohol use to one of these resources. For students, such counseling is available through Counseling and Psychological Services (ext. 6346). Students who are concerned about their own or others’ use of such substances may seek advice and counsel from appropriate college resources without fear of breach of normal rules of confidentiality or fear of punishment. The Employee Assistance Program (EAP) offers confidential counseling for employees confronting substance abuse. Employees or supervisors can contact the EAP at 800-828-6025. The Office of Human Resources (ext. 6029) may be contacted for information on the EAP program.

Responsibilities

Agnes Scott College Offices responsible for ensuring that this policy is distributed annually to each student and employee are: Office of Human Resources for employees and Office of the Dean of Students for students. In addition, the policy will be provided to all new students and new employees at the time they become members of the Agnes Scott College community.

Biennial Review

This policy will be reviewed at least biennially to assess its effectiveness, to implement appropriate changes and to ensure that disciplinary sanctions are consistently enforced. The vice president for student life and director of human resources are jointly responsible for ensuring this review is conducted.

Smoking Policy

Agnes Scott is a “smoke-free” campus. Smoking is strictly prohibited in all facilities (e.g. classrooms, computer labs, offices, residence halls, Avery Glen apartments and theme houses). Smoking is permitted outside at designated locations that have been equipped with appropriate receptacles. Smoking is not permitted within 20 feet of any residence hall or building entrance.

When the desire to smoke conflicts with those requesting a smoke-free environment, the need for smoke-free air will take priority.

Violations of the college’s smoking policy will be handled as a disciplinary matter and will be reviewed by the appropriate college administrator.

Inclement Weather Emergencies

In the event of severe weather, information on the closing or delayed opening of the college is available from the following sources:

1. WGST 640 AM; WSB-TV, Channel 2; WAGA, Channel 5; WXIA, Channel 11; WGCL, Channel 46
2. ASC Weather Line: Recorded message on 404.471.5100. This line will be updated as changes occur.

   Please do not call the public safety department.

3. College websites: If the college is closed, information will be posted and updated on Agnes Scott’s emergency website: http://emergency.agnesscott.edu.

   If the college is not closed, use the following guidelines to secure additional information or to report absences.

A. Regulations for Students, Faculty and Staff

1. Resident Students

   A notice will be posted on the bulletin board in Buttrick lobby with updated reports of classes that are canceled. Please check this bulletin board or the Office of the Academic Affairs.

2. Commuting Students

   For information about the cancellation of specific classes, call the office of faculty services 404.471.6361 after 8 a.m.

3. Faculty

   If travel to the campus is impossible or unsafe and you are unable to meet your scheduled classes, notify the Office of Faculty Services at 404.471.6361 after 8 a.m.

4. Staff and student work-study employees

   Contact your immediate supervisor if you are unable to travel to work.

B. Tornado Alert Plan

The Department of Public Safety monitors the National Weather Service on the police communication system. Severe weather emergency procedures are as follows:

1. As soon as the Atlanta metro-area is identified as a “watch” area, public safety will contact building captains and resident directors via email and voicemail.

2. If DeKalb County is placed on a “warning” status, public safety will deliver a public address message to the campus followed by activation of the Early Warning Tornado System and distribution of a SMS text message to all registered student cell phones. Everyone on campus should then move to the lowest level of the building in which they are located, staying away from windows and doors.

3. As soon as the “warning” status has been lifted for the area, public safety will deliver an “all clear” public address message and SMS text message to all registered student cell phones.

Intellectual Property Policy

I. PURPOSE

Agnes Scott is committed to providing an environment that supports the creation and development of works of authorship and inventions by its faculty, employees and students. Agnes Scott has developed this Intellectual Property Policy in order to identify and protect the intellectual property rights of the college, its faculty, employees and students in such copyrightable works of authorship and patentable inventions. This Policy specifies when the creator retains ownership of such works and inventions and instances when the College obtains ownership thereof.

II. DEFINITIONS

The following definitions shall apply to the terms used in this Policy.

A. “college” Agnes Scott College.

B. “College Intellectual Property” means Intellectual Property owned by the college pursuant to this Policy as set forth below in Section III.

C. “College Resources” means college funds from any source; facilities; classrooms; class time; personnel; offices; labs; studios; equipment, whether owned or leased; production facilities; computer hardware, software, support or resources; funding, grants, contracts and awards; or other college-owned resources.

D. “Copyrightable Works” means original works of authorship fixed in a Tangible Medium of Expression, now known or later developed, from which they can be perceived, reproduced, or otherwise communicated, either directly or with the aid of a machine or device.

E. “Course of Employment” means where a Creator creates or develops Intellectual Property as part of his/her employment obligations or responsibilities or at the specific direction and/or under the control of the college.

F. “Creator” means any faculty, employee, student, or other person(s) who creates, or substantially assists in the creation of, intellectual property subject to this policy.

G. “Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean of the College” means the person that directs the overall planning, operation and administration of the general academic program at the college.

H. “Dispute Panel” means a panel that shall resolve disputes arising under this policy in accordance with Section VI hereof. The Dispute Panel, chaired by the vice president for academic affairs and dean of the college, shall be composed of two members designated by the creator(s) and two members designated by the vice president for academic affairs and dean of the college. In the event that the dispute is between two members of the Agnes Scott community, one panel member will be designated by each disputant and two members will be designated by the vice president for academic affairs and dean of the college. The dispute panel members must be current faculty or employees of the college.

I “Employee” means any person, other than faculty, hired by the college, on either a full- or part-time basis, to perform college duties. Employees include administrative and professional staff, and students who receive salaries or assistantships, work-study funds, stipends, or hourly wages while performing duties at the specific direction of, or assigned by, the college.

“Employee” does not include a student providing research assistance to faculty or engaging in collaborative research or creative endeavors with faculty.

J. “Faculty” means any person hired by the college to conduct instructional and/or teaching activities, whether on a full- or part-time basis. Faculty includes persons hired as adjunct or visiting professors and instructors.

L “Inventions” means any new and useful process, product, discovery, software, machine or composition of matter, or improvement thereon, whether patentable or otherwise.

M. “Policy” means this intellectual property policy.

N. “Sponsor” means a third-party business or person that finances the creation of intellectual property pursuant to a contract or arrangement between the college and that business or person. The federal, state and municipal governments, or any agency of those governments, can be a sponsor under this policy.

O. “Student” means any person taking one or more courses at the college, either full-time or part-time.

P. “Substantial Use” means the significant use of college resources, whether during or after customary college business hours. The following are examples of substantial use, but in no way limit or restrict the meaning of thereof: (i) extended use of time and energy by the creator(s) in the work that results in a reduction in the expected levels of teaching, scholar- ship, or other academic activities, so that anticipated performance in these areas is at a level significantly less than normal; (ii) the use of college funds to support the work’s creation; (iii) the use of faculty or other employees in the creation of the intellectual property; (iv) the use of funding from gifts to the college to support creation of intellectual property; (v) the production of intellectual property under specific terms of a sponsored research grant or contract; and (vi) the use of specifically designated college funds to support the creation of the intellectual property involved. Normal and ordinary use of college provided office space, library resources and computers shall not constitute “substantial use.”

Q. “Tangible Means of Expression” includes, but is not limited to, books, periodicals, manuscripts, phonographs, films, tapes and other electronic media.

R. “Traditional Works of Scholarship” means copyrightable works or inventions that are created independently and at the creator’s own initiative for traditional academic purposes, such as the development of courses, the teaching of classes, or scholarly research or creative endeavors considered within academia or the college to be evidence of professional accomplishment or advancement. Traditional works of scholarship include, but are not limited to, the following: scholarly books and articles, including books in any tangible form; course materials, including course notes, syllabi, examinations and course assignments; literary works, musical works, including any accompanying words; dramatic works, including any accompanying music; pantomimes and choreographic works; pictorial, graphic and sculptural works; photographs, prints, diagrams, models and technical drawings; software; motion pictures and other audiovisual works, including any screenplays, teleplays or other original scripts or texts; sound recordings; and architectural works.
III. OWNERSHIP OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Ownership of all intellectual property created in whole or in part by faculty, employees and students shall be subject to the following guidelines:

A. Faculty:

   (i) Traditional works of scholarship created by a faculty member shall be owned by such faculty member; provided, however, that subject to other requirements imposed by a publisher, the college shall retain a royalty-free right to use such traditional works of scholarship for non-commercial, educational purposes only;

   (ii) If the college expressly directs a faculty member(s) to create or develop the intellectual property, or the intellectual property is created as a specific requirement of employment or as an assigned institutional duty, then the college shall own the intellectual property;

   (iii) If the faculty creator has voluntarily transferred the intellectual property, in whole or in part, to the college, with such transfer in the form of a written document signed by the faculty member, then the college shall own the intellectual property;

   (iv) If the faculty creator has created or developed intellectual property in connection with a project funded, in whole or in part, by a sponsor, then the intellectual property shall be owned in accordance with the terms of any applicable contract or agreement between the faculty creator, the college and the sponsor. Such arrangement is to be agreed to in writing, in advance, and in full conformance with other provisions of this policy; and

   (v) Unless otherwise delineated within subsections (i) – (iv) above and if the faculty creator made substantial use of college resources in creating or developing the intellectual property, then the college shall own the intellectual property.

B. Employees: All intellectual property created or developed by an employee in the course of employment shall be deemed a “work made for hire” and owned by the college.

C. Students:

   (i) Intellectual property created or developed by a student while acting in the capacity of an employee shall be owned by the college;

   (ii) Intellectual property created or developed by a student (a) working with or for an employee of the college, or (b) at the specific request or direction of the college, shall be owned by the college;

   (iii) Intellectual property created or developed by a student in collaboration with a faculty member shall be owned in accordance with the provisions set forth in Section III. A. unless the student and faculty member agree otherwise in writing;

   (iv) Intellectual property created or developed by a student in connection with a project funded by a sponsor shall be owned in accordance with the terms of any applicable contract or agreement between the college and the sponsor, regardless of whether the student was acting as a student or an employee. In the absence of such an agreement, any intellectual property arising from such project shall be owned by the college; and
(v) Unless otherwise delineated within subsections (i) – (iv) above, intellectual property created or developed by a student with substantial use of college resources shall be owned by the college.

Ownership of intellectual property created by a faculty, employee or student that does not fall within the guidelines set forth above, shall vest in the creator.

IV. COMMERCIALIZATION

The college, in its sole discretion, may commercialize any intellectual property that is owned by the college in accordance with Section III and shall have the authority to decide the revenue, if any, that the college will receive as a result of such commercialization. In the absence of a written agreement to the contrary, any revenue received from the commercialization of college intellectual property, other than college intellectual property resulting from the course of employment, will be distributed as follows:

A. The college may, at its discretion, first deduct from revenue all or any portion of any actual expenses incurred by the college in protecting, developing or marketing the college intellectual property, including but not limited to legal fees and other fees paid to third parties. If the creator objects to the amount of such expenses deducted, then he or she shall submit a written audit request to the vice president for academic affairs and dean of the college, and the college will engage an independent auditor to determine the amount of actual expenses incurred, provided, however, that the auditor’s fees will be added to such expenses and deducted from the revenue as well.

B. After any deductions of expenses, the remaining revenue shall be distributed as follows:

   (i) The first $5000.00 shall be distributed to the creator(s), pro rata if more than one creator is involved; and

   (ii) After the first $5000.00 has been distributed, 50 percent of the remaining revenue shall go to the creator(s), pro rata, and 50 percent shall go to the college.

V. ASSIGNMENT OF CREATOR

With respect to college intellectual property, the college may, upon request and in its discretion, assign ownership to the creator subject to a perpetual royalty-free license to the college to use the intellectual property for its own purposes. Such requests should be submitted to the vice president for academic affairs and dean of the college who shall decide whether to assign such ownership. The college may also accept property that is voluntarily assigned, and/or required by contract provision to be assigned to the college. The college shall determine whether to accept or reject any and all assignments of any intellectual property.

VI. RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES

A. Disputes arising over the application of this policy, including the ownership of intellectual property or distribution of revenue to creator(s), shall be brought in writing to the vice president for academic affairs and dean of the college. The dean will convene a meeting of the dispute panel within a reasonable time thereafter to resolve such dispute. The dispute panel shall issue their decision in writing, providing reasons for their decision, as a recommendation to the president.

B. Either party to a dispute may appeal the decision of the president to the board of trustees who may, in its discretion, refer the matter to binding arbitration. The cost of the arbitration shall be borne equally by the college and the creator(s).

VII. RESPONSIBILITY OF PARTIES
It is the responsibility of the college and all members of the college community to ensure adherence to this policy.

Faculty, employees, and students and other creators governed by this policy shall have the obligation to:

1. Make themselves aware of and adhere to restrictions on rights in intellectual property deriving from agreements between the college and sponsors;

2. Inform the college in a timely manner of any and all material that should be protected pursuant to the provisions of this policy, and to cooperate with the college to obtain such protection;

3. Obtain written permission from the vice president for academic affairs and dean of the college to publish, in journals or other media, use, or distribute any College intellectual property; and

4. Ensure that Students or contractors working collaboratively with or under the faculty or staff’s direction on projects (whether or not for pay) that may result in intellectual property have executed the appropriate agreements concerning the assignment of rights as contemplated by this policy.

Any and all requests by any person for a clarification, explanation or determination of any of the rights and/or obligations under this policy shall be made in writing to the vice president for academic affairs and dean of the college. The vice president for academic affairs and dean of the college shall respond within a reasonable time upon the receipt of such request.

VIII. SEVERANCE/CHOICE OF LAW

Any provision of this policy which is prohibited by law, or unlawful or unenforceable under applicable law, shall be ineffective only to the extent of such prohibition, without invalidating the remaining provisions of this policy. Where the terms of this policy are inconsistent with applicable law, and where applicable law controls, this policy shall be deemed to be amended to comply with applicable law. This policy shall be construed and interpreted according to the laws of the State of Georgia.

IX. RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

The college in consultation with the executive committee of the faculty reserves the right to modify and/or make changes, as it deems advisable at any time to this policy. Changes shall become effective after approval by the board of trustees and upon publication of the revised policy.

Involuntary Withdrawal Policy

PREAMBLE

The college strives to promote the health and safety of all community members by providing student health care, counseling services, public safety and by enforcing student-conduct regulations and protection services.

To ensure the institution and its members are allowed to carry out their activities without the substantial threat of interference or danger of harm, the college has adopted a policy and the following procedures for the emergency withdrawal of a student when deemed necessary to promote the health and safety of either the student or college community.

POLICY

I. Criteria and Procedures for Involuntary Withdrawal

A student will be subject to immediate withdrawal from the college and/or college housing if the dean of students determines the student:
• Engages or threatens to engage in behavior posing a significant risk to the health or safety of self or others;

• Engages or threatens to engage in behavior that would cause significant property damage or directly and significantly impede the lawful activities of others.

• Significantly disrupts the living and learning community.

Once it is determined the student’s conduct falls within these criteria, the college may take interim action to protect the well-being of the student and/or other members of the community. By interim involuntary withdrawal, the college may remove a student from any or all college premises when the dean of students, in consultation with representatives from the offices of health services, counseling and psychological services, public safety, residence life, dean of the college and dean of students, and after considering reasonably available information, determines that a threat of significant risk to self or others exists. Interim involuntary withdrawal is a preliminary action taken to protect the health and safety of the student withdrawn, or of others, and is not a penalty.

The student will be notified in writing and temporarily withdrawn from the college and asked to leave campus immediately. The withdrawal will be continued until the Judicial Review Committee reaches a final decision regarding the student’s future status. During this withdrawal period and until the Judicial Review Committee makes a determination, the student may not return to campus nor participate in campus activities without the prior approval of the dean of students. The student shall be provided with a copy of this Involuntary Withdrawal Policy. At any time, the student may terminate the process by voluntarily withdrawing from the college.

The dean of students will make the initial determination whether the matter will be sent directly to the Judicial Review Committee (Section III, Student Handbook) or whether the student will be referred to a licensed psychiatrist or psychologist for evaluation (Section II, Student Handbook). The student will be notified of this decision in writing, either by personal delivery or certified mail. If the matter is sent directly to the Judicial Review Committee, the committee shall convene and consider the case (Section III, Student Handbook) within seven days of the notice to the student.

II. Referral for Evaluation

The student may be referred by the dean of students, at the college’s expense, to a licensed psychiatrist or psychologist for evaluation. The psychiatrist or psychologist’s participation is intended to assist the college in assessing the situation and to provide guidance to the Judicial Review Committee regarding the student’s future status. The student may select the psychiatrist or psychologist from a list of three provided by the college. If the student declines to select a psychiatrist or psychologist, the college will make the selection.

The dean of students shall also provide the psychiatrist or psychologist a written description of the student’s behaviors that led to the referral, with a copy to the student, along with a copy of the Involuntary Withdrawal Policy.

The psychiatric or psychological evaluation must be completed within one week from the date of the referral letter, unless an extension is granted in writing by the dean of students. Within 48 hours after the evaluation is completed, the dean of students, psychiatrist or psychologist and student will meet to discuss their assessment of the situation. The student may also choose to provide the dean of students and the Judicial Review Committee with an evaluation by an independent licensed psychiatrist or psychologist of the student’s own choosing and at the student’s expense. This second evaluation must take place within one week of the first evaluation unless an extension is granted in writing by the dean of students. During the involuntary withdrawal process, a representative of the college may contact the student’s parents or legal guardians, if deemed appropriate.
III. Judicial Review Committee

The final step in this process, whether the matter is referred directly or following evaluation, will be the presentation of the case to the Judicial Review Committee. The student and dean of students will present all pertinent and relevant information at the Judicial Review Committee meeting.

The usual procedures of the Judicial Review Committee will be followed except the dean of students will not participate as a member and will not vote in the final decision. As with other college procedures, neither the college nor the student shall have attorneys or legal representation at this proceeding. The student who has been referred for psychiatric or psychological evaluation and participates in this Judicial Review Committee proceeding acknowledges and agrees this process may involve a discussion of the student's relevant medical/psychiatric records and communications and will result in some loss of confidentiality and privacy.

The Judicial Review Committee decision will be final. This decision may include reinstatement in good standing; probation or withdrawal; or suspension or dismissal of the student. The committee’s written decision will be delivered to the student and dean of students within 48 hours of the conclusion of the committee’s formal proceedings and shall contain a statement of the reasons for any decision of withdrawal, suspension or dismissal. In addition, the student may be encouraged to seek professional care.

IV. Readmission from Withdrawal

A student may be considered for readmission after the expiration of a minimum of one full semester. To be considered for readmission, in addition to completing the readmission application, the student must submit a personal statement that demonstrates an insight into the issues that contributed to the student leaving the college; a description of the actions taken to address these issues; and if readmitted, a plan to prevent the recurrence of the issues. Supporting documentation from a healthcare provider is also required. This documentation must address the following: (1) the specific diagnosis that precipitated the need for care (2) the duration and frequency of the care (3) gains that were made as a result of the treatment (4) the student’s readiness to return to Agnes Scott and the potential impact of the intellectual, physical and personal demands of being a full-time residential student (5) any special conditions under which the student should be readmitted (6) and a recommended treatment plan to support the student’s transition back to campus. The student must secure a “release of information” form from the healthcare provider(s) to allow consultation by an appropriate Agnes Scott representative with the provider(s). Reference letters from any employers as well as a transcript of any courses taken during the withdrawal period should also be included in the request for readmission packet. These steps must be completed by Dec. 1 for consideration to be readmitted for the spring semester and by Aug. 1 for consideration to be readmitted for the fall semester.

The information gathered is reviewed by a committee composed of the vice president for academic affairs, the dean of students and staff members from their two offices. Re-enrollment is contingent upon their judgment that the student has resolved the issues that led to the withdrawal and/or that a viable plan is in place to manage them should the student return. If re-enrolled, special prescribed conditions or requirements may be outlined as a requisite to the student’s continued enrollment.

V. Deviations from Established Procedures

Reasonable deviations from these procedures will not invalidate a decision or proceeding unless significant prejudice to a student may result.

Withdrawal:

A student who wishes to withdraw must obtain a withdrawal form from the assistant dean of the college. Withdrawal is not official until the form has been signed by the assistant dean. Withdrawal forms will not be signed while academic or disciplinary actions involving the student are in process.
Withdrawals from the college with an effective date after the deadline to drop a course with a “W” grade will result in grades of “WF.” Grades of “WF” factor into the GPA the same as grades of “F.” In cases in which a student withdraws from the college after the deadline to withdraw with “W” grades and the student has documentation of a serious hardship or medical problem, she may appeal to a committee composed of staff from the academic affairs division. Appeals would need to be submitted before the last day of classes for that semester. If approved by this committee for an exception, the student would receive grades of “W” instead of “WF.” If requested, and documentation supports a medical cause for withdrawal, the committee may approve grades of “MED” for all courses instead of “W” or “WF.”

For the financial aspects of withdrawal from the college, see the Tuition and Fees section. Refer to the Agnes Scott College Catalog for additional information and restrictions regarding leaves of absence and withdrawals.

Posting Policy

1. The Center for Student Engagement suggests personal responsibility in all items to be posted; the office recommends that students send their flier, newsletter, etc. to at least two people to be proofread before posting.

2. Postings are defined as chalkings, banners, emails, fliers, public folders, easels, announcements, newsletters and any other mode of communication that is used to announce an event or message.

3. Chalkings, banners, emails, public folders, easels and Facebook groups are encouraged so as to cut down on the amount of paper used.

   On-campus postings will have priority. Any off-campus postings that interfere with on-campus spaces may be removed by anyone at any time. Off-campus postings may only be posted on designated bulletin boards, must be approved by the Center for Student Engagement and must have the date they were posted clearly legible.

4. Removal of Postings

   a. Any postings in general that do not adhere to this policy may be removed at any time by the Center for Student Engagement, including any employees of the office and the inter-organizational chair.

   b. All postings must have contact information. Any postings without contact information will be removed, erased and/or deleted.

   c. If at any time any person finds a posting problematic for any reason (i.e. failure to follow the posting policy), they may notify the center for student engagement who will notify the student group to discuss the issue with them. At no time may any student remove a posting or deface a posting they feel is not following the posting policy for any reason.

   d. If the event the posting advertises has already passed the previous day, a student may remove the posting.

   e. All fliers must be 8½ x 11, standard copier/printer-size. Requests to post larger fliers may be made through the center for student engagement and will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

5. Marketing via email (Office of Marketing and Public Relations campus-wide policy)

   a. The college sends a news and events email, called The Irvine (named for the Scottie mascot, Irvine, who was named in turn named after Agnes Irvine Scott). The Irvine condenses info traditionally emailed from units all over campus into one email.
b. Certain types of campus-wide news and announcements (please see list below) will now be included in The Irvine rather than being emailed directly by campus units, departments or individuals.

c. Announcements that are not events should be 50 words or less to keep The Irvine a manageable length. Any announcements with more than 50 words should be summarized in 50 words or less and can then link to a flyer or other source for more information. Please notify Communications if your message will require a link.

d. The Irvine is for campus-wide emailed announcements only. Announcements being sent to specific groups (class of 2015, international students, clubs, staff in DOS, etc.) would not need to be sent for inclusion. Events not open to the public or campus will not be included in The Irvine.

e. The following is a list of announcements that should be sent for inclusion in The Irvine rather than emailed to campus directly:

f. Any event open to all of campus (lectures, exhibitions, performances, bake sale, car wash, retirement party, open house, etc.).

g. Faculty/staff changes (new employee, employee leaving, retirements).

h. General information to be shared with all of campus (new items to be recycled, visitors on campus, etc.).

i. General news from Agnes Scott administration (new major, new initiative, etc.).

j. Requests for donations (charity drive, etc.).

k. Campus-wide requests for participation or volunteers.

l. Campus newsletters (email will include link to your publication or page).

m. Media coverage about Agnes Scott or its students/faculty/staff.

n. Hours updates (Evans, McCain, bookstore, etc.).

o. Non-emergency status update/project update (Main loop will be closed, construction starting soon, server will be down for scheduled maintenance, etc.).

p. If you have any questions about The Irvine, please contact Julia Lutgendorf at jlutgendorf@agnesscott.edu.

6. Easels

a. Easel stands must be purchased by the group wishing to display the poster.

b. All easel displays will be approved by the director of campus life and student engagement before they are displayed.

c. The appropriate number and placement of the easels will also be approved by the center for student engagement to ensure minimal crowding.

d. All easels must state a group name and email for contact information.

7. Banners

a. All banners must have the date they are posted written on them (front or back), large enough to be seen and in a visible spot.

b. All banners must be removed within two weeks of the date posted.

c. All banners must have the name of the group and an email address for contact information.

d. Banners to be posted for one month may be approved by the director campus life and student engagement.

8. Newsletters

a. The newsletter must clearly state the group’s name and email for contact information.

b. All newsletters must follow the flier posting policy.

c. Any event/group listing may be forwarded to senate@agnesscott.edu to be added to the Walls and Stalls posting, space permitted.

9. Fliers

a. Off-campus distribution: Any fliers intended for off-campus readers must be approved in the Center for Student engagement before a student group is allowed to produce in mass quantity and distribute.

b. On-campus distribution:

   1. No postings may be placed on the exterior of any building (per Decatur City ordinance) and no glass on interior or exterior doors may be covered for safety purposes.
   2. Post only on bulletin boards or columns in Alston Campus Center.
   3. Post only on magnetic strips and boards in Buttrick Hall.
   4. Post with the permission of a department in Dana Fine Arts Building.
   5. Post only on magnetic strips in Presser Hall.
   6. Post only on bulletin boards in Bullock Science Center.
   7. Post only small table tents in McCain Library.
   8. No posting in Avery Glen Apartments.
   9. Must ask permission to post on bulletin boards in Woodruff Physical Activities Building.
   10. Post only table tents in Evans Hall or use the bulletin boards.

c. Residence Halls: Students may submit their fliers to the Office of Residence Life. Flyers will be distributed among the residence life staff who will post fliers in designated hall areas.

d. Guidelines for Fliers:

   1. Only painters’ tape allowed.
   2. Only two fliers per organization at a time.
   3. Only one flier per event at a time.
   4. All fliers must have the group’s name and email for contact information.
5. Fliers may only be posted for two weeks at a time and must have date posted. Students may petition the Center for Student Engagement to keep a flier up for one month (i.e. silent programming) and it should be noted on the flier that it is allowed to be posted for one month.

6. All student groups must remove their postings no later than three days after the event has passed. Failure to do so will result in warnings and possible fines.

7. The Center for Student Engagement will remove fliers that have been up for longer than two weeks and notify the student group their fliers have been removed and any repercussions.

10. Elections Postings

    a. Those running for office should make no more than 60 fliers TOTAL.
    b. No exterior or interior glass of any door may be covered.
    c. No fliers should be placed on the exterior of any building.
    d. All fliers must be posted with painters tape.
    e. All fliers must be 8 ½ x 11.
    f. All building rules for locations to post should be followed.
